at Bremen, under the following circum stances: Mr. L., a bachelor, lately returned from America with 150,000 thalers in cash, informed his housekeeper that he intended to shoot himself, requesting her to rush up stairs as soon as she heard the report and to take possession of 500 thalers left for her on the table. The 500 thalers perspective influenced the good soul to take it all for a joke, and, on hearing, next morning, the fatal report, she lost no time in ascertaining the reality of her master's generous intention. She, however, found him sitting in his easy chair and pointing out the hole he had made in the ceiling just to try her and his revolver. A few hours afterwards the woman heard another report—the young man had blown out his brains. at Bremen, under the following circum
