A horse belonging to Jos. White-sall, of Raleigh, ran away yesterday afternoon on William St. but was fortunately stopped. The only dam was the breaking of the harness and a cut in the horse's leg.

William Grayson, of this city, died Tuesday in Detroit. He was in the city three weeks ago on a visit so that his death was quite sudden and unexpected, and was caused from pneumonia. He was employed on the City of Cleveland. He has worked at different times at the Merrill House and the Garner. He was a grandson of Mrs. Sarah Hawkins, Wellington street.

D. McLachlan lost a very valuable horse the other day—Collegian. Last August he was receiving a workout at Blenheim, when he accidentally cut one of the tendons in his foot. He has been cared for ever since, but serious complications set in and it was found necessary to shoot him. Collegian tipped off a half-mile in 1.04 without any training. Mr. McLachlan was at one time offered $1,200 for him.

Three Stomachs on a Week's Vacation.

Eat, drink and be merry while giving the digestive apparatus a healing, wholesome rest! It can be done by the use of

PINEAPPLE TABLETS.
Pineapple will digest meat in a dish at 100°. The rest cure is the best cure, the only cure for dyspepsia. That's the whole story except that the large tablets digest food, the small ones tone up the digestive apparatus.—Price 30 cents.

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder opens a new tunnel in a choked up nostril and lines it with a new membrane. In ten minutes will relieve cold or catarrh or cure the most obstinate headache. A quick cure—a safe cure—not a slow remedy. 17.

WERE IN DANGER

The members of the choir of Park St. Methodist Church will no doubt be much surprised to learn that, while in the choir loft for many Sundays past, they have been in imminent danger of losing their lives. For some time past the archway above the choir loft has been in such a condition that the centre part was at any moment liable to fall.
Contractor W. H. Carswell is engaged at present putting in a steel arch to support the centre. Mr. Carswell would not work under it until he had braced it well. It is only a miracle that kept it from falling.

How the world Assimilates Improvements

How quickly the world assimilates new improvements which in many instances radically affect the habits of living of a large proportion of the public has been often demonstrated. Electric lights, telephones and trolley cars were all introduced to popular use within the memory of the present generation. Yet, whoever stops to wonder at an electric light, who marvels at the "no pushers" street car and who gives the telephone more than a passing thought—save to register a kick at unsatisfactory service. And the bicycle came in, was a nine days wonder and then settled into the rut of a commonplace utility. And thoughtless people said the "fad had died out." No, it merely became an everyday necessity. It excites no more comment than electric lights or telephones or trolley cars. Being more personal than any other modern utility, it is less talked about than the public utilities, for the same reason that people do not frequently discuss their shoes or clothes or hats. Yet the bicycle is now almost as much a part of the daily life of the public and a personal necessity to thousands as their clothing or shoes or hats.
