

OAK HALL

HEADQUARTERS FOR CHILDREN'S & BOYS'

FINE READY-TO-WEAR SUITS AND ODD PANTS

A Boy's Clothes are the outward expression of his training. Find me a neat, tidy boy and I'll show you a well-mannered lad. Poverty or economy are no excuse for lack of refinement. Mothers, bring your boys to Oak Hall and see how we can fix them for so little money.

STRONG SCHOOL SUITS, Handsome Patterns, 2 pieces $1.50 to $3; 3 pieces $2.50 to $5

OAK HALL,

148 and 150 Dundas St., London.

ALFRED TAYLOR, Manager.

*Bright blooming buds of humanity, Happy as children should always be,
Pity, 'tis true, but the simile prevails,
A boy with poor clothes—a ship with poor sails.*

g
pe
ca w he

eff
ye wh
W Ki
Me
Lo
mo

ble for
"th han