Lord Strathcona Told Immigration Superintendent This Would Be Attained—Offensive Regulations Changed.

Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Mr. W. D. Scott, superintendent of immigration, has returned from the Old Country where he went to look into the complaints which have been directed against the Canadian immigration regulations which provide that arrivals from the Old Country must possess $25 at least on reaching Canada. As a result of conferences held with the officials of the various immigration agencies in the Old Country and with other parties interested, the superintendent of immigration is able to announce that there will be a modification of the money qualification with respect to new arrivals. The effect of this modification will be that any immigrant who comes to Canada secures permanent employment and demonstrates to the satisfaction of the officials of the department that he and his family are not likely to become charges will be allowed to bring out the members of his family without producing the amount. This modification applies only to assisted immigration as the immigration authorities have never insisted on an immigrant who has come to Canada on his own account and made good being compelled to provide additional funds for his family on arrival in Canada.

Mr. Scott is optimistic as to the prospects of increased immigration from Great Britain to Canada. Australia, he says, had entered upon a vigorous immigration propaganda and will have to be reckoned on in the future, but Canada will be able to hold her own with the Commonwealth. While in England Mr. Scott spent a week as the guest of Lord Strathcona. The high commissioner for Canada, he said, continues to take a lively interest in all things Canadian. He is looking for a great development in transportation facilities and predicts that in less than five years it will be possible to travel from London to Ottawa in five days.

ACADIA REPORTS

Continued from page 1. men" had been required. The gathering of congregations had been considered more important than the organization of a church. The churches would do well to study the record of pastors rather than passing judgment upon a trial sermon. The address called forth the hearty thanks of the convention.

Acadia Endowment.

Rev. Dr. Cohoon, the treasurer of the Board of Governors of Acadia University presented his report. The endowment has been increased during the year by about $50,000. The total endowment now amounts to $392,987.28. The worth of the endowment is manifest in that it yields at the rate of 5.44 per cent. The work in all the various departments has been carried forward so as to leave a small surplus on every account. The income from endowment is applied exclusively to the work of the college and does not go toward the support of Acadia Seminary or of Horton Academy. The plan of the corporation is valued at $207,300.00.

Rev. G. A. Lawson, as treasurer of the ministers' annuity fund, presented a report which provided for a forward movement in which an attempt is to be made to add $65,000 to the invested funds so that with a total endowment of $100,000 the annuitants will be certain to receive the full amount provided.

Sunday Services.

Woodstock, Aug. 21.—Rev. E. D. Webster, of Wolfville, preached the annual sermon today, taking for his text John 1, 14. The sermon was carefully wrought out and was delivered with characteristic ability. Rev. Geo. A. Lawson presided at the afternoon session at which the work of the Sunday School received consideration. Addresses were delivered as follows: "The adult class as a social factor." Rev. P. J. Stackhouse, Amherst. "The adult class as a pastor's helper." Rev. A. S. Lewis, Yarmouth. "Men and the church." Rev. E. B. Cutten, B. L. D. An address was also delivered by Rev. Mr. Shaboy, a Baptist Missionary in Persia.

The Saturday evening session was devoted to the presentation of the claims of the Educational work of denominations. Dr. DeWolf and Dr. Archibald were succeeded by Dr. Cutten who created confidence and enthusiasm by his evident optimism over the future prospects of Acadia. In Dr. Cutten the Baptist people of the area found a leader to their liking and the prospects for Acadia University appear very bright.

The evening session tonight was devoted to the work of the laymen's missionary movement. Addresses were delivered by Messrs W. A. Cross, St. John, Rev. Mr. Dickson, Assam, and N. B. Smith, Halifax. The following have been elected to fill vacancies on the board of Governors of Acadia University: E. C. Whitman, Canoe; E. N. Rhodes, M. P. Amherst; C. H. Dimock, Windsor; W. G. Clark, Fredericton; Garfield White, Sussex; Col. D. McLeod, Vinco, Woodstock; F. A. Shand, Windsor; E. D. King, Halifax; Rev. Dr. Cohoon; Rev. Dr. Goedspeid.

TYPOS AND PRESSMEN CELEBRATE AT NEWCOMB'S

Baseball Game Was Especially Strong Feature—Sports and Other Amusements—Then Feasting and Toasts.

Arriving at the green glades about Newcomb's, the merry-makers dismounted and the master of ceremonies gave the word to get busy. A bunch of "comps" straightway started to play ball with another bunch of pressmen. As the party rode through the country, all the girls flocked to the doors, and the cattle in the fields turned tail and fled, bewildered by the fantastic invasion.

After the games everybody sat up to a table cloth loaded with mixed pickles, blueberries and other things, with liquid refreshments on the side. After the regulation toasts had been duly honored Jimmy Barry arose and proposed a toast to himself. "Youse fellers are all right," said Jimmy. "And so am I. But I have to leave yer in the morning, so I have one on me." So they drank a stirrup cup with Jimmie and drove home in the twilight, happy as sand flies.

N. B.—The great feature of the famous game of last was Stubbs' slide for first base. Stubbs will teach it to the uninitiated free.

LIVES LOST

Continued from page 1. About a thousand refugees have been brought into Missoula today. There is much distress among them. Their wants are supplied by Missoula people and they have been given temporary homes.

The first of the trains came in over the Northern Pacific's "Cour D'Alen" branch and brought the patients who had been in the sisters' hospital at Wallace, and as many refugees as could find place on the small train. There were 250 on this train and several more on a train which came from the small towns along the line between here and Wallace. Many of them had been roused from their sleep by the people on the train, whose summer had been the first indication that the fire was near; there had been no signs of it when the people went to bed Saturday night. In most instances these people escaped only scantily clad.

Local hospitals are caring for the sick. Missoula homes have been opened freely, and the homeless are comfortable for the present. Another train with 500 persons on board is expected over the Chicago, Milwaukee and Puget Sound Railway. A dense pall of smoke hangs all over Eastern Montana. In Missoula it was as dark as midnight. A five mile square, most of it in the mountains and sparsely settled. It is difficult to obtain information from any of the points and impossible to reach some of the isolated places at all.

There is a possibility that there has been serious loss of life for there are camping parties and lumbermen all through the mountains. Hanahan is reported to be deserted. The last word from there was that the fire was dangerously near and the telephone operator was preparing to flee. The area covered is roughly estimated at a hundred miles square, most of it in the mountains and sparsely settled. It is difficult to obtain information from any of the points and impossible to reach some of the isolated places at all.

Death of Mrs. S. E. Nobles. Mrs. Sarah E. Nobles, who was visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. R. A. Armstrong at Trinity Rectory, died at 3 o'clock this morning.
