MANUFACTURERS

MISPECK MILLS, - - St. John, N. B.

ALL WOOL GOODS, viz: HEAVY and LIGHT GREY CLOTH; HEAVY GREY and SCARLET FLANNEL; MISPECK TWEED. Heavy Grey Blankets.

FIRST CLASS COTTON WARPS. ble Goods are all of SUPERIOR QUALITY, manufactured from the best materials, and warranted to give satisfaction.

O'DERS FROM THE TWADE RESPECSFULLY SOLICITED.

Waynesser Read's Building. Water Street. sep 11-lydew J. L. WOODWORTH, Agent.

LARRIGANS, &c.

On Hand-1000 Pairs No. 1 Larrigans, 250 No. 2 do 150 doz. Prime Country Socks, 100 Fair do do 40 Mitts, 100 Lined and Srapped Horse Blankets, 200 Pair Homespun Pants 100 Homespun Jumpers, 120 dozen Homespun Shirts.

REEFERS, OVER COATS, HOOD COATS, HATS, CAPS, PANTS & VESTS, With a large variety of Goods suitable for the Woods, AT THE LOWEST LIVING PRICES

EVERITT & BUTLER. Wholesale Warercoms, 55 and 57 King Street.

The Paily Tribune

J. L. STEWART, EDITOR.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1879.

by the joint committee of the Commo

Council, Portland Town Council and ssions would undoubtedly remedy ome of the evils now complained of.

that three be appointed by the Common Council, one of whom shall be Chairman of the Board; two by the Portland Council, and three by the utlying parishes. The Common Council's appointments to offices of emolu-ment have not heretofore been so wise that any more responsibilities of the kind should be thrust upon it, and the they will so consent is absurd. It was parishes to be satisfied with representation so obtained. The claims of the Sessions to act for the parishes is aburd, and no bill will be assented to ed a real, instead of a farcinored, and we predict that they will not ent reform must manifest confidence in the agricultural population before hey can expect confidence to be felt in their Assessment Board. The Board proposed would be, to all intents and ourposes, of urban appointment, and it s idle to expect the rural population to accept it. The parishes, not the Sessions sive gentlemen who propose to take all public business out of the hands of the people must make up their minds to ac-cord them the privilege of having a voice in the management of their own illion dollars to the Directors of the age. He seems to have robbed the cor-of about nine millions having been dis-poration in every possible way while anaging its affairs, the direct stealing overed, and has preferred disgorging

Gould would have stood trial. The sur-render was totally anexpected by the counsel for the corporation, and the uarrel of Gould with his former part ners, gave the company a hold on Gould that he felt to be fatal, and he surrendered the spoil. His indirect Erie stealings, and the money he has made in speculations, enable him to hand over to the company nine million dollars them unless they are allow-ssions—one for each of the

A Board of Assessors for the City and

ner provided for the appo

SEWING MACHINE

Prize List for 1872.

VICTORIOUS EVERYWHERE

Osborn First Prizes

Family Sewing-First Prise

Guelph, Crosshill, HOOKS & PAND

committee engaged in preparing the pears: will de every variety of Sewing, and the fact that it has carried off the highest assurate at the Propaincial, Central, Western and other leading Exhibitions, which no other made ther leading Exhibitions, which no other Machine in Canada has yet done, attests its superiority over all competitors. Give "THE OSBURN" a trial before purchasing any other; you are certain to be pleased with its work.

Beware of cheap, flashy machines, claim ing to have received first prizes. At no leading show this season have they been awarded any. Competentjudges have declared them naworthy both as regards principal of construction. material employed, and work, performed.

By Machines given against easy terms of payment, AGENTS and others in want of employment during the winter will do well to give us a call

J. D. LAWLOR, Agent, BARNES & CO.,

Printers, Booksellers, Stationers, the Board. The people are entirely ig-Larger and Best Selected Sto BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURERS.

