evaluating Prices for Potatoes
in New Brunswick Discouraging to Farmers

LITTLE DEMAND
The Very Best Product Gets No Higher
Offer Than 90 to 70 Cents a Barrel
—Impartial and Authentic Quotations from Different Parts of the Province.

From an interview with Frank Clements,
of Clements Company, wholesale producers of St. John, printed by the Standard on September 24:
"Asked about the prices of potatoes) Mr. Clements said that whereas $1.50 was being paid last year the price
this season was only sixty cents a barrel. The decline in price was, he said, due to the fact that the farmers in Ontario, Quebec and the western provinces had large crops of potatoes this year. He added that the shippers here were looking to the Cuban market to take a large quantity of New Brunswick potatoes this year, but at the present time it would only be worth the effort to make any forests about the probable quantity which could be disposed of in the Cuban market."

In this county there is only one barrel for potatoes here—$1.15 a barrel.

Dartmouth County.
Woodstock, Oct. 7.—Dealers are today offering 60 cents a barrel for the best of potatoes, and the farmers are straggled over the market conditions.
The price is for the very best quality, too, is for the very best quality, including the Dalway and Mountain, and is not for under-rough or partially decayed product. Two dealers today offered farmers
a large barrel delivered in the city for $1.15. Taking into consideration the difference in the size of the barrel and weight factors, the farmers would be off by taking 60c. or 70c. a barrel.

Kent County.
Shilbico, Oct. 7.—The quantity of potatoes in this county offered for sale is small and a substantial tone. The best price offered to the farmers is 60 cents a barrel. It is yet too early to say and the farmers are not encouraged by the outlook.

Charlotte County.
Andrews, Oct. 7.—At Rolling Dam
in Andrews, N. B., a few miles from St. Andrews, the best offer farmers get for potatoes is 70 cents a barrel.

A good weather last week permitted to make a good showing in the harvest and many were placed in the storehouse.
The yield is falling off somewhat and the crop was expected to be 90 per cent. It will not be over 75, but the quality of the best and the rot which showed in sections is not developing to any extent.

Produce News has the following:
The potato market showed a marked improvement in the price of the crop, this which promises to continue. An increase is probable when the sharp increase assumption is considered. Maine has been selling freely and quite a number of cars have been moved at 85c. Haverhill, 23rd street yards, or 87c. Hasverhill. Maine farmers are hauling and shippers are paying $1.15 a barrel.
Seedmen are taking all the seed offered and the best selections of Maine. Already there is a shortage by seedmen, who are at the present price is lower than what will be any time this fall. Seed buyers are buying the market closely and are a good deal for the trade, seldom going in the bottom has been reached. Results of the week from a number of Maine
show that the widely spread rumor as to rot were exaggerated. In some places where the water had stood for some, rot did appear, but it was not as reported. Since the rains have been so heavy, the soil is cool, and the public has practically disappeared.
A higher ground there has been no rot receivers say that so far they have not a single complaint due to this rot.

land, N. B., Sept. 25.—Good harvesting this week is enabling the farmer to get in their grain and to dig their tubers. They are, however, thoroughly satisfied with the condition of the potato market. A number of the county went to Montreal last week in the hope that a market could be opened there. They returned utterly discouraged. A week ago they were offering only 50 to 60 cents a barrel for the tubers, with no great demand at that figure. The boundary line, in Aroostook,
the farmers are getting $1 a bar-

GIANTS AND RED SOX READY FOR FRAY

Both Teams Are in Fine Fettle

American League Champs Slight Favorites in Betting

Managers Silent About Who Will Do the Twirling Today

—Governor Foss One of the "Rooters" to See the Hub Team Off—Mayor Gaynor and Fitzgerald to Occupy Same Box to "Root" for Their Respective Sides.

