

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION IN THEOLOGY.

1. The course of training for regular students consists of instruction by the Faculty during seven months of each year, and practical missionary and pastoral work under the direction of the Faculty in the vacation.

2. The Faculty is expected to arrange as far as practicable, for the employment of the students in mission or pastoral work during the five months of vacation in each year, and one Lord's Day a month, on an average, during the session of the University. In making such arrangements the Faculty works as far as possible through the existing missionary organizations of the denomination.—See Methods of Self-Help and Aid to Ministerial Students, p. 12.

3. The missionary and pastoral element in the Course may, in part, be dispensed with, if, in any student's case, the Faculty finds good and sufficient reasons for dispensing with it, such reasons always to be matters of record. But in no case shall this element be wholly dispensed with, and no student shall be held to have completed his course who has not performed so much missionary work as to enable the Faculty to judge that he possesses practical qualifications for the ministry.