BARNES & CO., 58 Prince Wm. street MOORE'S

Sign Painting ESTABLISHMENT. 47 Germain Street, dec 5 WILLIAM DUNLOP, WHOLKSALE AND RETAIL DEALER IN

Flour, Groceries & Liquors,

No. 40 CHARLOTTE STREET, St. John, N. B. 159 Union Street. GEORGE MURDOCH

Harness Maker, Fine Driving and Working Hart. Ourry Combs, Brushes, &c., abnass Strict attention paid to Jobbuse and to standing trial before the purified courts of New York. If Barnard and

DR. J. E. GRIFFITH, DENTIST. OFFCE-61 UNION STREET, NEAR GERMAIN, [Formerly occupied by Dr. Pidler], ST. JOHN, N. B. Artificial Teeth inserted in the best manner.

Special attention given to filting and pre serving the natural Teeth.

dec 19 ly

ROBERT J. LEONARD. Ship Broker & Commission Merchant.

CARD.

OFFICE:

Merrist's Building, Water Street, SAINT JOHN. N. B. 19 d 3m without endangering his position as one of New York's richest men. Of course he made speculative use of his intention to fill the coffers of the company, buying espensive. They exhibit unset diamonds, millions of dollars worth of stock to be and are prepared to set them to order. delivered after the rise that follows the announcement of his action. CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

Our retail dry goods list concludes with whose establishment on Germain street is ets.turquoises, aqua marine, etc. are of very a veritable bureau of fashion. This firm is stylish pattern, and come at less than $20. so well known among the ladies that it is Some of the most beautiful specimens of scarcely necessary to call more than a silver ware were made in the establishbrief attention to its existence. Here are ment. These are engraved in the highest kept all kinds of ladies' trimming and dress style of the art and will be marked with goods, children's apparel, laces, ribbons monograms, etc., to order. Articles manu and such other popular articles suitable for factured by them self-much more readily Ch istmas presents such as fine gold jewel- than the productions of foreign artists ry and fancy goods of every description Among the mass of desirable goods on ex-as will repay inspection.

Among the mass of desirable goods on ex-hibition are French clocks worth from $15 A well known house among the clothicrs to $90, and gold and ivory trinkets in great is that of JAMESS MAY, on Prince William street. All kinds of cloths and clothes may here be procured by Uhristmas, the drug stores are found among the fastidious, the stock on hand having been carefully selected to suit the present tastes. Gents furnishing goods of all styles may also be seen and purchased by those and in place of the lean and careworn desiring such equipment. Among the hatters two good houses de variety and abundance.

Though drugs and medicines are not prietors and elerks. A tour of King street harmaceutical chemist and inventor

GEO. STEWART, JR.,

would be incomplete without a visit to the erve notice. The first is that of A. L. STARRATT, Market Square. Caps and turs, which are among many a favorite holiday gift, are here kept in full supply. The furs consist of goods for the use of both ladies and genlemen, such as seal and astracan jackets, Stewart like Mr. Montgomery owes much muffs, boas and trimmings. The hats and of his fame to his literary tastes, as shown other day in the common amuse aps range from the most expensive for in the extensively read Nursery Rhymes, and silk to the cheapest felt and cloth. D. MAGEE & CO .

of hats and caps suitable for the season, the his tastes as a naturalist have not of late deal of fun there must be in cocking and

A little light is of course essential to the please the purchaser. enjoyment of Christmas Eve and the remaining long evenings of the winter, and occupy the old and favorite stand at Fos where the gas is not present, or casts a tor's corner, sacred to the labors of the melancholy and uncertain light, the house healing art. This store is replete with J. R. CAMERON & CO., William street. This firm has been long established and has an excellent asnt of everything necessary to enlighten the public of the lower portion of ommodation from MCLAUGHLIN & SANCTON,

MCLAUGHLIN & SANCTON. a lady desiring to present a gentleman corner of Charlotte and Union with a handsome walking stick no better streets. This, though quite a young firm, can be found. has met with excellent success, due both to the desire to accommodate and the large variety of latest patterns of stock always so long that his name has become permather monotony of law-making-kept on hand.

