City Baseball League Will Have Only Four Teams This

Detroit Gets

Expect Quarter of Million Fans To View Opening Contests

NEW YORK, April 13—The old call to battle sounds again today through the baseball world as 16 major leagus teams get under way in the great American classic which leads to pennants and the final crown of world championship in mellow October days world championship in mellow October days.

While the American and National League teams take the post in the major Derbies, the American Association opens its twentyfifth year of baseball endeavor.

Clear skies and slightly rising temperatures were predicted for the eight cities entertaining major contests, but at that the weather promised to be more suitable for football than baseball, with heavy wraps the style hint for a quarter of a million customers. The mercury has been unable to struggle very far above the freezing point in most of the cities.

of one thing—that is that McCarthy is a courageous, confident leader, knows what he wants and is going after it. He showed that spirit at Louisville. The personnel of the Cub team has been changed a bit already and he contemplates further changes so there is no need to attempt to weigh the possibilities. He may whip what he has into some kind of shape and stage a winning streak that will put the Chicago Cubs in the fight for a few weeks at least.
