

3. Assistance to deserving young Men, desirous of being qualified for the Ministry of the Church, but requiring aid in pursuing their Studies at the Collegiate Establishment at Windsor.

4th. Aid to Sunday and other Schools, in which due attention is paid to instruction in the principles of the Established Church.

5th. Assistance to the erection or enlargement of Churches and Chapels, belonging to the established Religion, in peculiar or extreme cases.

To these objects, generally, the general contributions will be applied; while contributors who desire it, may have their individual contributions scrupulously confined to any one or more of these objects. And as some members of the Church who are not unmindful of the great spiritual wants in their own neighbourhood, still feel constrained, in pious gratitude for the blessings they enjoy, to allot something, however small, from the means with which a gracious Providence has blessed them, towards the spread of the glorious Gospel among the nations which still sit in darkness—it was Resolved,

10th. That this Society will gladly receive and forward to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, whatever sums may be given for the conversion and instruction of the Heathen, to which object such sums will be strictly confined by the East India Committee of that Society.

11th. Books and Tracts will generally be on sale at cost and charges; and whenever, in particular cases, a deviation from this rule is desired, it must be considered by the standing Committee, and only permitted when recommended by them, and approved by the President, or in his absence, by one or both of the Vice Presidents.

12th. All meetings of the Society, and of the Committees, shall be opened and closed with the Prayers used by the two Societies in England, adapted to our situation, under the direction of the Bishop.
