

deep sleep, and as he slept, God took one of the ribs from Adam's side. With it he formed another human being. And when Adam awoke he was overjoyed to find his helpmate, his wife, Eve.

Adam and Eve were very happy in the garden of Eden. I suppose they cared for the fruit trees and worked each day among them. They picked the beautiful, sweet-smelling flowers. God, the heavenly Father, had given them every good thing for them to enjoy and I know their hearts were full of love and gratitude.

There are flowers which will blossom in your hearts if you keep the rules that God, our Father, has made to help us to be wise and happy. They are the flowers of peace and joy and love.

"All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful—
The Lord God made them all."
