COACHMEN REPORTED.

Frederick Worden and Charles Gamble have been reported to the court for going beyond the stand allotted for coach men at the Union Depot yesterday.

ON SHOOTING TRIP.

A. W. Greeley, H. G. Kuhn and George

The closing of the river is looked for at almost any time now, and a still, cold any time now, and a still, cold approach to responsible. Farmers and steamboat men say that the cold spell last week made more ice than the one this week, because the latter was accompanied by a strong gale. Most of the river boats at present are running their complete course, but the May Queen on her last trip went only as far as Young's cover, it being feared if she went the full run to Chipman, there was a possibility of ice forming. Business is keeping up at an encouraging rate, but the expectations are that early next week will see the close

FROM WHATEVER STANDPOINT YOU LOOK AT IT Buying Clothing at Oak Hall

IS AN ADVANTAGE TO ANY MAN If It's a Question of Price—no store in the city can give you as much for your money. In buying at Oak Hall you buy directly of the makers and you SAVE the middleman's profit. You get the same or a better grade of merchandise for one-quarter to one-third less than other stores charge. If It's a Question of Quality—you will get better linings, and better trimmings in Oak Hall Clothes than you will get in Clothes

If It's a Question of Variety—you'll find more new styles, new fabries, new patterns and new colors to choose from at Oak Hall than at any other store in Saint John.

We could go on and write columns about the superiority of Oak Hall Cothes, but nothing we could say can offer such a convincing argument in their favor as will a personal examination of the Clothes themselves. See them, take hold of them, try them on. Look them over carefully, inside and out, and you'll realize that you-ve never got the most for your money if you've never bought Oak Hall Clothes.

Those Rough Finish Hats

We were the first in town to show the comfortable, rough finish hats for Fall and Winter wear-but that was the last of August, and they have been in great demand ever since. Consequently, nearly every week we have been showing something new in them, and just last week the best things yet arrived, both for shapes and colors. If you have never worn a soft hat, now is a good time to try one. Come in anyway and see the new things in Greys and Browns.
