

VERY SPIRITED DEBATE TAKES PLACE IN HOUSE

When Supplementary Estimates of $1,700,000 for Naval Purposes Were Introduced.

OPPOSITION WOULD BURY THE NAVY

Turning Back to England the Gift of Warships Intended for Use Here.

Ottawa, Ont., June 27.—An introduction by the Minister of Marine of supplementary estimates of $1,700,000 for naval expenditure during the coming year precipitated a spirited debate which lasted four hours in the House of Commons last night without a vote being reached.

Hon. Ernest Lapointe, J. J. Dennis and Ernest Lapointe opposed the appropriation, their objections coinciding with those of the leader of the Opposition, who moved that the entire new vote be rejected.

Hon. C. C. Balfanzoni said he hoped that Canada would adopt a policy more consistent with her dignity.

The debate continued vigorously until midnight, when Ernest Lapointe was about to speak in support of the Opposition amendment.

The House finally concurred in the Senate amendment to the Civil Service Act, abolishing a number of holidays.

During the afternoon the Premier tabled the correspondence relating to the resignation of Hon. J. B. Macdonald.

The House finally concurred in the Senate amendment to the Civil Service Act, abolishing a number of holidays.

During the afternoon the Premier tabled the correspondence relating to the resignation of Hon. J. B. Macdonald.

The House finally concurred in the Senate amendment to the Civil Service Act, abolishing a number of holidays.

During the afternoon the Premier tabled the correspondence relating to the resignation of Hon. J. B. Macdonald.

The House finally concurred in the Senate amendment to the Civil Service Act, abolishing a number of holidays.

During the afternoon the Premier tabled the correspondence relating to the resignation of Hon. J. B. Macdonald.

The House finally concurred in the Senate amendment to the Civil Service Act, abolishing a number of holidays.

ONE THOUSAND BRITISH TROOPS LAND AT MULDERIA

Constantinople, June 27.—One thousand British troops disembarked at Mulderia, on the Sea of Marmara Friday morning and occupied the town for four hours.

INCREASE POWER AT AROOSTOOK FALLS

Electric Energy at This Famous Plant Increased by Many New Additions to Plant.

Special to The Standard Aroostook, N. B., June 26.—The question of increasing electric power in New Brunswick is one of the most absorbing topics in the province, and the matter of harnessing the Falls at Grand Falls is receiving the special attention of the Provincial Government.

The work was commenced in July 1919, and is now virtually completed. During the summer of 1919 a crew of 35 men were employed who worked in day and night shifts.

The principal hindrance to carrying on operations was on account of the unprecedented weather conditions during last winter, there being 6 feet of snow and a temperature varying from 20 to 47 below zero.

The engineer in charge of the installation was Mr. R. Allingham of the Foundation Co. Ltd., Bank of Ottawa Building, Montreal.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

SUGAR TRAFFIC CONTINUES AT THE BORDER

Increased Vigilance on the Part of the Officials, However, Has Reduced the Volume.

CUSTOMS OFFICER RUN DOWN SAT.

When He Ordered Auto Truck Driver, Under Suspicion, to Hold up.

Special to The Standard St. Stephen, N. B., June 27.—The traffic in sugar continues, but in diminishing volume due to increased vigilance on the part of Government officials.

The necessary recommendation will be made to His Excellency, the Governor General, to give effect to your resignation.

On the next day Mr. Murdoch wrote to Sir Robert again, in which he refers to a conference with the Prime Minister on the previous evening.

Mr. Murdoch adds that he could only continue as a commissioner of the Board of Commerce with the understanding that the personnel of the Board of Commerce be completed by appointment at once.

There are, of course, conflicting reports concerning the affair, but it is quite likely that some part of the truth will be revealed when the affair reaches the courts.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

EXPECT GUERRILLA WARFARE FROM NATIONALISTS

Athens, June 27.—Hope was expressed by the Greek General Headquarters, today, that the campaign against the Turks would not exceed three weeks.

JUDGE ROBSON CONTROVERSY IS INTERESTING

Sir Robert Tables All Correspondence in Connection With Resignation of Chairman of Commerce Board.

Special to The Standard Ottawa, June 27.—Sir Robert Borden, in the House Saturday afternoon, tabled his correspondence with James Murdoch, leading to the latter's resignation as the last remaining member of the Board of Commerce.

On the next day Mr. Murdoch wrote to Sir Robert again, in which he refers to a conference with the Prime Minister on the previous evening.

Mr. Murdoch adds that he could only continue as a commissioner of the Board of Commerce with the understanding that the personnel of the Board of Commerce be completed by appointment at once.

