USE SKODA'S DISCOVERY.
The Great Blood and Nerve Remedy.
—Patrick Foley, a Montreal laborer, was arrested for the murder of his wife in a drunken carousal Saturday night.
—The American end of the new trans-Atlantic commercial cable has been successfully landed at Casco, N. S.
—At Regina, Man., Thursday, Antonio Luciani was hanged for the murder of his companion Peterell at Grenfell last year. Luciani declared his innocence.
—A salmon combine has been formed in British Columbia. Each cannery will be allowed to pack so much and no more this season. A fixed price has also been determined on.
—It is said that another shoe factory is to be added to the business industries of Amherst in the near future, with Mr. Gilbert Harrison, late of the Amherst Boot & Shoe Co., as manager.
—The water at St. Anne de la Perade, Que., is now subsiding rapidly and the danger is past. Damage has been done to the extent of $80,000 and it will take $15,000 to ensure safety against next year's floods.
—Four French-Canadian youths took a skiff for a sail down the Nicolet river, Quebec, on Saturday, and on the way home the boat struck an obstruction, throwing the occupants into the water. Three met a watery grave.
—The trial of "Doc" Andrews for murder at Toronto was commenced yesterday and a jury was selected. There are fifty Crown witnesses and Andrews has ten. Andrews is charged with the murder of Lucy Denning on November 23, 1895.
—Sir David MacPherson arrived home in Toronto Wednesday from Italy. He brought with him the ashes of Lady MacPherson, who died at San Remo on Good Friday, and whose remains were cremated. They will be privately interred at Mount Pleasant.
—Father Michael and M. McLaughlin are progressing rapidly with their new factories at Buctouche. They expect to be making butter by the first of June. They have a better factory, cheese factory, casing mill and wash mill under the same roof.
—The engine of the Moncton and Buctouche train went through the bridge at Buctouche Friday evening. No person was injured, as the cars had passed over the bridge before the accident occurred. The engine is now resting on a pier. Traffic will be suspended for some time.
—On Saturday evening while Henry McCready, a Watertown, Ont., farmer, was driving home he was thrown out upon his head and became unconscious. Shortly after a man named Wilson, who was driving a horse-drawn wagon, drove over him. McCready was removed to the village, but lived only for a few hours. Deceased was sixty years old, and leaves a widow and a large family.
—The Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the charges of corruption against the British Columbia government, opened Wednesday. The charges are in connection with assistance extended last session to the Nakusp and Shocan railway. The Commission is composed of Provincial Chief Justice Sir Matthew Begbie and Justice Burdige, of the Exchequer Court of Canada.
—A gang of medical students of University College, Gerard street east, Toronto, attacked from behind a University "freshman," blindfolded him and after severely beating him, shot him on one side of his mustache. Much indignation is felt here and in this case the University authorities failed to mete out any punishment to the guilty parties. The friends of the young man will fight the matter to the bitter end in the courts.
—A recent storm did great damage to the Baptist church at Hopewell Hill, Albert Co. Besides one of the small spires being knocked off, the ornamental work was demolished on one side of the top of the tower, a large window destroyed, clapboards stripped off, and the cornice torn off the base of the tower. The plastering in the vestibule was also shattered and the upper part of the face of the tower blackened by the lightning.
—The work of excavating for the new Baptist church, Amherst, was commenced on Tuesday last. The ground was staked off, after which Rev. Mr. Steele made a short and appropriate prayer, then Mrs. Robert McCully turned the first sod, Mrs. C. B. Smith and Mrs. N. A. Rhodes also each turned a sod. Upon the completion of this ceremony the work of excavating began in earnest and is being rapidly pushed.
—The W. C. T. U. of Wolfville has sent to Messrs. John W. Selville and Selden Sanford, of Somerset, Kings Co., N. S., two constables whose names have been prominently before the public of late in connection with a Scott Act arrest and shooting affair at Grand Pre, a message assuring them of the sympathy of the Union in the suffering they have been called upon to endure, and expressing the belief that the criticism to which Messrs. Selville and Sanford had been subject is both unjust and unkind.
—The celebrated Campbell heresy case has been settled. A conference having been held between the Presbytery at Carleton Place, Ontario, and Professor Campbell, the latter agreed to the following: First—The statements of the Old Testament writers to the character of God were true as far as they went, but in a few cases were not the whole truth. Second—That in the great majority of cases the Father, when sitting in judgment and in discipline or chastisement, acts in accordance with general laws or through secondary causes. The Presbytery deemed this satisfactory, and reported to the Synod, and the latter accepted the agreement with an expression of thanks.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, etc.
—The town of Norway, Me., sustained a loss of $300,000 through a fire yesterday which destroyed a large box factory and many fine residences.
—Col. Joseph Moore is dead at Indianapolis, aged 89 years. He planned and constructed all of the pontoon bridges used by Sherman on his march to the sea.
—The Lima Steel Casting Works were destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $300,000, with $100,000 insurance. The plant was comparatively new and was the best equipped in Ohio.
—There are 105,311 Chinese in the United States, according to the returns of the number registered under the exclusion act, the term of which expired on the third instant. By the census of 1890, the Chinese population was 107,485.
—The work of tearing down the World's Fair buildings began Thursday on a large scale. The Woman's and Fisheries buildings were the first to be attacked. All the statues which ornamented the Woman's building were taken down without damage.
—On board the steamer Rolland, at New York, from Bremen, there were two cases of smallpox among the steerage passengers. The patients are two children, who have been isolated for the past ten days. They will be transferred to the reception hospital.
—The Cleveland passenger express on the Baltimore & Ohio South-western Railway leaving Cincinnati at eight o'clock, was held up near Wyoming by about twenty "hobs." The train crew drove the intruders off, but as soon as the train was started the tramps boarded it again.

