Berlin, Ont. Feb. 16 .- One of the ost disastrous conflagrations in Berlin's history occurred this evening, when a large four-story building of the Ber-lin Felt Boot Company, the largest of the kind in the Dominion, was burned to the ground. The fire was discovered in the spinning and carding room on the first floor about 6.45, and no time was lost in getting the fire brigade out, but owing to the severity of the weather and low pressure and a strong wind, very lit-tle could be done to save the structure. The fire raged for over two hours and a half, and is still burning. The Water-loo fire brigade arrived about 8 o'clock to render assistance. Pieces of the burning embers were carried for a mile. The land one iron-built coal-lighter, until fire was quite visible at the distance of six miles north. The origin of the fire is not yet known. The loss is estimated by George Rumpel, one of the proprietors at $75,000; insurance between $40,000 and $50,000. The industry employed about 200 hands and was established thirty years ago, and was known from Victoria to Halifax.