There are, of course, conflicting reports concerning the affair, but it is quite likely that some part of the truth will be revealed when the affair reaches the courts.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

IRISH JOURNAL SCORES BRITISH METHODS THERE

Calls Director General, Hindenburg Macready—Greenwood is Named Ludendorff.

AMERICA OBSERVING STRICT NEUTRALITY

British Sea Power Aiding in Campaign — Belligerents Demand Armistice.

By HUGH CURRAN. Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.

Dublin, June 25.—Employing the language of war communique, the Freeman's Journal, Irish nationalist newspaper, has today scathing attack on British methods in Ireland.

"The campaign of General Hindenburg Macready for the reconquest of Ireland is being developed according to plan."

"Yesterday the front was advanced in the West Cork salient and the British three cordons round districts believed to be held in strength by the flying squadron of the 11th Hussars."

"In County Dublin, Loughlinstown Workhouse, which commands the main line of communications between Dublin and Bray, has been occupied by British troops, and patrols are being pushed out as far as the bridge-head at Little Bray."

"British sea-power is co-operating in the campaign, and a Press Association dispatch announces that a naval detachment with three 7-inch guns has arrived in Skibbereen."

"The command of the English Press for the evacuation, with compensation, of loyalists from the war zone has not been met; and the refugees are understood to be unwilling to re-emigrate to Belgium and set out on a forced march for Carsonia."

"General Ludendorff Greenwood has withdrawn from the Vice-regal Lodge camp to the Chief Secretary-Lodge camp, and is reported to be studying psychology and busy preparing a peace offensive for simultaneous operation with the mail list campaign."

"Lord French is in Ypres, and is decorating that battered rest camp with the M. C. In the meantime the Vice-regal Lodge camp is deserted, having been reduced to a mere listening-post in No Man's Land."

"Gallier-General Lord Birkenhead, though he is in the legal not the military line, has appointed himself, under the Great Seal O. C. Megaphones, and passionately harangued the House of Lords yesterday on the evacuation of troops, more troops, and still more troops."

"Churchill is reported to be unable to make up his mind whether to apply for the position of Eye-Witness on the Irish front or that of O. C. Cinemas."

"America observing a strict and vigilant neutrality, is manifestly impatiently demands immediate attention. Pro-Irishism and pro-common sense have broken out amongst the English dock workers, who yesterday in conference at Drake's Plymouth, passed resolutions supporting Ireland's claim for self-determination, demanding that the armed forces of the Crown be not imported into Ireland, and calling for the evacuation of the military."

"They also call for an immediate armistice with the organized revolutionary forces in this country."

Portland, Me., June 27.—The opening day of the Maine centennial celebration here was featured this afternoon with historical exercises in the First Parish Church.

The property of P. L. Davis, Well Known Architect of Moncton.

McADOO READY TO ACCEPT HONOR

Special to The Standard. Moncton, N. B., June 27.—The house and barn belonging to P. L. Davis, architect of this city, was destroyed by fire at Bridgedale, Albert county, Saturday morning.

GREAT NORTHERN RY. INVOLVED IN THE BOYCOTT

Dublin, June 27.—The Great Northern Railway, hitherto not affected, is now involved in the general boycott.

IRISH JOURNAL SCORES BRITISH METHODS THERE

Calls Director General, Hindenburg Macready—Greenwood is Named Ludendorff.

By HUGH CURRAN. Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.

Dublin, June 25.—Employing the language of war communique, the Freeman's Journal, Irish nationalist newspaper, has today scathing attack on British methods in Ireland.

"The campaign of General Hindenburg Macready for the reconquest of Ireland is being developed according to plan."

"Yesterday the front was advanced in the West Cork salient and the British three cordons round districts believed to be held in strength by the flying squadron of the 11th Hussars."

"In County Dublin, Loughlinstown Workhouse, which commands the main line of communications between Dublin and Bray, has been occupied by British troops, and patrols are being pushed out as far as the bridge-head at Little Bray."

"British sea-power is co-operating in the campaign, and a Press Association dispatch announces that a naval detachment with three 7-inch guns has arrived in Skibbereen."

"The command of the English Press for the evacuation, with compensation, of loyalists from the war zone has not been met; and the refugees are understood to be unwilling to re-emigrate to Belgium and set out on a forced march for Carsonia."

"General Ludendorff Greenwood has withdrawn from the Vice-regal Lodge camp to the Chief Secretary-Lodge camp, and is reported to be studying psychology and busy preparing a peace offensive for simultaneous operation with the mail list campaign."

