

The Bay of Fundy Steamers

Windsor & Annapolis Railway

Connecting NEW BRUNSWICK with NOVA SCOTIA, is the Cheapest and most expeditious route between St. John & Halifax.

STEAMERS leave REED'S POINT WHARF, St. John, at 8 A. M., and connects at Annapolis with Express Trains due in Halifax same day.

Travellers will find this the pleasantest route from Montreal, Boston, Portland and St. John to Halifax and all parts of Nova Scotia.

The Railroad runs through the Valley of Acadia, and the magnificent scenery made celebrated in the story of Evangeline.

Every information as to Fares and Freight to be had of

GEO. F. HATHEWAY, Agent,
39 Dock Street.

Railway

TOUR

NOVA SCOTIA

Containing CO
Trains to Publish

GE

Book

PU

No. 46

ALL DE

executed at this

The New

A Weekly N

TERMS—