BERLIN, Aug. 3, via London .-- The raid last night by German zeppeling resulted in the dropping of a great number of explosives and fire bombs on London, on the fleet base at Harwich and on industrial establishments in the County of Norfolk, says an official statement given out here today. The zeppelins were attacked by light British forces, but all returned undamaged, says the statement, which follows:

"During the night of Aug. 2 a great number of our naval ships again attacked the southcast counties of England and successfully dropped a great number of explosive and fire bombs, especially on London, the fleet base at Harwich, on Illway works and on, from a military viewpoint, important Industrial establishments in the County of Norfolk.
