With reference to letters to you of the 31st October and 31st July last in which you were told that it would be necessary for you to refund $12.00 to the Department to make good the over-payment, which through disregard of instructions, you made to Mrs John Legard (who is also known as Mrs Clement Cyrette) of the Fort William Band, I have to inform you that if you do not send the money in without delay the Department proposes retaining the said amount out of the next money found to be due you.

Your obedient servant.
