REESOR TURNED OUT WITH THE RIVERSIDES

First Time Since Injury—Senior Game Tonight—Notes of the Players.

Pete Reesor, who had his collarbone broken early in the season, was out with the Riversides last night for the first time since his accident. He rushed well and showed no ill effects from his long lay-off.

Torontos leave for Montreal this morning, where they play Canadiens tonight. The blue shirts are going strong and expect to beat the flying Frenchmen. The local team will play the N.H.A. leaders, Quebec, at the Arena on Monday night.

Both Riversides and T.R. & A.A. had a light workout last night in preparation for their senior game tonight. T.R. & A.A. have strengthened for this game and should make it interesting.

The line-up:

Riversides.		T.R. & A.A
Collett	Goal	Teasdale
Smith	R. defence	Maclean
Merrick	L. defence	Sidley
Noble	Rover	Reynolds
Crane	Centre	Smith
Applegath	R. wing	Murray
Deep	L. wing	Trapp

Referee—Lou Marsh.

The O.H.A. has arranged the following games:

—Second Round—Junior.—

Tuesday, Feb. 8—Aura Lee (Toronto) at Owen Sound.

Friday, Feb. 11—Owen Sound at Aura Lee (Toronto).

Tuesday, Feb. 8—Collingwood at Barrie.

Friday, Feb. 11—Barrie at Collingwood.

—Group Play-Offs—Intermediate.—

Friday, Feb. 4—Belleville at Picton.

Monday, Feb. 7—Picton at Belleville.

Friday, Feb. 4—76th Battalion (Barrie) at Bracebridge.

Thursday, Feb. 10—Bracebridge at 76th Battalion (Barrie).

Collingwood and Midland will play a sudden-death game at Barrie on Wednesday, Feb. 9, the winner to play off with the winner of the 76th Battalion-Bracebridge series.

—Junior.—

Saturday, Feb. 5.—Stratford at Berlin Union Jacks.

Tuesday, Feb. 8—Berlin Union Jacks at Stratford.

Monday, Feb. 7—Belleville at Lindsay.

Wednesday, Feb. 9—Lindsay at Belleville.

In O.H.A. intermediate group No. 9, which is composed of two sections, Bracebridge have already been declared winners of section B, but it is likely that Midland, Collingwood and the 76th Battalion (Barrie) will be tied for the honors in section A. Midland and the 76th Battalion are assured of a tie, but Collingwood must beat Alliston twice to get on even terms with the other two teams.

Altho Sarnia played at Seaforth Thursday night in a game scheduled as an O.H.A. fixture, the game was really an exhibition affair. Sarnia will content themselves in going after the intermediate honors, and it was therefore necessary to default the game. Had they played it as a senior fixture it would have disqualified their players for the intermediate ranks, as they had already played in one senior fixture. As a result Seaforth are winners of senior group No. 4, and will play off with Hamilton Rowing Club.

Following are the games for Saturday and next week.

—Saturday.—

Senior—Riversides at T.R. & A.A.

Junior—Port Hope at Oshawa, Lindsay at Belleville.

—Monday.—

Senior—Elmira at Berlin.

Intermediate — Picton at Belleville, Brampton at Weston, Hamilton R.C. at Port Colborne, Dunnville at Niagara Falls, Collingwood at Alliston.

—Tuesday.—

Junior—Aura Lee at Owen Sound, Berlin Union Jacks at Stratford, Belleville at Lindsay, Collingwood at Barrie.

—Wednesday.—

Senior—Argonauts at Riversides.

Intermediate—Collingwood v. Midland at Barrie, Port Colborne at Dunnville, Hamilton R.C. at Niagara Falls, Weston at Bolton.

—Thursday.—

Intermediate—Bracebridge at 76th Battalion (Barrie).

—Friday.—

Intermediate—Hamilton R.C. at Port Colborne.

Junior—Barrie at Collingwood, Owen Sound at Aura Lee.

These, of course, are only the regularly scheduled group games, or second round, or group play-offs already ordered. When winners are declared in other groups they will be ordered to play in the second round as soon as possible.

Queen's University have defaulted in the intermediate series to Picton.

Cobourg O.H.A. club has given three more hockey players to their already long list of men at the front. Cecil Chimo, who played with this year's juniors, is going with the Heavy Battery straight across the pond. Capt. Hooper, another O.H.A. player, is also in the contingent, while Floyd Smith, still another player, has enlisted.

Despite the fact that Frank Knight and Jerry Laflamme were out of town yesterday the Argonauts had the best workout of the week. The forwards were full of ginger and worked like beavers for an hour. Jack McCamus was out for the full practice and was going as good as any of them. Burritt has rounded into form and will be a handy man to have around.

An Ottawa despatch says: A representative hockey team selected from the pupils of various public schools of Ottawa, together with a team of teachers, may engage in a home and home series with public school teams of Toronto, the latter part of this month. The matter is under discussion now, with a fair chance of it coming to a head.

Ottawa Free Press: That a hockey team is no stronger than its first line of substitutes is pretty well illustrated in the case of Montreal Wanderers. With Sprague Cleghorn out of the game the red bands lost a third of their all-round. And when Odie Cleghorn and Roberts were unable to pay, Wanderers' first bench men were put in action. On the other hand, Ottawa appears strong in second string men. Up till a couple of weeks ago the champions were always shy one or more of their regulars, but managed to stick around till the ranks were reinforced. Canadiens appear well equipped with second stringers, ditto Toronto. The six-man game demands three nifty subs at least, with a couple more men able to do some skating.

Sammy Hebert, the Ottawa sub-goaler, who has not been scored upon this season, believes he has the solution to the stamping out of stick-throwing. Sammy advises that any time a player throws a stick and prevents what looks like a near goal, or what would justify a match foul, the side offended against be allowed a goal without any penalty to the player. The young custodian believes that would result in the total extinction of stick-throwing.

Joe Hall packs a smashing body check, and used it to great effect on Merrill and Gerard in the third period against Ottawa. It was straight, however, and in each instance the Ottawa players walked right into it. Joe was on Eddie's trail in the last period.

In Intermediate Group 9, Midland and Collingwood play home-and-home games next Monday at Collingwood and next Wednesday at Midland, instead of a sudden-death game, as originally intended.

THE ONTARIO A. A. U. REINSTATES JOE BURKE

Canadian Athletes Going Abroad Must Have Permits—Sudbury Club Disqualified.

It is necessary for Canadian athletes going abroad for competition to hold international permits, and at the meeting of the Ontario Amateur Athletic Union's registration committee last night the following were approved of: Geo. H. Goulding and Jack Tresidder, Toronto Central Y.M.C.A., to New York Athletic Club, Feb. 8; Jack Tresidder, Fordham University, Feb. 11, and Johns Hopkins University, Feb. 12.

The question of the status of the Sudbury Hockey Club being raised, it was ruled that because of having played against recognized professionals at Pittsburg and elsewhere they are disqualified from competition in sports under A.A.U. jurisdiction.

On the evidence of Private Tommy Daly of the 180th Battalion, who was his trainer on the occasion, and of Sergt. W. E. Turley, just returned from France, who was in charge of the boxing, the suspension of Joseph Burke was raised. He was suspended about three years ago on a charge of holding up at a Riverside boxing show, and has since refrained from competition. He is now eligible for a union card.

Sanction was granted for the Riverside international boxing bouts, which will clear the way for the Dominion championships.
