

AT THE THEATRE.

We stood by the river together. And bent over the water. And we watched the moonlight. That glittered down the stream.

The American Pilgrims to Rome. The N. Y. Tribune publishes an interesting letter from Harre describing the voyage thither of the American Pilgrims to Rome and Paray-le-Monial.

Obituary of a Western Editor. Ye editor sat in his rickety chair, as worried as worried could be, for ye Devil was grinning before him there, and "copy" ye Devil said he.

Fatal Fight and Murders. Little Rock correspondence makes it appear that the politicians in Arkansas are not the only persons familiar with powder and shot.

Hebrew Belles Dress Now as they did under Solomon. From the Daily Press, London. It is an interesting fact and true to great extent that the style of dress and ornaments of the Hebrew ladies of the present day—in fact the prevailing toilet of all classes—is much the same as during the time of Solomon.

Women in the Church. An exciting scene occurred lately at St. Louis. An overture from Rock River, Illinois, was presented which desired the Assembly to tell them if St. Paul's language concerning the preaching and praying of women should be interpreted literally, and whether it applies to the praying of women at weekly prayer meetings.

Violent Scene in the French Assembly. PARIS, June 9. In the Assembly to-day M. Girard, deputy from the Department of Nièvre, a member of the Left, read a document which he stated had been circulated during the recent election in that Department.

Notes and News. Fourteen thousand Jews are threatened with starvation in Palestine. Prussia, having adopted the Manser rite, has been selling its oil seed cake to China.

The Cremation Society of Zurich, which numbers six hundred members, has met with such success that it intends offering a prize for the best method of cremation. A cable dispatch conveys intelligence that in answer to a question asked in the British House of Commons on Saturday night last, as to the right of Canadian vessels to the use of the British flag with the arms of the Dominion emblazoned thereon.

The editor of the Columbia, S. C., Mail, with gratifying frequency acknowledges receipt of a milk pail in one column, and in the next publishes a "Temperance Department." Somebody has complained that the "editor of the Mail has nothing to do with what goes into the pail, nor have the gentlemen who conduct that department anything to do with what goes into the editor of the Mail."

The people of Nebraska, who are ardent in their hatred of heresy, hold that when a minister refuses to call off the dogs at a dance is sufficient to brand him a heretical tendency, and they give him twenty-four hours in which to leave the State or be branded.

A woman who recently died near Bangor was so anxious lest her body should be dug up and dissected by the doctors that she left $50 to pay a man for watching her grave a month after she was buried, that the watchman is his last every night.

The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London. The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London.

The May frosts have done almost as much damage in the hop-growing country of England as in the French vineyards. The destruction of a large portion of the hop crop will be the result in the hop-growing country, usually the most prolific, the vine has been the most seriously injured.

A new aquarium, well stocked with marine and fresh-water fish, was opened by Capt. M. Zoro, the French consul, in the Alexandria Park, a favorite suburb. The exhibition tanks were very big, and the fish were of all kinds, being more than double that of any other aquarium in the world.

Despatches received in London from Paris state that it is the intention of the French Government to ask for the extradition of the Communist, Rochefort, and his associates, on the ground that the crimes committed by them are of a civil character, and that under international law they are liable to be extradited.

The London Times, in an article on the American pilgrimage to Rome, expresses surprise that a race priding itself on its shrewdness and precision of thought should indulge in such antiquated superstitions. Possibly, after contrasting the various modes of warfare, reports, and the Papal States with the cultivation and fertility of America, they are eminent paragon of the future, will find their limitations by their result, will find their limitations by their result.

Hartford is afflicted with base-ball on the brain. According to the Times, "only the churches now remain without a base ball organization. All the dry goods shops, schools, corner groceries, insurance offices, and city government departments are at it; and clubs are actually organizing by streets. Even the young women are playing base ball. We are now waiting to hear from the match between the Protestant Episcopal club and the Seven Day Baptist nine."