Deaths.

BRADLEY-HODGINS.—At the Baptist parsonage, Hampton Village, May 8, by Rev. George Howard, John A. Bradley, to Georgie M. Hodgins, all of Norton, Kings Co., N. B.

FORAN-KINNEY.—At Florenceville, N. B., April 28, by Rev. A. H. Hayward, Alexander Foran, of Kent, to Lucy A. Kinney, of the same place.

DEATHS.

FLOYD.—At Fairfield, April 10th, of a gripe, Samuel Floyd, aged 75 years.

HAINES.—At Half Island Cove, on May 6th, in his 78th year, Deacon William Haines, of Upper White Head. He was a very able member of the Baptist church, and very much respected by all who knew him.

REED.—At Tower Hill, Charlotte Co., N. B., April 29th, Jacob Reed, aged 88 years and 7 months. Mr. Reed was a worthy member of the Rolling Dam Baptist church. His death was calm to God's praise while on earth. His favorite hymn was, "Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine." Now, in that bright world above his voice is mingling with the angelic choir, singing the glad news of Jesus and His love.

BANKS.—At North Williamton, Jan. 15, Milton Ray, second son of Henry and Elizabeth Banks, in the 6th year of his age. A bright and beautiful child, his death has left a sad blank in the home. His little voice was always to God's praise while on earth. His favorite hymn was, "Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine." Now, in that bright world above his voice is mingling with the angelic choir, singing the glad news of Jesus and His love.

COGGINS.—At Westport, N. S., April 22nd, after a prolonged illness, Capt. Andrew Coggins, aged 71 years. He was a man of exemplary life, and this, together with good executive ability, made him a valuable citizen, and a member as well as a useful member of the church of God. His family, the church and the community in his death have lost what cannot be restored till the morning of the resurrection. "He be- lieved, died yet speaketh."

BANKS.—At North Williamton, Annapolis Co., Jan. 9, Sister Emeline, beloved wife of Hanley Banks, aged 75 years and ten months. In her declining years she was sustained by grace divine and could feel to trust all in the hands of the Saviour she had served faithfully for so many years. In the death of Sister Banks the church loses a valued member and the community a kind and benevolent friend. Her last days were spent at the home of her son Henry, where everything that loving hands could do was done to minister to her comfort. A husband and two sons and a large circle of friends are left to mourn.