"Lord French is in Ypres, and is decorating that battered rest camp with the M. C. In the meantime the Vice-regal Lodge camp is deserted, having been reduced to a mere listening-post in No Man's Land."

"Gallier-General Lord Birkenhead, though he is in the legal not the military line, has appointed himself, under the Great Seal O. C. Megaphones, and passionately harangued the House of Lords yesterday on the evacuation of troops, more troops, and still more troops."

"Churchill is reported to be unable to make up his mind whether to apply for the position of Eye-Witness on the Irish front or that of O. C. Cinemas."

"America observing a strict and vigilant neutrality, is manifestly impatiently demands immediate attention. Pro-Irishism and pro-common sense have broken out amongst the English dock workers, who yesterday in conference at Drake's Plymouth, passed resolutions supporting Ireland's claim for self-determination, demanding that the armed forces of the Crown be not imported into Ireland, and calling for the evacuation of the military."

"They also call for an immediate armistice with the organized revolutionary forces in this country."

Portland, Me., June 27.—The opening day of the Maine centennial celebration here was featured this afternoon with historical exercises in the First Parish Church.

The property of P. L. Davis, Well Known Architect of Moncton.

McADOO READY TO ACCEPT HONOR

Special to The Standard. Moncton, N. B., June 27.—The house and barn belonging to P. L. Davis, architect of this city, was destroyed by fire at Bridgedale, Albert county, Saturday morning.

CAPITALS OF EUROPE ARE VERY SEDATE

Present a Panorama of Much Cleaning up and Refurbishing, of Keen Optimism Versus Deep Pessimism.

CONSTANTINOPLE ONLY ONE NEAR LIKE PRE-WAR

Vienna is Saddest Sight of All—Paris Opening up a Little.

Copyright, 1920, by Cross-Atlantic News Service.

London, June 26.—A bird's-eye view of Europe's capitals presents a panorama of much cleaning up and refurbishing against much delapidation of sobriety born of grief, abandonment and revelry born of long nerve strain, of keen optimism versus deep pessimism.

London is probably hardest at work, and in soberest mind. Rows and rows of houses are being done up, repaired, and clad in festive coats of white or cream in honor of the first peace summer.

The British capital is alarmingly respectable these days; like a woman with a very, very gay and raffish past, who wants to settle down and be known by all "the best people."

London night life is tamed; the tiger has degenerated into the tabby, it is of the same "family," but eminently "safe."

Paris, the city of the boulevardier and the cocotte, whose cafes have been closing at 10 p. m., has now sanctioned a m. closing.

No dances have been given there after 10 o'clock. There have been no after-theatre suppers. There even has been great difficulty in getting permission to entertain a few flamboyantly named restaurant that ever put a tub of laurel outside its Soho door.

At 11 o'clock the streets have looked as at three in the morning, and in the whole of the city the few houses being redecorated after five years' neglect are those purchased lately by the many Americans who seemingly intend to settle in France.

Rome is cheered as though tired. Unrest, rage of exchange, limitations and prohibitions of all kinds are more severe than in war-time; the lack of coal, and therefore the necessity of economizing in electric light, have given to the city an old-world look.

The town looks in many respects as though it might have gone back to the time of Pope-King. The old streets are quiet and dark as they were then; the ruins and the arches are only lit by the moon; and demolition and reconstruction has been completely stopped for financial reasons.

A decree preventing the use of motor cars of over 30 horse-power over the week-end and in the evenings after 8 o'clock is impending. So patrons of the 24 theatres and 40 cinemas in Rome will have to walk or take the tram.

A decree preventing the sale of cigarettes has just been passed. Statistics showed that an average of 4,000 cigarettes daily were consumed in each of the big cafes and tea-shops of the town.

Athens, Sofia, and all of the other Balkan capitals are still suffering heavily for financial reasons, but Constantinople lives a sort of feverish life, full as it is of Entente tramps, of Russian refugees, or merchants from all parts of the world, hunting for extraordinary bargains for all sorts of risky adventures.

The gaiety of the town has something of the devil-may-care way with which a man who knows his heels are gammed squanders his whole fortune. Never was the phrase "living on the top of a volcano" truer than at Constantinople.

The misery of Bucharest and Warsaw, too, is far indeed from that of both cities in pre-war days. But Vienna is still the saddest sight. For those who know the gaiety and color of spring and summer that used to be Vienna's, the city's plight cannot be pictured.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, N. B., June 27.—Two prominent citizens, Wm. Carson, manager of the St. Croix Soap Factory, and Ira Brown, proprietor of a garage on King Street, are patients in Chipman Memorial hospital for observation with what is feared to be typhoid fever.

