

THE ADVANCE, OF CHICAGO.

Was never so prosperous as at present. The proprietors are spending money as never before, to make the paper worthy of the denomination and the cause which it represents. They have reduced the price from $3.00 to $2.50. The list of their contributors embraces representatives of the leading writers of our day, both in prose and poetry. The Advance gives more space to the news of our churches than any other paper in the denomination. It has representatives at all the great centres,—Boston, New York, Cleveland, St. Louis, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Milwaukee, San Francisco, Omaha, etc. In addition to the special papers by such men as Dr. GOODWIN, of Chicago; Prof. WRIGHT, of Oberlin, O.; Dr. GOODDELL, of St. Louis, and many others, the Advance has just purchased the exclusive right to publish in newspaper form the next course of lectures by Rev. JOSEPH COOK, who will also contribute to the Advance. No paper except the Independent has ever had this exclusive right before, and now this enterprise and expenditure on the part of the Advance compel every paper in the United States, secular or religious, to get permission from it to publish any part of these lectures.

The Religious Herald, OFFICE, HARTFORD, CONN.,

Entered its Forty-second year, Jan. 1, 1884, aiming as heretofore to be a safe and valuable aid in the family to an intelligent and practical knowledge of the world, and how to live in it. It will urge the claims of religion upon all, not forgetting the little children; and will discuss the practical questions of the day with candour; advocating earnestly the cause of temperance; speaking freely on all subjects,—literary, educational, civil, social, or financial,—and aiming to speak wisely. Its reviews and articles, correspondence and comments, notes and summaries of news, will be carefully edited. It will seek to be useful to all whom it can reach, and will deem it ample reward for much hard labor if it can in any way serve the cause of Christ; having a special love for the old historic churches of Connecticut, commonly called Congregational, but rejoicing to be a co-worker with all who love our Lord Jesus Christ and seek to bless and save men. We ask the co-operation and patronage of all who are in sympathy with our aim, and hope for an increase of subscribers such as will enable us to work more efficiently in the field we are striving to cultivate.

Terms:—$2.10 per year.

To Advertisers:—8 cents per line; $18 an inch one year.
