

At New Harbour met with a warm reception ; had some very interesting meetings, and trust good has been done.

At Coddle Harbour I found a people who had not been visited by a missionary for 4 years. God, however, had not forgotten them, and in a few days after I arrived there, He manifested his power in the conversion of a number, 8 of whom I baptized, and, with 9 others who had been previously baptized, I organized a Church. Brother Porter has baptized 2 recently.

CAPE BRETON.

Travelled 485 miles, preached 39 sermons, delivered 18 addresses to a few families or persons within call of the house ; visited 66 families, also visited boats, fish houses and fishing stands, talking of Jesus Christ and the fishermen of Galilee to anxious souls ; distributed 1236 pages of Tracts, 20 English Bibles, 14 English Testaments, 6 Gaelic Bibles, 1 volume of Spurgeon's Sermons, 1 volume of Burder's Village Sermons, 1 volume of Boston's Four-fold State,—all gratuitous.

Under date 6th November, he writes to the Board :—These tours I have to take on foot as there are no roads to speak of. But the people generally received me cordially and conveyed me on my way, sometimes through dense forests, across trackless barrens, over huge mountains rising almost perpendicularly from 1000 to 1800 feet above the level of the sea.

The people expressed a willingness and desire to aid the