By the law of England of kept on hand.

parishes will never consent to the appointment of their representatives by the Sessions. The expectation that To all persons comfort at home is looked upon as a great object to be attained, old and young. Much taste is always their opposition that defeated the Assessment Bill so ably and vigorously Germain street, have great facilities to is well displayed. Here as in the other accomplish this object through the medium drug stores the fancy articles claim attended their large stock of all kinds of furnition and a plentiful stock is offered from pressed in the Assembly by Mr. W. H. A. Keans, and they should have been ation by the joint are. The firm have shown commendable which to select. committee engaged in preparing the nterprise in adding to our resources by the establishment of their busy factory, and keeps on Charlotte street and is preparing now can at very short notice put anything to make a handsome display for to-morrow in the market that may be required. The night, His stock is of the best description stock in their warehouse comprises house-had his cigars especially have acquired not box and broke it. The cree of the court provided only for themselves. Now, the descriptions; and other articles in the shape of goods is not materially different from the other stores in the business and in his spicuous feature. Here also is the well lighted store can be seen at any time were translated by the interpreter into the sions is run by a set of excellent men whose dictum is generally law to the assembled Justices, be they many or few, and they would doubtless appoint proper persons to represent the interests of St. Martins, Simonds and is worthy the attention of those living out lar among all who have occasion to me ancaster; but it is idle to expect those

The hardware stores are full of attractions. Among these makes a highly attractive appearance, articles being not only the regular goods purchasers. St. John has a fine display in the trade but a very expensive as this line at present, and one of the inter sortment of gold and silver ware. The voice in the appointment of very valuable stock is temptingly diplayed through the fine plate glass windows and the store in the interior makes a particuconsent to the little arrangement. It is no use to think of forcing an obnoxious bill larly brilliant appearance. The store of upon them. The promoters of assess-

T. M'AVITY & SONS Water street is well stocked with articles of a valuable and substantial nature. Carpenters tools and cutlery from the best makers are kept in great variety and much ments for their voyages. Axes and fittings for the lumber woods are always kept on band.

on their behalf, must be allowed to elect their representatives; and the conserva-Boots may be found at the store of J. H. STARR & CO. King street, where at the present time a considerable reduction is being made in order to clear for new stock. Gents, ladies and misses should have no difficulty in being suited at unusually low prices soon must follow the parting of family and show a good assortment of books for child-fide to him. He had accepted that position Christmas is the time of re-union, but friends. Very appropriate therefore is the ren and adults, the prices being very in the belief that he should have nothing gift of a life like photograph, such as our moderate. Articles for the library, office Erie Railway is one of the events of the > may be mentioned some fine specimens of the art. Mr. Mars been extremely elegant and in their beauty been done. To his astonishment he found tors does a large business not only in copy and durability should gain the establish whose studio walls are decorated with ing the human face divine, but in disposing ment a sterling name. his brethren had remained on the bench of frames of all patterns and sizes. public. It was supposed that Gould had been permitted to retire with his speils, and that nothing could be got from him. The perseverance of the Nursery Rhymes--No. 20. A CHEISTMAS ROMAUNT! Three matched stones valued at something less than $400 would make a desirable set of stude, and any lady wishing to confer the wassail bowl, well filled, bring out to night.

a mark of her affection on a gentleman The logous days upon the earth are near, The blazing Yule east on the ambers bright, and look no further. A matched pair Where to Look, and what to Buy - A of brilliants worth $400, when set in ear If times are tight, and needy bankrupts stalk, and brokers groan, and shavers mourn their loss. $250 brooch has a dozen or more small Let Bank Directors pause, and in their walk dismonds clustering around a brilliant of which falls from fitting notes, meandering much beauty. Some sets studded with garnmuch beauty. Some sets studded with garn-

Sad moans the wind, but sadder 'tis to raise. The wind with which to met an unpaid bill. Or from Stewart. Chemist, buy a dose that pays? A draught to take, relief for every ill: Asthma, and inflummation of the lung. The heetic flush and cough, consumption dread? The Pulmonary Baleam ranks among Its list of iving cures, while with the dead Repose the gladsome strains from grateful lips unung. Hang up dull care, upon the Alder bush, And "sailor crimps" and "rolling hibition are French clocks worth from $15 wide spread the boughs of spruc sweet. The genial carollers wait below And sing their lays for festive seaso And chant a hymn for these who particularly cheerful style of goods for

THE PULMONARY BALCAM is the heat to come for the form of the form the most attractive places, for instead of a ghastly array of poisons may be found lancy goods to suit every imaginable taste wrapper. For sale by GEO. STEWART JE. apothecary of tradition the public meet as a rule with good looking and obliging pro

NOTES AND NEWS.