Canadian Press
New York, Oct. 7.—Like two armies on the eve of a battle the New York Giants and the Boston Red Sox stood on their respective bases of the Polo grounds, ready for the fray. The two teams are in fine fettle and the betting is in their favor. It will be the ninth meeting of the pennant-winning teams of the National and American baseball leagues. The Boston Red Sox are the favorites, and the winner will break a tie that exists between the two leagues.
Late reports from the rival camps show that the Giants are in the best of form. They are expected to win the series. The Boston Red Sox are also in good form, but are considered slight favorites in betting.
The Giants had their final workout at the Polo grounds this afternoon, they were seen by the thousands of fans who gathered to see the team. The Boston Red Sox also had a workout, and were seen by the thousands of fans who gathered to see the team.
The National champions as they came to bat looked fit for the fray tomorrow. They showed no sign of being tired, and with the exception of "Chief Meyers" who limped slightly as he ran out a hit, there were no cases of "Charley Horse" in evidence. The try-out pitchers also appeared to be in condition as they walked across the field to the clubhouse during the game.

ROB MAIL POUCH OF $200,000

Package of $10,000 Bills Stolen on Way from Cuba to New York

Canadian Press
New York, Oct. 6.—Post office inspectors of two countries, secret service men and the W. J. Burns detective agency are investigating today the mysterious disappearance of a registered mail package containing $200,000 consigned from Havana to the National Park Bank of this city.
The loss was discovered last Wednesday at New York when the registered mail pouch from Havana was opened in the New York post office. When and where the package disappeared, whether in Havana, aboard the ship, or in New York, is not known.
The post office authorities are working on the case, and the private detective agency has been set to work by the shipper, whose name is not revealed. The National Park Bank has no more than a normal interest in the case, as by no possibility can the loss fall upon it.
The money was shipped and when the bag was opened here in New York—that is your story," said Maurice H. Eyer, cashier of the bank, who lives at Montclair, N. J.
"Is your bank investigating?" he was asked.
"No. Why? The shipper and the government are doing that."

Governor Foss Sees Red Sox Off

Canadian Press
Boston, Oct. 6.—Within a few hours of the departure today of the Red Sox for New York, where they will cross bats tomorrow with the Giants in the first contest of the world's series, hundreds of Boston and New England baseball enthusiasts followed in their wake.
Starting in the late afternoon with the "Royal Rooters," who went 300 strong in a special train, accompanied by a band, the migrating continued throughout the night. Even the accommodations of the morning trains were largely exhausted by the reservation of baseball enthusiasts for the game, but other nets, along with only a hope of getting into the Polo grounds somehow to "root" for the Red Sox. The train made the trip practically in sections. They had a special car on the Knickerbocker Limited, in which aside from themselves were only the wives of Manager Evers, Duffy Lewis and Charlie Hall, and little Jerry McCarthy, the boy mascot. Governor Foss was on the train and wished the boys luck.
The demonstration planned for the Red Sox's departure was also held at the Polo grounds assembled at the South station, while the players boarded the train at Back Bay. Mayor Fitzgerald is imbued strongly with a feeling of Red Sox success. This is indicated in telegrams exchanged be-Sunderland, N. B., Oct. 7.—About 5 o'clock this afternoon an alarm of fire was rung in for a blaze at the warehouse of the Mercantile Co. on Peter street, next to Howard's blacksmith shop.

The fire department was on the scene promptly, and by hard and persistent work the flames were confined to the upper part of the building and roof of the blacksmith shop. Though at times it seemed as if it would get beyond their control, so heavy was the wind that grave fears were felt that the fire would cross Main street and the goods were promptly stationed on the north side of the street, where the burning brands caused the igniting of buildings in two or three instances, which were promptly put out.
The prompt and effective work of the Sussex fire boys called forth the greatest praise, and by 6 o'clock the fire was under control.
The extreme high wind and the dry character of the wooden buildings, the warehouse and roof of Howard's blacksmith shop made it a most spectacular blaze and a general feeling of relief was experienced when it was seen that the hard working fire boys had the flames under control. How the fire started is not known.
So satisfied were the mercantile people with the work of the Sussex firemen that S. H. White, president of the concern, handed Dr. Daly, chief of the fire department, a check for $500 as a recognition of the good work done by the firemen.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF FREEMASONS

Session Open in Washington With Election of Officers—Sir John Gibson Vice-president.