It is some years since there has been a case of typhoid having its origin in St. Stephen, and it is supposed that if these cases prove to be typhoid, they have had their origin in the use of ice for drinking purposes.

ONE KILLED AND MANY INJURED

When Third Story Balcony Collapsed at Mount Royal Ave., Montreal.

Montreal, June 27.—An aged woman was killed, a baby fatally injured, another woman may die, and two others were slightly injured when the floor of a third story balcony collapsed on Saturday night at 845 Mount Royal Avenue East, this city.

Four of its five occupants were flung to the street below; the fifth, a girl with a child in her arms, was saved when she grasped a rung of the railing which remained in place on a shelf on until rescued.

The dead are: Mrs. Catherine Taylor, 60, fractured skull, died instantly; Lionel Black, aged 11 months, her grandchild fractured skull from which he died same night at Notre Dame Hospital.

The badly injured woman is Frances Taylor, aged 19, who suffered a fractured skull, two broken fore arms and a fractured knee. She is in Notre Dame Hospital, where her condition is regarded as critical.

The accident occurred on the occasion of the celebration of Mrs. Taylor's sixtieth birthday.

SINN FEINERS KIDNAP THREE ARMY OFFICERS

Armed and Masked Men Enter a Hut Where They Were Sleeping and Seized Them.

Belfast, June 27.—A general and two colonels, living in a fishing hut three miles from Fermoy, County Cork, were taken prisoner Saturday at midnight and removed from the hut in a motor car belonging to the general.

One of the colonels made his escape but was fired upon and wounded in the head and shoulders. The other colonel was liberated in order that he might attend to the wounded man.

The general was taken to an unknown destination. The victims in this affair were Brig-General Cuccas and Colonels Danford and Tyrell, from the Clontarf barracks. They had just returned for the night after a day's fishing, when a band of armed and masked men appeared and seized them in the name of the "Irish republic."

Colonel Danford was seriously wounded after he jumped from a car and endeavored to escape.

RECOVERING FROM PISTOL WOUNDS

Victims of Honeydale Shooting Affray Are in Chipman Hospital—No Move Made by Authorities.

Special to The Standard. St. Stephen, June 27.—The two victims of the recent shooting affray out at Honeydale, Ivan Little and his wife, are patients at Chipman Memorial Hospital. The woman was not seriously injured and the husband, who did the shooting, and was more seriously wounded, is believed to be out of danger.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

GOVT TAKES OVER CARAQUET RAILWAY

Great Demonstration at Carquet When Glad Tidings Became Known.

Special to The Standard. Bathurst, N. B., June 26.—Gloucester is rejoicing over the taking over of the Carquet and Gulf Shore Railway by the Government. General Superintendent L. S. Brown, Freight Agent W. F. Tompkins and Capt. R. H. Martyn, Passenger Agent P. W. Robertson with auditors went over the railway, Thursday, taking possession for the Canadian National Railways.

They returned to Bathurst Friday night. The officials were warmly greeted all along the line, particularly at Carquet where a number of leading citizens with thirty automobiles took the party over Carquet returning to the Chateau Albert where a large meeting was held, speeches of welcome were made and the needs of the public in the way of railway transportation were placed before the officials by Messrs. S. V. B. Young, D. H. Landry, L. Arthur Cyr, John Mountant, B. C. Mullins and others.

Superintendent Brown replied thanking the people for the enthusiastic welcome given them, assuring them that every effort would be made to improve the road, as soon as possible, and give the business interest and people generally relief from the intolerable conditions he found existing. The other members of the party assured

The affair happened in what is known as the Scott Settlement, which is composed largely of two families.

Among the people generally there is a disposition to emulate the example of the soldiers at the burial of Sir John Moore.

STEEL COMPANY FORCED TO CLOSE

Two Thousand Thrown Out of Work—Shortage of Coal and Oil Given as Cause.

Hamilton, Ont., June 27.—The Steel Company of Canada will close the entire Hamilton plant on Monday, Robert Hobson, the president, announced Saturday. The shortage of coal and oil for fuel is the explanation. Two thousand people will be affected.

GOV. GENERAL TO VISIT BOSTON

Sydney, N. S., June 27.—His Excellency the Duke of Devonshire has notified Mayor Fitzgerald that he will pay the city a visit on July 19. The Duke, who is yachting in eastern waters, will arrive at Louisburg and motor to Sydney via Gloucester Bay. The Duke will spend a two-day cruise in the Bras D'Or Lakes, then proceed to Halifax on the 23rd.