This is what a Florida man expects to get a partner to his business. He advertises as follows: "Any gal what's got cow, a good featherbed, with comfortable lines, five hundred dollars in good, genuine slawp-greasebacks, that has had the same box mattress, and under-unders and tending children, can find a customer for life by riting a small williamz, addressed X. Y. Z., and stick in a crack of Uncle Billy Smith's barn, joint the pig-pen, who has been in the business for many years."

George Castator, of Hagerstown, Indiana, is 110 years old, stands erect 5 feet 8 inches tall, slippers, has good eyesight, hears perfectly, measures 41 1/2 inches round the chest, and chews tobacco, a habit learned when he was 21. He has always been fond of horse racing, but never drank much.

Here rest his bones on the slab beneath. But reston frownd get on his head, death, selection marks his name. No lon er seek his children to displease, selection marks his name. Where they, also implacable, rest. Trusting his spirit never felt "wet" hot.

Fourteen thousand Jews are threatened with starvation in Palestine. Prussia, having adopted the Manser rite, has been selling its oil seed cake to China.

The Cremation Society of Zurich, which numbers six hundred members, has met with such success that it intends offering a prize for the best method of cremation. A cable dispatch conveys intelligence that in answer to a question asked in the British House of Commons on Saturday night last, as to the right of Canadian vessels to the use of the British flag with the arms of the Dominion emblazoned thereon.

The editor of the Columbia, S. C., Mail, with gratifying frequency acknowledges receipt of a milk pail in one column, and in the next publishes a "Temperance Department." Somebody has complained that the "editor of the Mail has nothing to do with what goes into the pail, nor have the gentlemen who conduct that department anything to do with what goes into the editor of the Mail."

The people of Nebraska, who are ardent in their hatred of heresy, hold that when a minister refuses to call off the dogs at a dance is sufficient to brand him a heretical tendency, and they give him twenty-four hours in which to leave the State or be branded.

A woman who recently died near Bangor was so anxious lest her body should be dug up and dissected by the doctors that she left $50 to pay a man for watching her grave a month after she was buried, that the watchman is his last every night.

The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London. The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London.

The May frosts have done almost as much damage in the hop-growing country of England as in the French vineyards. The destruction of a large portion of the hop crop will be the result in the hop-growing country, usually the most prolific, the vine has been the most seriously injured.

A new aquarium, well stocked with marine and fresh-water fish, was opened by Capt. M. Zoro, the French consul, in the Alexandria Park, a favorite suburb. The exhibition tanks were very big, and the fish were of all kinds, being more than double that of any other aquarium in the world.

Despatches received in London from Paris state that it is the intention of the French Government to ask for the extradition of the Communist, Rochefort, and his associates, on the ground that the crimes committed by them are of a civil character, and that under international law they are liable to be extradited.

The London Times, in an article on the American pilgrimage to Rome, expresses surprise that a race priding itself on its shrewdness and precision of thought should indulge in such antiquated superstitions. Possibly, after contrasting the various modes of warfare, reports, and the Papal States with the cultivation and fertility of America, they are eminent paragon of the future, will find their limitations by their result, will find their limitations by their result.

Hartford is afflicted with base-ball on the brain. According to the Times, "only the churches now remain without a base ball organization. All the dry goods shops, schools, corner groceries, insurance offices, and city government departments are at it; and clubs are actually organizing by streets. Even the young women are playing base ball. We are now waiting to hear from the match between the Protestant Episcopal club and the Seven Day Baptist nine."

This is what a Florida man expects to get a partner to his business. He advertises as follows: "Any gal what's got cow, a good featherbed, with comfortable lines, five hundred dollars in good, genuine slawp-greasebacks, that has had the same box mattress, and under-unders and tending children, can find a customer for life by riting a small williamz, addressed X. Y. Z., and stick in a crack of Uncle Billy Smith's barn, joint the pig-pen, who has been in the business for many years."

George Castator, of Hagerstown, Indiana, is 110 years old, stands erect 5 feet 8 inches tall, slippers, has good eyesight, hears perfectly, measures 41 1/2 inches round the chest, and chews tobacco, a habit learned when he was 21. He has always been fond of horse racing, but never drank much.

