National Liberal Committee understands Mr King exceedingly anxious you should undertake management of organization in North York for period of campaign. North York Liberals heartily concur. In view of far-reaching significance of contest and inability of Leader to give personal attention to campaign Committee desires me to urge in strongest possible way your consent to represent him in riding and give entire time to its effective organization. Committee realizes it may mean temporary sacrifice your business interests but believes your acceptance would not only greatly relieve Leader but would ensure success. Could meet you and discuss matter Toronto Monday if you say so. Would like to have answer if possible before Sunday night.
