NO SHAKESPEARE THEATRE

Scheme to Raise $25,000,000 For National Memorial Fails

London, Dec. 1—The extravagant scheme for commemorating Shakespeare's tercentenary by the erection of a national theatre at a cost of $25,000,000 including the endowment considered necessary by its organizers, is already on the rocks.

Apart from the $350,000 promised by an anonymous supporter several months ago, the public has not yet subscribed $25,000, and the methods of the organizing committee are such that all the leading actors connected with the undertaking are now threatening to withdraw their support.

AMUSEMENTS FOR VISITORS AND OURSELVES

ROANOKE WILL BE REPEATED SATURDAY AFTERNOON AND NIGHT, BY REQUEST.

Mr. Bird and the St. John amateurs have had so many requests to repeat Roanoke and the specialties for Saturday matinee and Saturday night, that they have decided to do so.

Owing to the exceedingly large ticket sale for Thursday and Friday night, many have been unable to get seats. The matinee prices will be as usual. Those desiring to see the play Saturday night, should engage their seats early.

FEATURES AT NICKEL.

Possibly the prettiest of Biograph's romances of late months is the story of The Open Gate to be shown today and tomorrow. It is a homely tale of plain people in the good old New England days and tells of a devotion of a maiden lady to her dead sister's child. The dramatic and comic situations are happily interspersed and the whole film leaves a pleasant memory. Equally as good and as pure a picture is the visualization of Alfred Lord Tennyson's lovely story Dora, a bit of English literature that will stand for ages. These two pictures will in themselves prove of great drawing power and in addition there will be Mr. Myers' singing of the march song Ev'ry Day, and Miss Leavitt's Watermelon Time.

The Kriss Kringle Contest among the children starts this afternoon when the first of the prize coupons containing the mystic verse will be distributed. Every matinee from today until the 24th of December these blank forms will be handed the children and it is expected the prizes will be keenly sought after. There are ten awards in all, aggregating $100 in cost.

Motion picture critics and all the authoritative journals in the trade claim for Pathe's magnificent drama "Drink," the first place in the history of this new form of entertainment. It is a photographic version of Emil Zola's powerful story, showing the evils of the alcoholic habit. The Star is obliged to show this great feature in two parts, because of its length and tonight and Thursday the first half will be thrown on the screen. Another most unusual feature is the Vitagraph's portrayal of the "divine mermaid," Annette Kellerman, the handsomest and best swimmer in the world. Add to these great attractions the comedies "Martyr Or Crank." and "Finnigan's Initiation," and you have a monster bill, the Star's best effort this fall. Miss A. L. Newington is a great big success in her song, "Bonnie Annie Laurie." Be early tonight.

THE FINAL SETTLEMENT.

The Final Settlement was the bill again at the Opera House last night and was enjoyed by a fair sized house. It will be repeated tonight, when the company will close their engagement.

KENT COUNTY NOTES

Rexton, N. B., Nov. 29—Two bears, a large one and a small one, were seen on the farm of William Forster at East Galloway a few days ago. They were pursued but not captured.

Twin babies were born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LeBlanc at the Kent Northern Hotel on Thursday evening. They are a girl and a boy.

Miss Estelle Lanigan has accepted a position in the central office of the telephone company at Richibucto.

J. L. Hutchinson has received word from Gloucester, Mass., that his schooner Loyal, has put into that port with her deck swept in bad weather.

The Acadia Telephone Lines Co., incorporated at the last session of parliament by a number of Kent County people, has completed a portion of the line and established connection with the N. B. Telephone Co's line at St. Louis. The new line runs from St. Louis to Rogersville, with boxes at McLeod's Mills, St. Ignace, Acadie Siding and Acadieville, and is being extended to Rosaireville. It supplements the service of the New Brunswick company in a way which will be appreciated by the public, as telephone communication with these points has long been needed.