Here rest his bones on the slab beneath. But reston frownd get on his head, death, selection marks his name. No lon er seek his children to displease, selection marks his name. Where they, also implacable, rest. Trusting his spirit never felt "wet" hot.

Fourteen thousand Jews are threatened with starvation in Palestine. Prussia, having adopted the Manser rite, has been selling its oil seed cake to China.

The Cremation Society of Zurich, which numbers six hundred members, has met with such success that it intends offering a prize for the best method of cremation. A cable dispatch conveys intelligence that in answer to a question asked in the British House of Commons on Saturday night last, as to the right of Canadian vessels to the use of the British flag with the arms of the Dominion emblazoned thereon.

The editor of the Columbia, S. C., Mail, with gratifying frequency acknowledges receipt of a milk pail in one column, and in the next publishes a "Temperance Department." Somebody has complained that the "editor of the Mail has nothing to do with what goes into the pail, nor have the gentlemen who conduct that department anything to do with what goes into the editor of the Mail."

The people of Nebraska, who are ardent in their hatred of heresy, hold that when a minister refuses to call off the dogs at a dance is sufficient to brand him a heretical tendency, and they give him twenty-four hours in which to leave the State or be branded.

A woman who recently died near Bangor was so anxious lest her body should be dug up and dissected by the doctors that she left $50 to pay a man for watching her grave a month after she was buried, that the watchman is his last every night.

The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London. The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London.

The May frosts have done almost as much damage in the hop-growing country of England as in the French vineyards. The destruction of a large portion of the hop crop will be the result in the hop-growing country, usually the most prolific, the vine has been the most seriously injured.

A new aquarium, well stocked with marine and fresh-water fish, was opened by Capt. M. Zoro, the French consul, in the Alexandria Park, a favorite suburb. The exhibition tanks were very big, and the fish were of all kinds, being more than double that of any other aquarium in the world.

Despatches received in London from Paris state that it is the intention of the French Government to ask for the extradition of the Communist, Rochefort, and his associates, on the ground that the crimes committed by them are of a civil character, and that under international law they are liable to be extradited.

The London Times, in an article on the American pilgrimage to Rome, expresses surprise that a race priding itself on its shrewdness and precision of thought should indulge in such antiquated superstitions. Possibly, after contrasting the various modes of warfare, reports, and the Papal States with the cultivation and fertility of America, they are eminent paragon of the future, will find their limitations by their result, will find their limitations by their result.

Hartford is afflicted with base-ball on the brain. According to the Times, "only the churches now remain without a base ball organization. All the dry goods shops, schools, corner groceries, insurance offices, and city government departments are at it; and clubs are actually organizing by streets. Even the young women are playing base ball. We are now waiting to hear from the match between the Protestant Episcopal club and the Seven Day Baptist nine."

This is what a Florida man expects to get a partner to his business. He advertises as follows: "Any gal what's got cow, a good featherbed, with comfortable lines, five hundred dollars in good, genuine slawp-greasebacks, that has had the same box mattress, and under-unders and tending children, can find a customer for life by riting a small williamz, addressed X. Y. Z., and stick in a crack of Uncle Billy Smith's barn, joint the pig-pen, who has been in the business for many years."

George Castator, of Hagerstown, Indiana, is 110 years old, stands erect 5 feet 8 inches tall, slippers, has good eyesight, hears perfectly, measures 41 1/2 inches round the chest, and chews tobacco, a habit learned when he was 21. He has always been fond of horse racing, but never drank much.

Here rest his bones on the slab beneath. But reston frownd get on his head, death, selection marks his name. No lon er seek his children to displease, selection marks his name. Where they, also implacable, rest. Trusting his spirit never felt "wet" hot.

Fourteen thousand Jews are threatened with starvation in Palestine. Prussia, having adopted the Manser rite, has been selling its oil seed cake to China.