The Bank of Montreal, with its capital of twelve millions, is the largest Bank on the imperial saponaceous dentifrice. Mr.

A man in Baltimore was indulging the handling and snapping a pistol which he supposed was not loaded, with the usual and has shown much talent in reducing the nteresting result. He succeeded in shootabstruse study of pharmacology to poetry n King street have also a good assortment. He store is always attractive, for although ing a little girl four years old. What a stock on hand being large and varied. Proprietors of teams will find a chance for good investments in buffato robes, which, lined and ready for use, are being sold at and toilet articles ruitable for Christmas. An inspection of his stock cannot fail to its drawbacks. The perverse pistols have a strange propensity for going off and hurting somebody whether they are loaded or

The deliberations of the South Carolina legislature were enlivened a few days ago holder must run to the lamp and oil stores articles useful and ornamental. The dir by a personal encounter between two of its and varied, and the public may rely not erend gentleman ventured to assert that he meant what he said, whereupon Mr. make their selections, but the excellence of quality of all offered, the firm importing Hamilton assaulted him in spite of his only from the most reliable dealers. Among cloth, and drew blood from his reverend the business part of the city. The ishabi other things the toilet articles are made a mose. An explanation followed in which tants of the upper portion have similar ac- feature, and these are being sold at a great Mr. Thomas used the terms "satisfaction" "gentlemen," "lead," "ten paces," etc. reduction from the original prices, and for This brought Hamilton to a sense of responsibility and he apologized, and the proceedings of the Legislature went on all the more briskly for the little episode. Nohas occupied his present place of busines thing like a bit of excitement to relieve

> By the law of England every witne "Chaloner's Corner" is familiar alike to nust be sworn according to some religious ceremony or other; there is, however, no shown in the arrangement of the store and the large stock of English and other goods to is well displayed. Here as in the other bed form of oath; it is to be that which the witness himself declares to binding upon his conscience and he is always allowed to adopt the ceremonies of is own religion. The following is given in a case reported in an English law report as the form of swearing a Chinese; On entering the box the witness immediately knelt down, and a Chinese saucer having been placed in his band, he struck

Blanchard churn, said to have peculiar ad- to advantage. Mr. McArthur is among Chinese language, "You shall tell the rantages, and which, like the other goods. our long established druggists and is poputruth, the whole truth; the saucer is cracksoul will be cracked like the saucer.' No department of business possesses

R. D. MCARTHUR

this season a greater attraction than the book a le, and during the helidays the -tores are crowded with inspectors and esting stores is that of

This firm, so widely known, requires no only shows him so, Mr. Chapin, in speak-praise, and it is perhaps only sufficient to ing of some of the evils of the ninetzenth say that this year they exceed the past by far in the fine display of stock in their line. The books are of all descriptions, from the most elaborate editions of standard authors to the most simple story for the nursery.

To a purple ser, the chief trouble is what The books are of all descriptions, from the To a purchaser, the chief trouble is what to select out of so large a variety. It fields of scientific research were alluded to, business is done by the firm in fitting out should be mentioned that the most elegant and true chivalry was declared to be met vessels with scientific and practical instru-bindings are those done in the establish- with in every day life, and that the true ment, and these are of a magnificent des- knight is he who faithfully performs his cription, as for instance in the church daily duties. services and books for the drawing room. Naturally these are costly, but are well worth the money. The assortment of statuary, by Rogers, is worthy of inspection, as are indeed all the many articles whose number and variety preclude des cription. A large business is being done.

