

(13) No Companion shall speak twice to the same question, unless in explanation, or the mover in reply, and no visitor shall speak to any question, unless requested or permitted to do so by the presiding officer.

(14) When a Companion speaks he shall rise and remain standing, addressing himself to the Grand First Principal, and shall not be interrupted except on a point of order.

(15) If any Companion shall have been twice called to order by the presiding officer and shall, nevertheless, be guilty of a third offence at the same meeting, the presiding officer may command him forthwith to quit the Grand Chapter, and he shall not again be admitted to that Convocation.

(16) Whoever shall be so unmasonic as to hiss at a Companion, or what he has said, shall be forthwith solemnly excluded from the Convocation, and declared incapable of being a member of any Grand Chapter till, at another Grand Convocation, he publicly owns his fault, and grace be granted.

(17) If any member of this Grand Chapter shall be guilty of disorderly behaviour, he shall for the first offence be called to order, for the second reprimanded by the presiding officer, and for the third he shall be suspended from a seat in the Grand Chapter during the pleasure of the same.

(18) When a motion is under debate, no motion shall be entertained except to lay on the table, to indefinitely postpone or to amend, and these motions shall take precedence in the order named.

(19) An amendment that entirely changes the subject of the original motion shall not be entertained as an amendment or substitute for the motion under debate.

(20) No Companion, except one who has voted with
