AIMS AND ASPIRATIONS OF YOUNG HEIR TO THRONE

Prince Alexander of Servia Frankly Discusses His Hopes and Plans With the Representative of an English Newspaper.

Rather above the average height, he has an olive complexion, fine dark eyes, black hair, a slight moustache and the alert decision of bearing and expression characteristic of family. Apart from the fact that he wears glasses, he looks to be considerably more studious than his brother, but at the same time he is no bookworm; he is full of that enthusiasm of his twenty years and takes an active interest in many forms of sport.

Throwing aside his cloak, he sat down on the sofa, and prince and newspaper man smoked cigarettes as he talked.

"Now," he said, in answer to a questice.

"Now," he said, in answer to a question, "I have never been in England—unfortunately. But I have the greatest admiration for England and the English and hope to visit the country some day. Now," he continued with a smile, "I am ready to talk with you on any subject under the sun."

"Except politics?" suggested the reporter.

"Well, then, I should like you to talk about yourself, and the period you spent in Russia will be a convenient

"Except politics," he said with another smile.

"Well, then, I should like you to talk about yourself, and the period you spent in Russia will be a convenient starting point."

"Russia? Yes, I was in St. Petersburg for some years and had a very enjoyable time there, on the whole. I learned the language thoroughly, and that is a thing to be thankful for. Of course, for us Servians the task is comparatively easy; the chief difficulty is the very similarity of the languages. The same word in Russian may have quite a different meaning in Servian. My favorite Russian author? That is rather a troublesome question, don't you think? Reality, I cannot point to any single author as my favorite. My judgment seems to vary with my age and with the mood I happen to be in. I have devoured Turgenieff, Tolstoy and Dostolevski in turn, and they are among my favorite—perhaps Destolevski attracts memost.

"How many languages do I know? Three. Servian, Russian and French, My acquaintance with German is of the slightest."

STUDY OF LAW AND TACTICS.

"Is there any truth in the report that you are going to continue your studies in a foreign dniversity?" the prince was asked.

"None," he replied. "I mean to remain in Belgrade, and at the moment am working hard at law and military science. Two of the university professors help me along with the first subject and I have two officers to came into the tropical wilds and purchased vast tracts of primeval forests of zapote, and are doing an enormous business producing and selling the raw chicle gum. It was such a profitable industry that proper judgment and care were not exercised in tapping the trees for the gum, and as a result they have been dying by the hundreds during the last year or two. So rapidly are the zapote forests being exhausted that the price of the raw chicle has advanced more than twenty per cent. during the last twelve months. It is now selling for about forty-five cents gold per pound. Unless new forests are discovered the price will go much higher in a short time, it is claimed.

SUFFERED THREE YEARS Till Dr. Morse's Indian Ro

Pills cured his Kidney Trouble

There are few diseases that cause more acute suffering than Kidney Trouble, and Mr. F. A. Thomas, of Sudbury Ont., is one of those who know it. He writes:

"For over three years I suffered from kidney disease. First I thought I had sprained my back, for suddenly the pain would catch the small of my back and it would be impossible for me to straighten myself up for several minutes. A dull ache across the kidneys was always present, my urine was thick and cloudy, and passing it caused a burning, scalding pain. Tried medicines, but they failed. I was advised to try Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, as they had cured my wife years before. A few boxes affected a complete cure. I now enjoy the blessings of good health, which is due to this remedy."

Don't neglect kidney trouble—it's too dangerous as well as too painful. That old, reliable family remedy, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, has cured thousands and will cure you. It is equally effective in curing constipation and its attendant evils, biliousness, indigestion and sick headaches, and in purifing the blood. 25c a box at your druggist's.

Why No Other Store Can Match the Oak Hall January Clothing Sale Which Is Now On!

The reason why this sale rises head and shoulders above any clothing sale that other stores have ever held or can ever hold is because:

1. Being manufacturers we sell our clothing to you at practically the same prices that other stores pay at wholesale.

2. Our regular prices are therefore 25 to 30 per cent. below the regular prices of

3. When we cut our prices—as we have done for this sale—you can buy our clothing at practically 50 cents on the dollar according to other stores' prices.

So there are no two ways about it—if you buy clothing at any store but Oak Hall you will have to pay more or you will not get as much as you should for what you do pay. You must buy at Oak Hall if you want to get all that's coming to you in the way of clothing v alue. The response this sale is getting shows that there are several thousands men, young men and boys—and women too—who know these facts to be absolutely as stated.
