

as a lecturer were sought in other parishes, and he became known far and wide as the "Farmer's Friend." He was elected V.-P. of the Quebec Dairymen's Assn., 1891, and Presdt., 1892, continuing to hold the last-named office up to 1896, when he was elected hon. Presdt. In 1883 he presided over the first Farmers' Congress held in the Province, on which occasion he delivered an address on "Agricultural teaching in Primary Schools." This and his presidential address before the Dairymen's Assn. afford an almost complete history of the dairy industry in the Province of Quebec. In acknowledgment of his services to the Province, the Govt. apptd. him a mem. of the Council of Agricul., 1892. Mr. M. has travelled extensively in Europe and other portions of the world, and has given his impressions thereon in the native press.—St. George's de Beauce, P. Q.

MOODY, Harry, Can. railway service, is the s. of Rev. H. R. Moody, hon. canon of Canterbury Cath., and was b. at Chartham, near Canterbury, 1832. Ed. at Eton and at King's Coll., Cambridge (M.A. and Fellow), he was gazetted Capt. Oxfordshire militia, and, in 1861, became A.D.C. and Private Secy. to the Lt. Gov. of N. B., a position he retained until 1866. He was afterwards Auditor-Genl., Trinidad, 1867; Secy. to the Lt. Gov. of N. S., 1867-72; and Secy. and Mil. Secy. to Lord Dufferin, Gov.-Genl. of Can., 1875. Capt. M. remained in Can. for some yrs., and was the first ed. of the Nation (Toronto). Afterwards, he was asst. to the Genl. Mangr. of the G. W. Ry. of Can. In 1883 he was apptd. Secy. in London and Mangr. of the London office of the Can. Pac. Ry., a position he still retains. He m. 1863, Florence, dau. of the late Hon. Neville Parker, Master of the Rolls, N.B.—1 Queen Victoria St., London; Old Rectory, Carshalton, Surrey, Eng.

MOORE, Lt.-Genl. Alexander George

Montgomery, commanding H. M.'s troops in Can., is the only s. of the late Alex. Jas. Montgomery Moore, of Garvey, Tyrone, Irel. B. 1833, he was ed. at Eton, and entered the army as ensign 7th Dragoon Gds., 1850. Promoted lieut., 1852, he became capt. 4th Hussars, 1856, and lt.-col. commanding that regt., 1868. He attained the rank of col., 1880; maj.-genl., 1884; and lt.-genl., 1892. After commanding the Belfast and South-Eastern (Eng.) Dists., he was apptd. to the command of the troops in Can., 1893. Since then he has served on several occasions as Admr. of the Govt. in the Dom. He is a J. P. for Belfast, and a mem. of the Ch. of Eng. He m. Sept., 1857, the Hon. Jane Colborne, young dau. of Field-Marshal John, Lord Seaton, G.C.B.—Halifax, N.S.; "Garvey House," Aughnacloy, Tyrone, Irel.; Carlton Club; United Service Club.

MOORE, Lt.-Col. Alexander Huggins, V. M., is the s. of John Moore, by his wife, Isabella Huggins. B. at Rathdrum, Wicklow, Irel., Aug. 15, 1843, he came to Can. with his parents, 1848, was ed. at Hamilton, and at an early age entered Stinson's bank, in that city, of which institution he has been mangr. since Jan., 1884. He held office as a separate sch. trustee for several yrs., and was an ald. of the city of Hamilton from 1883 to 1890, when he declined re-election. He is now one of the oldest officers in the V. M. force of Can., having entered the 13th Batt. in 1865. Graduating at the M. S. under Col. Peacocke, H. M.'s 16th Regt., where he took 1st and 2nd class certs., he was present with his regt. at Ridgeway, and subsequently, saw much varied and arduous service elsewhere on the frontier. On several occasions he discharged the duties of Brig.-Major of the 3rd div., No. 2 M. D., and he has attended every brigade camp held in that dist. In 1876 he was attached to "A" Batt. Sch. of Gunnery, taking a 1st class cert. in gunnery and arty., and in the same