The Cremation Society of Zurich, which numbers six hundred members, has met with such success that it intends offering a prize for the best method of cremation. A cable dispatch conveys intelligence that in answer to a question asked in the British House of Commons on Saturday night last, as to the right of Canadian vessels to the use of the British flag with the arms of the Dominion emblazoned thereon.

The editor of the Columbia, S. C., Mail, with gratifying frequency acknowledges receipt of a milk pail in one column, and in the next publishes a "Temperance Department." Somebody has complained that the "editor of the Mail has nothing to do with what goes into the pail, nor have the gentlemen who conduct that department anything to do with what goes into the editor of the Mail."

The people of Nebraska, who are ardent in their hatred of heresy, hold that when a minister refuses to call off the dogs at a dance is sufficient to brand him a heretical tendency, and they give him twenty-four hours in which to leave the State or be branded.

A woman who recently died near Bangor was so anxious lest her body should be dug up and dissected by the doctors that she left $50 to pay a man for watching her grave a month after she was buried, that the watchman is his last every night.

The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London. The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London.

The May frosts have done almost as much damage in the hop-growing country of England as in the French vineyards. The destruction of a large portion of the hop crop will be the result in the hop-growing country, usually the most prolific, the vine has been the most seriously injured.

A new aquarium, well stocked with marine and fresh-water fish, was opened by Capt. M. Zoro, the French consul, in the Alexandria Park, a favorite suburb. The exhibition tanks were very big, and the fish were of all kinds, being more than double that of any other aquarium in the world.

Despatches received in London from Paris state that it is the intention of the French Government to ask for the extradition of the Communist, Rochefort, and his associates, on the ground that the crimes committed by them are of a civil character, and that under international law they are liable to be extradited.

The London Times, in an article on the American pilgrimage to Rome, expresses surprise that a race priding itself on its shrewdness and precision of thought should indulge in such antiquated superstitions. Possibly, after contrasting the various modes of warfare, reports, and the Papal States with the cultivation and fertility of America, they are eminent paragon of the future, will find their limitations by their result, will find their limitations by their result.

Hartford is afflicted with base-ball on the brain. According to the Times, "only the churches now remain without a base ball organization. All the dry goods shops, schools, corner groceries, insurance offices, and city government departments are at it; and clubs are actually organizing by streets. Even the young women are playing base ball. We are now waiting to hear from the match between the Protestant Episcopal club and the Seven Day Baptist nine."

This is what a Florida man expects to get a partner to his business. He advertises as follows: "Any gal what's got cow, a good featherbed, with comfortable lines, five hundred dollars in good, genuine slawp-greasebacks, that has had the same box mattress, and under-unders and tending children, can find a customer for life by riting a small williamz, addressed X. Y. Z., and stick in a crack of Uncle Billy Smith's barn, joint the pig-pen, who has been in the business for many years."

George Castator, of Hagerstown, Indiana, is 110 years old, stands erect 5 feet 8 inches tall, slippers, has good eyesight, hears perfectly, measures 41 1/2 inches round the chest, and chews tobacco, a habit learned when he was 21. He has always been fond of horse racing, but never drank much.

Here rest his bones on the slab beneath. But reston frownd get on his head, death, selection marks his name. No lon er seek his children to displease, selection marks his name. Where they, also implacable, rest. Trusting his spirit never felt "wet" hot.

Fourteen thousand Jews are threatened with starvation in Palestine. Prussia, having adopted the Manser rite, has been selling its oil seed cake to China.

The Cremation Society of Zurich, which numbers six hundred members, has met with such success that it intends offering a prize for the best method of cremation. A cable dispatch conveys intelligence that in answer to a question asked in the British House of Commons on Saturday night last, as to the right of Canadian vessels to the use of the British flag with the arms of the Dominion emblazoned thereon.

The editor of the Columbia, S. C., Mail, with gratifying frequency acknowledges receipt of a milk pail in one column, and in the next publishes a "Temperance Department." Somebody has complained that the "editor of the Mail has nothing to do with what goes into the pail, nor have the gentlemen who conduct that department anything to do with what goes into the editor of the Mail."

