

May the good Spirit of our God be poured out on all Churches and Associations until the earth is filled with the glory of the God of heaven.

The returns of our Missionaries are encouraging to perseverance; but our limited means confine our exertions, and would much discourage us were it not that the cause is God's; and if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man hath, and not what he hath not.

May he that worketh all things according to the council of his will by means that pleases him, make our feeble attempts work wonders in his great name in conquering the rebellions of the human heart, and the advancing of the kingdom of glorious Christ throughout the world. Amen.

FINIS.

We rejoice that we have had a season of mutual edification and taking sweet counsel together; to unite our efforts to seek the peace and prosperity of Zion: our satisfaction is not a little increased by the continuation of our correspondence and by your minutes, suggestions and resolutions they bring us: and we wish a continuation of it in a more liberal manner than in our Zion, on account of the dearth of laborers, and lukewarmness among professors, and a dearth of ministers in the land: yet have we not been left without some drops of grace as you will see by our minutes of our Brethren of the New-Brunswick Association sent to his brother: "I expect to publish twelve next year's Day; I have baptized more than two hundred since the work began, and it is the most solemn work I ever saw in my life."