Special to The Telegraph.
Amherst, N. S., Oct. 7.—Coroner Arvid held an inquest this evening in connection with the death of Vaughn Tower, who died in today's Telegraph. After talking to the evidence of the boys who were present at the time of the shooting, the jury, by H. E. Hewson as interpreter, brought in the following verdict:
"That the boy, Vaughn Tower, came to his death by means of a shot accidentally fired from a gun in the hands of Floyd Fields and Wellington Farrow while in the woods shooting on Sunday last. This jury deploras the fact that young boys are permitted to go shooting regardless of age and experience and would recommend that stringent measures be taken in the town to prevent the sale of firearms to minors."
Young Fields is only about fifteen years of age and remained in the woods from the time of the accident, about noon yesterday, until 2:30 this afternoon, when he was driven home by hunger.

SPANISH PRINCE STILL IN NEW YORK IMMIGRATION PEN

Authorities Undecided About His Deportation—Waiting to Hear of His French Record.

Special to The Telegraph.
New York, Oct. 7.—Prince Pignatelli d'Aragon, son of the Spanish pretender, faced the prospect today of waiting 24 hours longer to learn if he is to be admitted to the United States or deported as an undesirable citizen. Pending the arrival of news from France concerning his alleged expulsion from Paris and attempt to kill himself, the prince remained in the custody of his chamberlain at Ellis Island. Immigration Commissioner Williams was hourly expecting a cablegram from France which would enable him, he said, to convene the special board of inquiry to pass on the prince's case. The prince seemed to be somewhat resigned to the situation.
"I am reasonably comfortable here," he said. "As soon as my case is clearly understood I will be released. I have many friends in Washington who are working for my release. It is a grave mistake that I am being made."

PLEADS GUILTY TO DYNAMITING

BECKER MURDER TRIAL BEGINS

Work of Selecting a Jury Promises to Be Long Drawn Out

ONLY ONE SECURED

Fourteen Talemans Examined Yesterday, and Most of Them Had Their Minds Made Up in Advance—Accused Lieutenant Takes a Hand in Choosing His Trials.

Canadian Press
New York, Oct. 7.—Chas. Becker, the police lieutenant who was in command of the "Strongarm squad" of police gambling raiders, was placed on trial today for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, who was alleged to have betrayed "the eye."
Out of fourteen examined from the special panel of 250 talemans called for jury duty only one juror had been chosen when the day's session closed tonight. He was Harold B. Skinner, an electrical engineer, son of Chas. B. Skinner, an electrical engineer of New York.
Of the other thirteen talemans called to the witness stand in adjourning the case, three were present, and four by the defense, Becker himself instructing his counsel, John F. McIntyre, to make the challenges in each case. The others were disqualified by the court for bias or not sustaining challenges for cause by counsel.
The examination progressed so slowly that Justice Quinn in adjourning the case threatened to hold night sessions if the jury was not picked by 11 o'clock in the afternoon tomorrow.
"One of the presumptive challenges of the prosecution was exercised on the first talemans called after he had said that he was a former member of the police force. It is nearly every instance the talemans acknowledged that he had formed an opinion on the case from reading the newspapers, and those who were disqualified declared that the opinion would influence their verdict."
The incident in reference to Panama, Mr. Miller said, occurred just before the arrest of the Los Angeles dynamite men, they were becoming desperate in their efforts to secure explosives without betraying their associates.
"John J. called James B. McNamara, his brother, and McNamara to the headquarters of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, who were in charge of the dynamite men. McNamara said, 'We can't get any more dynamite here without stealing it. Now you go to Panama and see what you can do down there. The McNamara-Marshall Construction Company has a lot of dynamite stored down there. You could easily get hold of it and blow up the locks. Make 'em all up and take notice and take their minds off Los Angeles affair.' McNamara refused to go at that time. Soon after they all were arrested."
The contractor mentioned with confidence in the article was one of those who had declared for the "open shop" in the United States.
More Charges.
Among other events implicating the present defendants, as charged by Mr. Miller before the jury, were the following:
"Albert Brown, chief business agent of a local union at Kansas City (Mo.); James B. McNamara and a citizen, whose name is not given, were the dynamite men."