BARNES & CO. gift of a life like photograph, such as our St. John artists are capable of producing Among those prominent in the business stationery is of every requisite quality. The firm are largely engaged in book bind-breach of international law had been command by many he mentioned. ing and do an active business. Some of mitted, and whether Great Britain was the specimens turned out this season have liable to America for anything that had was aspersed in the bitterest terms in the documents furnished to the tribunal, and has a very complete stock of books for the that the honor of statesmen to whom he is another of our artists whose work meets parlor and library. All the standard had learned to look up, was assailed in a with the approbation of the public and it authors, some sets being singularly nand- manner which he could not but regard as nust be admitted that the specimens shown some, are kept on hand, and in general unfounded and unjust. Having considered display first-class workmanship Mr. Hinch literature a variety is offered which must the case, heard the arguments, and studied gives special attention to enlarging pictures be admired. Mr. Hall deals largely in the evidence, he felt compelled—without which when finished in India ink are very writing cases, German and English toys fear or favor, but without any desire to ofand knick knacks, and has a neatly ar- lend-to place upon record what he believranged show room in the second story of ed to be a true exposition of the principles show a large and varied stock of goods in the building where these latter goods are their line. They have watches from $320 down, gold chains of every style, jewelry and silver ware of every kind. They have watches adjusted by themselves that have the some beautiful chromos claim place the facts upon record.

to do but to inquire judicially into the

LOCALS.

For a list of Agents for the sale of DAILY TRIBUNE see first page

New Advertisements.

efore 12 o'clock noon, in order to their appearance in this list. dechanics' Institute- G. H. Lawrence Intercolonial Railway-Hand Mirrors-Artists' Materials

Nursery Rhymes, No. 20-Geo. Stewart, Jr Amusements-Lamps-Newest Goods-

AUUTIONS

The Achdemy of Music, Music a scheme will be submitted for pay- of Novalis; Mr. Stedman's scholarly At the meeting of the Academy of The bark Fannie Thomas, from Youghhall for Cardiff, was totally wrecked on the Plow Bank on the 1st inst. The schooner Elthea Jane, seized for reseiving the cargo of another schooner that 1873, on payment of the yearly subscrip had cleared from Newfoundland, was sold at auction at Sydney, C. B., last week, for $310. She registered 35 tons. Another small craft, for smuggling molasses from a vessel in the harbor, was sold, realizing $I4.

om N.S.W. to W.N.W.

from N.S.W. to W.N.W.

The P. E. I. bark Dulcimer, which arrived at Halifax on the 19th inst., from London, 64 days, reports having experience. The price of a subscription to the Monthly, for they will make a complete illustrated book of themselves, of two hundred and fifty broad magazine pages. ondon, 64 days, reports having experienc ed a succession of gales not equalled on the Atlantic for many years past, in which they lost sails, had bulwarks stove and water casks destroyed. The whole of the rew are sick with salt-water boils. Little Glace Bay, C. B., 11th Novem ber, 1872. We, the undersigned shipmasters, having laid with our respective vessels in the harbor of Little Glace Bay, U. B., during the severe storms of the 1st, 2nd and 8th insts., when the force of, ed, and if you do not tell the truth, your the winds and waves was such that in some of the surrounding ports considerab Rev. E. H. Chapin has been lecturing on le damage was sustained by both shipping and wharf property while in this our ves Modern Chivalry. He deprecated the requent declaration of croakers that as sels laid perfectly quiet with nothing more the world grows old men grow worse, and than ordinary posts out. We, therefore cheerfully recomment it to ship owners and claimed that there is not more evil in the masters as being one of the safest harbers world, but the world is more sensitive of evil. If man grows worse we may be sure that knowledge does not make him so, but only shows him so, Mr. Chapin, in speakcentury, took occasion to refer to the cor ruption of politics, due largely to the desfrom E. to E. S. E., average force in 48 est force 70 to 75 miles per hour. The storm being directly into this harbor. Storm of 7th and 8th, winds direction deeds of men in the late war and in the