LOCKE.—At Lockeport, April 28th, Sister Elizabeth Locke, aged 69 years. Sister Locke was the wife of our faithful brother, Thomas Locke. The happy married life extending over a period of 52 years. They had eleven children, six of whom survive their mother. Sister Locke was baptized by the late Rev. William Locke, in his 40th year. Her Christian life has always given a fine example of quiet consistency, and during a long and very painful illness the love of Jesus was a constant companion, and caused her sufferings to be endured with sweet resignation. In her last moments she repeated the words of David, "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for Thou art with me, Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me."

GODD.—At Malden, Mass., Sadie, beloved wife of Joseph Godd, Esq., and daughter of Rev. Richard Hargis, of Osborne, Shelburne Co., in the 23rd year of her age. Our sister was attacked with inflammation, and all that medical skill could do to relieve her fruitless. Our young sister was a member of the Osborne church, having been baptized some seven years ago by Bro. Isaiah Wallace. She lived the life of the righteous and her last days were like theirs. Her friends have to mourn their loss, but realize that it is her eternal gain. Her remains were laid to rest in the quiet churchyard in Malden, there to await the resurrection of the just. May God comfort the mourners with the assurance of a glorious reunion in the home prepared for the faithful. [Yarmouth Herald copy.]

OAKES.—The New Albany church has sustained another loss in the removal, by death, of Deacon Jesse Oakes, who passed away on the 28th ult, aged 85 years. Though weakened by advanced age and suffering during recent years from disease, he was always in his place in the church when possible. One of the early settlers in Albany, he resided at the old homestead till called to the heavenly home. A son of loyalist parents, naturally strong physically, and of resolute purpose, he was, in his active life, a leader in whatever promoted the good of the community. He was not converted till near middle life. Forty-seven years ago, during a powerful religious awakening under Rev. W. C. Rideout, he with many others joined the Albany church. How often was he accustomed to refer to the sweet revelation that came to his life, when he was enabled to realize that God through Christ could be just and yet the justifier of the guilty sinner who would trust in Him. As a deacon, he stood at his post as long as he felt able. Of his ten children six survive him, four sons and two daughters. Few men have ever been more upright in business or more faithful to promises. At last he rests from toil and care. The funeral services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. Langille, who delivered a discourse on the resurrection. Few men have ever been more upright in business or more faithful to promises. At last he rests from toil and care. GAMEKEEPER AND POACHER.

A Desperate Encounter and a Timely Rescue.

The Yorkshire (England) Factory Times, of March 16th, contains the story of a bout between a gamekeeper and a poacher, in which the former came out second best, and would have been killed but for a timely rescue. The poacher was not a man, but an infinitely more subtle and dangerous antagonist; and but for the intervention of a Canadian his coveted victim would today be numbered with the dead. The story, as related in the English paper named above, is as follows: "Mr. James Coulton was for twenty-five years gamekeeper on the estate of Weld Blundell, Esq., Southport. Several months ago he was attacked with partial paralysis, and what the doctors termed softening of the brain. He was confined to his bed and had lost all hope. Hearing of the (great Canadian) Hawker remedies, he was induced to give them a trial. After taking four bottles of Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic and a box of Hawker's Liver Pills, a change manifested itself; a continuous improvement took place, and he is now well. He is today able to go about all the avocations of his daily life. Nothing but Hawker's Tonic saved him, for he was bedridden and the first had gone forth that his case was hopeless."

It does not require a very brilliant mind to draw the right inference from the above clear and emphatic statement. It is that any person in an enfeebled state of health, from whatever cause, will find in Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic a sure agent for the restoration of health and strength. The terrible poacher, Disease, has no armor to withstand the power of these great remedies. Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic is a certain cure when faithfully used for all diseases arising from nerve exhaustion, weakened or impaired digestion, or an impoverished or impure condition of the blood, and the prostrating effects of lagrippe or any nerve weakness of heart or brain arising from worry, overstrain of mind or body or excesses of any nature. Hawker's Nerve and Stomach Tonic and Hawker's Liver Pills are manufactured by the Hawker Medicine Co., St. John, N. B., Canada, and can be obtained from all druggists and dealers. Tonic fifty cents a bottle or six bottles for $2.50. Pills twenty-five cents a box.
