

Compressed
Corned

is a staple article and a good many people make it. It looks like a simple thing to put up, but there are lots of points to be considered. First—there's the selection of the meat, that's important. Second—the cure of the meat; if it's cured too much, it's salty; if not enough, it will spoil. Third—there's the cooking of the meat; this has to be done to a turn. Fourth—there's the processing; in this and the cooking lie the arts of the scientific canner. Lastly—there's the packing, labeling and casing of the can for market—these points all require careful attention and trained help.

We make a study of every detail connected with meat canning. Nothing is so small as to escape our careful attention. We are acknowledged leaders in the application of scientific methods to this work. Our "Helmet" Brand on a can of meat is a guarantee of excellence. Specify Armour Packing Co.'s KANSAS CITY Canned Meats on your orders to your jobber.

Canadian Dealers too Often Deceived

It is of vast importance that every dealer should exercise the greatest caution when buying Paste Stove Polish.

The QUICKSHINE has attained such immense popularity that unscrupulous people have gone into stove polish business and are manufacturing polish that pays them tremendous profits. The materials employed in the composition of these imitation packages are so poor and cheap that the woman who buys them can never get the results she desires, and in this manner, to a certain extent, injures the sale of the good article.

When stove polish is required for domestic use ask your dealer or wholesale grocer for QUICKSHINE STOVE POLISH, and accept no substitute in the way of imitation package polishes, or polishes that are two-thirds soap and one-third polishing material.

If your wholesale dealer does not sell QUICKSHINE, send direct to us for same, stating the wholesale dealer you wish us to send it through; or if you prefer it sent direct, we will forward same at once. Price per 3-doz. Case, $2.25.