HON. WALTER LONG TALKS ON HOME RULE

Says Prosperity of Ireland Is an Argument Against It—Says Canada's Loyalty Is More Important Than Money Contribution.

Special to The Telegraph.
Montreal, Oct. 7.—Hon. Walter Long, ex-secretary for Ireland, addressed the Canadian Club here this afternoon on home rule for Ireland from an imperial point of view.
Mr. Long said the provincial legislatures of Canada did not offer a suitable prototype for the legislative division of the United Kingdom. He thought the home rule bill would prove a delusion to the Irish people. The progress made in Ireland during the past twenty years was an argument against it.
On the question of a naval contribution by Canada, Mr. Long said that it was not so much a question of how much was given, as the intention to assist in the defence of the empire which counted.

EDWARD CLARK GIVES UP THE STRUGGLE

Was McNamara's Chief Agent in Blowing Up "Jobs"

Canadian Press
Indianapolis, Oct. 7.—Edward Clark, of Cincinnati, today pleaded guilty to the charges in the dynamite conspiracy.
The prisoner was then separated from the other forty-five defendants and taken to jail to await the imposing of his sentence.
Clark pleaded guilty to all the charges—five counts of conspiracy, and fifty counts of being a principal in the actual illegal interstate shipment of dynamite and nitroglycerine.
Clark was business agent and president of Local Union 44 of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers from January, 1908, to July, 1911. His activities in promoting explosives, Mr. Miller asserted, were carried on through letters written by Frank M. Ryan, president of the union, and the McNamaras.
An ivory handled umbrella bearing the initials "E. C." found in the wreckage of a dynamited bridge at Dayton, Ohio, Mr. Miller said, led to the disclosure that Clark actually had caused the explosion, having used the umbrella to protect the dynamite from the rain and then leaving it behind.

PLANNED PANAMA EXPLOSION

Pages from the careers of the McNamaras and Orie E. McManis as leaders of "the flying squadron of dynamite" with conversations in which they were said to have plotted to send McManis to Panama to blow up the locks of the Panama canal, were read by District Attorney Charles W. Miller.

The incident in reference to Panama, Mr. Miller said, occurred just before the arrest of the Los Angeles dynamite men, they were becoming desperate in their efforts to secure explosives without betraying their associates.
"John J. called James B. McNamara, his brother, and McNamara to the headquarters of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, who were in charge of the dynamite men. LADIES' GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP OPENS IN TORONTO

Miss Thomson, of St. John, Fifteenth in Qualifying Round—Miss Campbell Taken Ill and is Out of the Tournament.

Toronto, Oct. 7.—Over one hundred ladies from all parts of Ontario and many distant points throughout Canada are this week competing in the Royal Canadian Golf Association's twelfth annual tournament, which opened today on the links of Rosedale Golf Club.
Ninety-six ladies competed in the annual handicap team match and qualifying round for the ladies' championship and consolation competitions this afternoon. Miss F. L. Thomson, of Toronto, turned in the best score of the qualifying round, her total, with a stroke handicap, being 88.
Miss Campbell, of Hamilton, who turned in the best gross score, was taken seriously ill tonight and will be compelled to retire from the tournament.
Miss M. Thomson, St. John (N. B.), with a gross score of 100, stood eighth in the net on actual play, but heavy handicaps granted some of the weaker players made the net score only fifteenth in the net score list.
