MINOR CHRONICLES.

Don't mind the thermometer; keep on fanning yourself.

This is the weather that will make the bleachers seek the beaches.

Women probably cry at weddings just to make the man uncomfortable.

Wheels are going down "as well" as around. It is good news for the people.

The Baptist Sabbath School are holding their annual picnic this afternoon at Victoria park.

The Paris Presbytery will meet next Tuesday at 11 o'clock in the basement of St.
Paul's church.

The Ingersoll Silica Barytic Stone Co. have been awarded contract No. 2, in Galt.
The latter covers 110,000 square feet of walks.

Mr. R. Vickers, Canterbury street, is very ill with blood poisoning. Some time ago he had a couple of teeth drawn and from this the disease started.

A lecture will be given in Couch's Hall, on Friday night, by Prof. A. H. Welch, on "Phrenology". Silver collection at the door.

Hugh McKay, London, cigar maker, who died on Saturday, was formerly a resident of Ingersoll, he having learned his trade here. He has been in London a quarter of a century.

Mr. Walter Mills showed THE CHRONICLE this morning a colored poster announcing the Jubilee celebration at St. Ives, Hunting-tonshire, England. An elaborate programme was submitted.

A four year old son of Frederick Brink of West Orford fell off a sandbank at J. E.
Tindall's house, Woodstock, Sunday, and broke his arm. The little fellow is under medical care and is doing nicely.

A meeting of the Directors of the Ingersoll Rural Cemetery Company was held Monday night in the office of Mr. D. G.
Cuthbertson. The only business of importance done was to make further grant to cover the expenses of travelling all the walks, which is to be done at once.

To-night, at 6.30, the Oddfellows in town will go to the cemetery to decorate the graves of deceased brethren. Flowers for decoration are being received this afternoon at Mr. Manning's store; Mr. Fleet's store, north of the river, and at the lodge room. The Oddfellows band will head the procession.

A WISE DECREE.

At the council meeting last night, a report of which will be found in another column, a by-law was passed compelling all owners of dogs to have their canines muzzled or tied up. This is a result of the recent mad dog case, and will meet with the approval of many, especially those who do not own dogs.
