Persons inciting Indians, &c., to the commission of certain offences how punishable.

IX. And be it enacted, That any person inciting Indians or half-breeds frequenting or residing in such tracts of country as aforesaid, to the disturbance of the public peace or to the commission of any other indictable offence, shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than nor less than years in the Provincial Penitentiary: and that for and notwithstanding any thing to the contrary contained in an Act of the Parliament of this Province passed in the ninth year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to provide for the appointment of Magistrates for the more remote parts of this Province," or in any other Act or law in force in Upper Canada, persons accused of inciting Indians or half-breeds as aforesaid or accused or convicted of any other crime or offence in any such Provisional District as aforesaid, may be committed to any Common Gaol in Upper Canada; and it shall be lawful for the Constable or other officer having charge of such person and entrusted with his conveyance to any such Common Gaol, to pass through any County or Counties in Upper Canada with such person in his custody, and for the keeper of the Common Gaol of any County or Union of Counties in Upper Canada in which it may be found necessary to lodge for safe keeping any such person as aforesaid so being conveyed through such County or Counties in custody as aforesaid, to receive such person and him safely to keep and detain in such Common Gaol for such period as may be reasonable or necessary, and for the keeper of any Common Gaol in Upper Canada, to which any such person may be committed as aforesaid, to receive such person and him safely to keep and detain in such Common Gaol under his custody until discharged in due course of law, or bailed in cases in which bail may by law be taken.

35

Any persons may be returned as Jurors in the said Provisional Districts.

X. And be it enacted, That any Sheriff or other officer of any kind, whose duty it is or who may be legally required to summon and return Jurors or persons to serve as Jurors, within any of the said Provisional Districts, shall and may select, choose and return for such Jurors any of the inhabitants of such Provisional Districts respectively, without reference to the mode prescribed for selecting, balloting or returning such Jurors by the Upper Canada Jurors Acts, or any other Act or law which limits the choice of such officer or person in the selection of Jurors: Provided always, that Juries de medietate linguae, and Juries of a like nature, may be ordered by the Court before which any cause or prosecution in any of the said Provisional Districts may be pending.