Signed) John O. Crowell. Master of Schr Jennie Wood, of Halifax. Sir Alexander Cockburn, the Lord Chie W. H. Keating, Master of Brig Faugh a Justice of England, was present at a John Fanning, Master of Brig Mary, of that they could be aroused. banquet in London on Nov. 14, and in responding to a toast referred to the arbitra-Halifax, N. S. tion meeting at Geneva. He said he had

Robert Hichey, Master of Brig Gem. of St. John's, N. F. L. there discharged functions which, upon the recommendation of Her Majesty's Ministers, the Queen was pleased to con-The bark Mars, which arrived at the watches adjusted by themselves that have hibition. Some beautiful chromos claim varied only a second or two in weeks of variable weather. Some ladies' watches ornamented with enamel and set with diamonds are very beautiful and not very tioned to morrow.

Some beautiful chromos claim place the facts upon record.

—J. Hinch, Prince William street, is now producing enlarged photographs, finished that the vessel should never get and finished in India ink, that are marvels of beauty and finish. Portraits by this process are achilotted in the windsw of Messrs. Barnes of the control of the place of interest will be mendant afternoon.

new novel, "Arthur Bonnicastle," appears in the January (noliday) number of Scribner's, accompanied by a very beautiful de-FOUND, FOR SALE, or To LET, see Auction sign from the pencil of Miss Hallock. The same number is rich in short stories and sketches, the most striking of the former being Saxe Holm's "One-Legged Dancers." Advertisers must send in their favors The list of names in the table of contents is altogether the most interesting and distinguished yet given. William Morris, George MacDonald, Bret Harte, Philip Lewis Carvell Gilbert Hamerton (author of "Thoughts J. Chaloner on Art," "The Unknown River," etc.), Charles Dudldy Warner. Edward Eggleston, Christina Rossetti, Edmund C. Stedman, C. S. Calverley (author of "Fly Leaves"), Edward King, and William C. McLaughlin & Sancton Bryant contribute characteristic poems, Page Bros stories, sketches, and essays. Particular attention is called to Mr. Morris's poem (we believe the longest he has ever published in av American magazine); Mac-Donald's exquisite rendering "Spiritual Song," from the

Scribner for January

The third instalment of Dr. Holland's

ing off the debt on the building. The essay on "Victorian Poets;" Col. scheme is to raise $100,000 by three mam. Higginson's important suggestions in noth concerts some time in February. The t he matter of "Intercollegiate Scholartickets will be 20,000 in number and will ship;" the splendidly illustrated article on be sold at $5 each, or half tickets $2.50. Virginia; and Mr King's graphic account be sold at $5 sach, or half tickets $2.50. Of the sum raised $50,000 will be expended in money prizes to be disposed of by lottery, the highest one being $10,000 and the lowest $5; the other $50,000 will go after payment of expenses, to the liquidation of the mortgage debts now due. The largest of those is $13,150 held by A. Christie & Co.; Dr. Keator and others hold one for $8000; and John Wishart one for $4000. The concert expenses are named $10,000. The drawing will be on the same plan as the Louisville lottery, and the projectors of the scheme are sanguine of sucplan as the Louisville lottery, and the projectors of the scheme are sanguine of success.

Shipping Notes.

Desides the look reviews, there are notices of the Late Operatic Season and Thomas Maran's Water Color Drawings. The Etchings are particularly good this month. They are by Hoppin, and are entitled "Matrimonial Stock Operation."

Subscription price of the DAILY TRIBUNE. FIVE DOLLARS a year. New subscribers wil receive it from date until December 31st.

The publishers of Scribner's Monthly announce one of the largest and most important enterprises ever undertaken by any illustrated magazine. They have engaged the services of Mr. Edward King, author for the West Indies, with coal, struck on sketches in recent numbers of the magazine the Bold Reels, Cape Canso, and has be to write a series of twelve papers, on the the Bold Reefs, Cape Canso, and has come a total loss. The captain and crew Life, Condition, and Resources of the Southern States of America. They will southern States of America. The brig Carone, while on her passage be brilliantly illustrated, and will be writfrom St. Martins to Lockport, lost over-board one of her crew named Arthur senting, by pen and pencil, one of the board one of her crew named Arthur Crone. Deceased was a resident of Lockeport.