The people of Nebraska, who are ardent in their hatred of heresy, hold that when a minister refuses to call off the dogs at a dance is sufficient to brand him a heretical tendency, and they give him twenty-four hours in which to leave the State or be branded.

A woman who recently died near Bangor was so anxious lest her body should be dug up and dissected by the doctors that she left $50 to pay a man for watching her grave a month after she was buried, that the watchman is his last every night.

The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London. The friends of Henry Meigs, the Railroad King of South America, are making great preparations for his reception in London.

The May frosts have done almost as much damage in the hop-growing country of England as in the French vineyards. The destruction of a large portion of the hop crop will be the result in the hop-growing country, usually the most prolific, the vine has been the most seriously injured.

A new aquarium, well stocked with marine and fresh-water fish, was opened by Capt. M. Zoro, the French consul, in the Alexandria Park, a favorite suburb. The exhibition tanks were very big, and the fish were of all kinds, being more than double that of any other aquarium in the world.

Despatches received in London from Paris state that it is the intention of the French Government to ask for the extradition of the Communist, Rochefort, and his associates, on the ground that the crimes committed by them are of a civil character, and that under international law they are liable to be extradited.

The London Times, in an article on the American pilgrimage to Rome, expresses surprise that a race priding itself on its shrewdness and precision of thought should indulge in such antiquated superstitions. Possibly, after contrasting the various modes of warfare, reports, and the Papal States with the cultivation and fertility of America, they are eminent paragon of the future, will find their limitations by their result, will find their limitations by their result.

Hartford is afflicted with base-ball on the brain. According to the Times, "only the churches now remain without a base ball organization. All the dry goods shops, schools, corner groceries, insurance offices, and city government departments are at it; and clubs are actually organizing by streets. Even the young women are playing base ball. We are now waiting to hear from the match between the Protestant Episcopal club and the Seven Day Baptist nine."

This is what a Florida man expects to get a partner to his business. He advertises as follows: "Any gal what's got cow, a good featherbed, with comfortable lines, five hundred dollars in good, genuine slawp-greasebacks, that has had the same box mattress, and under-unders and tending children, can find a customer for life by riting a small williamz, addressed X. Y. Z., and stick in a crack of Uncle Billy Smith's barn, joint the pig-pen, who has been in the business for many years."

George Castator, of Hagerstown, Indiana, is 110 years old, stands erect 5 feet 8 inches tall, slippers, has good eyesight, hears perfectly, measures 41 1/2 inches round the chest, and chews tobacco, a habit learned when he was 21. He has always been fond of horse racing, but never drank much.

THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE! AN INDEPENDENT Family Newspaper. SUBSCRIBE FOR IT! THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE. A FIRST-CLASS FAMILY PAPER. IT CONTAINS More Reading Matter Than is furnished by any other WEEKLY in the Maritime Provinces. No effort will be spared to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE The Best Newspaper. Largest Subscription List! GENERAL NEWS. EDITORIALS. Market Reports & Shipping Intelligence. WEEKLY TRIBUNE. M. McLEOD, No. 31 Prince William Street, St. John, N. S.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a pure vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol.

The properties of Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters are a pure vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful invigorant that ever sustained the failing system. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bowels are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, and the States of the South.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of manhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible. Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Margeson's Calculifuge. THIS MEDICINE is a certain remedy for all diseases of the KIDNEYS such as Gravel, Stone in the Bladder, and Dropsy. It has cured many cases of long standing. PURELY VEGETABLE. Price $1.00 per bottle. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

HOME TESTIMONY. Mr. J. H. Spence, 23 Nelson Street, St. John, N. S. I have been afflicted with gravel and stone upwards of a year and a half—tried every kind of medicine, but without avail. I can only bear of the relief, without any other advertisement, of CALCULIFUGE, the Halifax paper-book. Three bottles according to directions, and in the short space of time I am entirely cured. I willingly add my testimony to the value, and the efficacy recommended to be administered. DATED Halifax, N. S. 1878. F. W. COLLINS, Publisher of the Halifax Standard.