A CHRISTMAS PRESENT FOR EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR

What would please the girls and boys more than that?

A present that will last until the Christmas season comes again, and be appreciated as much as the day it was received.

We have the article that every boy will be proud to own and that will be a pleasure to the girls as well.

Our Magic Lanterns with twelve slides of pretty, amusing pictures is just the thing. We are selling these at $1.25 to 2.00, good substantial machines.

Better secure one today. It will help to wile away the long winter evenings, and is a source of pleasure to the entire family.

Have a look at our toy counters when you call. Remember we give a cash coupon worth 20cts. for every dollar you buy.

McNAMARA SAYS HE WILL TELL NO MORE

Los Angeles, Dec. 7.—John J. McNamara, confessed dynamiter, told Jailer Gallagher today that under no circumstances would he give the federal grand jury any information.
The federal grand jury heard McNamara's story all day and will hear more of it tomorrow, laying the foundation for the probe into the alleged dynamiting conspiracies that extended from coast to coast in the last three years.
McNamara alleges that persons other than John J. McNamara, the secretary and treasurer, paid him for the twenty "jobs" of dynamiting, which he said he accomplished since 1907.

MR. BALFOUR AS MUSIC PATRON

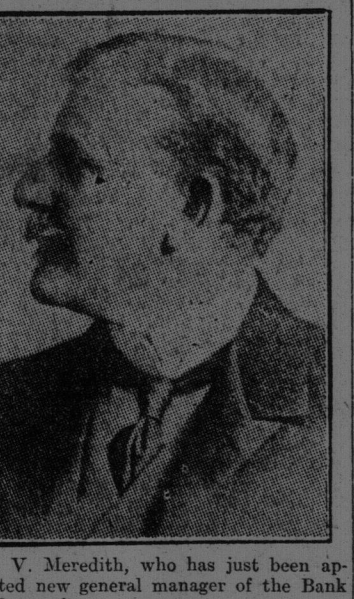

London, Dec. 8.—The Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour, who may not be generally known, despite his strenuous part in politics, has contrived to follow the art of music with enthusiasm and a fair amount of regularity. While appreciating the new school as represented by Wagner, Tchaikovsky, and others, his inclinations are more in favor of such old masters as Bach and Handel—particularly the latter. He is particularly interested in the less familiar works of the composer of the "Messiah," and on one occasion made a special journey to Edinburgh to hear a revival performance of "Belshazzar's Feast."
Mr. Balfour possesses a very fine collection of Handel's works. He is known as a visitor of the big Wagner festivals in Bayreuth, while he was a regular subscriber to the celebrated Richter concerts in London from their inception.