The Jardine Brothers, which arrived at Liverpool, G. B., on the 29th ult., from Dalhousie, N. B, reports that the Orevina, Livards, from Montreal for Liverpool, foundered on the 8th of November, in lat. foundered on the 5th of November, in lat.

48 N., lon. 60 W.; one man saved.

also reports having experienced a very heavy gale S. W. to N. W. and lost boats, the saved are said three sea.

King the title of a "born Special Corresponding to the save and three sea." deck loads, etc., and mate and three sea-men, and on the 23d another heavy gale

King the title of a point spring of the monthly next spring, and will alone be

The DAILY TRIBUNE 18 not excelled as REDUCED PRICES .- Mr. David Miller has reduced the prices of sewing machines, dress patterns, &c., in order to give his customers a favorable opportunity to secure Christmas presents at low rates. See adv't.

TRAGEDY ON A NOVA SCOTIA

An Attempt to Poison the Crew and Fire the Vessel off Spencer's Island-The would-be Murderer is Caught in his own Trap and meets Retribu The Windsor Mail contains four columns devoted to an account of an extraordinary masters as being one of the safest harbers
—if not the very safest—on this side of the Island of Cape Breton in which a vessel can be during any weather. The vessel can be during any weather. The
a colored man, was the watch on deck, and direction and force of winds on the dates of the above mentioned storms was the others below consisting of Fredrick Lockhart of Hantsport, Captain, Albert s follows: 1st and 2nd, winds direction Mason, mate; Elias Pritchard, second from E. to E. S. E., average force in 48 mate. The crew were all colored, and hours 45 miles per hour, calculated great-their names were John Upshaw, Andrew Upshaw, George Prevost. The steward took charge at four and at six the captain awoke, fee ing a severe headache, sickness Storm of 7th and 8th, whites directed awoke, fee.ing a severe headache, sickness from S. by E. to S., average force per 24 hours 46 1 3 miles per hour. Calculated After struggling against insensibility for greatest force 75 to 80 miles. on attempting to waken the mates found them in so deep sleep that it so only after twenty minutes pulling and shouting The crew were aroused frdm their sleer with difficulty, and oxhibited the same symptoms, Andrew Upshaw seeming to be more affected than the rest of the seamen. It was found that the steward was missing. Island yesterday, eleven weeks from Cadiz, Smoke was seen coming up the hatch. The Captain sent John and Andrew Up-During last summer the schooner Glad shaw into the hold. They found Wately Tidings, which had cleared and sailed from Halifax for an outport, was abandoned at sea by her officers and crew, who made the land in a boat, and reported that the vessel had suph in their sight. had sunk in their sight. The schooner and her cargo were both well insured, and the her cargo were both well insured, and the insurance money was paid over to Rus ell, Cochran & Co. Some days after her abandonment the Glad Tidings was fallen in with by another schooner, which towed her into Shelburne, An examination showed that she had been scuttled, and suspicions were not snificient revidence obtainable at the time to the hold to bring out the body but were overpowered by the fumes and became unconscious. They were rescued with difficulty by the mate, who fell when reaching the deck was powerless for an hour and a half. The captain and Prevost then went into the hold to bring out the body but were overpowered by the fumes and became unconscious. They were rescued with difficulty by the mate, who fell when reaching and a half. The captain and Prevost then went into the hold to bring out the body but were overpowered by the fumes and became unconscious. They were rescued with difficulty by the mate, who fell when reaching and a half. The captain and Prevost then went into the hold to bring out the body but were overpowered by the fumes and became unconscious. They were rescued with difficulty by the mate, who fell when reaching the function of th evidence obtainable at the time to the insensation men were restrict and the warrant criminal proceedings against any one; but on Saturday it was ascertained that the Captain and some of the crew were in Halifax, and on complaint of the underwriters warrants for their arrest were issued to bring them before the Stipendiary

New interval of the first storped, and the vessel progress of th troy the vessel, but was overcome by the

LIFE LIKE AND MORE DURABLE THAN OIL. poison and met his death. He was