

ONE OF HUNDREDS RECEIVED

Victoria's charms are unique. The DOMINION HOTEL is likewise distinguished, and tourists and business men who make it their headquarters are its best advertisement, as proven by the subjoined letter—one of hundreds received.

A CORNER OF RECEPTION CORRIDOR, DOMINION HOTEL.

An American Patron Recommends the Hotel

MR. STEPHEN JONES, SEATTLE, WASH., May 21st, 1904.
Propr. Dominion Hotel,
VICTORIA, B. C.

Dear Sir,—We arrived safely home after a pleasant holiday in your city * * * I wish to say that the service given my wife and myself while guests of your hotel was of the very highest order, and I will take great pleasure in recommending your house to any of my friends who may visit your city. Thanking you again,

Yours very truly,

W. J. McDONALD,

Contracting Agent The Minn. & St. Louis R. R. Co.

Our free busses meet all boats and trains, and visitors are cordially invited to make the Dominion Hotel their headquarters. The spacious parlor and office are at the free disposal of those who may be but a few hours in the city.