With Twenty-five cents.

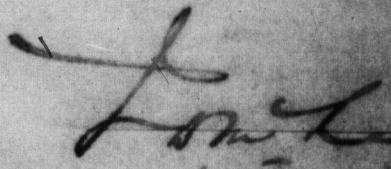

19.

Ottawa, 27th September, 1910.

Rev. Sir,-

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 14th instant with which you forwarded $6.00, $5.75 of which is the amount which you collected as dues on the 23 cords of wood which was cut and delivered to the fish hatchery at Berens River. It is presumed that the twenty-five cents additional is interest on the money. It was quite unnecessary for you to forward any interest and consequently I transmit herewith a twenty-five cent bill in refund of the interest.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.
