

It cannot be too frequently or too earnestly impressed upon our people that the heaviest burdens of the conflict still lie before us and that industry and thrift are, for those who remain at home, supreme patriotic duties upon whose faithful fulfilment our success and consequently our national safety may ultimately depend.—Sir Thomas White.

THE MUTUAL'S RED LETTER YEAR
$100,000,000

The Mutual Life of Canada now ranks among the few nine-figure Canadian Life Companies. After forty-six years of quiet but steady progress, The Mutual has on its books one hundred millions of strictly high class business.

This result is noteworthy because the Company has never for a moment failed to make increase in business secondary to quality of service.

Twenty-six years were required to reach the first twenty millions; only eight years for the second twenty, five for the third, and three each for the fourth and fifth, making one hundred millions.

It needs no prophet to forecast the future of
