PITTSBURG HAVE PENNANT CINCHED

But Yankees and Cleveland are Evenly Matched in American League

[Associated Press by Leased Wire.] New York, Aug. 22.—The Cleveland world champions and their New York Yankee rivals are stumbling along in their efforts to outdistance each other in the American League pennant race, while Pittsburgh now has little to fear from the New York Giants in the National.

The Indians play host to the Yankees this week and the Pittsburgh team visits New York. A double defeat suffered by the Yankees yesterday while Cleveland was winning put the eastern team 2½ games behind the champions. Pittsburgh is ½ game ahead of New York.

The American League honors should go to the club whose pitching staff stands for the final spurt next month. New York is outstripping Cleveland at present, but there is little to choose between the pitching strength of the two teams. Washington is tightening its grip on third place by good pitching.

The Pittsburgh Nationals have a firm grasp on the pennant. If the Pirates win twenty of their remaining thirty-nine games, New York could go into first place only by winning 26 out of 36. Pittsburgh has a marked edge on its rival in both batting and pitching. Since July 30, when the two rivals were tied for first place, the Pirates have won 15 games and lost 15, while New York won 10 and lost 13.

Maine and N. B. Circuit

OVER $27,000 DISTRIBUTED IN PURSES AT THE SUMMER RACES AND NEW RECORDS FOR EACH OF THE SIX TRACKS WHICH STAGED MEETINGS—CALGARY EARL, 2:02½, REPORTED ILL.—OFFER OF $10,000 FOR DIRECTUM J., 2:01½, BY DOWN EAST HORSEMAN LOOKING FOR OPPONENT FOR JOHN R. BRADEN, 2:02½.

The closing of the summer section of the Maine and New Brunswick Circuit with the meeting at Fort Fairfield last week provided some new accomplishments in harness racing in the down East district that will make food for the gossip on the Hot Shoe Circuit this winter.

Nine meetings have been held since the "Curran Racer" at Fredericton on June 20th and July 1st, and for the first time in history there has been continuous racing without a lull of even a single week. Upwards of $27,000 has been distributed, and all but one or perhaps two of the meetings have been financially successful in spite of the fact that there is a general business depression all over the world and money is not being as generously spent for such purposes as a year or so ago.

The nine meetings that have been staged have taken place over the tracks of six of the members, and as a result all six tracks have new records, while the average time of the season's racing has far outstripped all previous performances. Of the six new track records, John R. Braden, 2:02½, owned by the Moosehead Club of Fredericton, set at Presque Isle, 2:02½, at Woodstock, 2:07½ (exhibition mile) at St. Stephen, 2:07½, at Houlton, 2:07½, at Presque Isle, Roy Volo, 2:08½, owned by W. Bert Lint, of Fredericton, reduced the Fredericton track record half a second when he won a race in 2:08½, and last week The Problem, 2:04½, owned by the Caribou Driving Club, in his first race for driver John Willard, reeled off miles in 2:11½, which gave a new track record to the Fort Fairfield track.

Some New Records.
The meeting at Fort Fairfield, like all the others on the circuit, provided a winrace record for at least one new standard performer. This time it was Confection, the rugged four-year-old pacing daughter of The Northern Man, which is owned by Charles F. DeWitt, of Bridgetown, N. S. She won her race in 2:17½ and gave an impressive performance under the direction of "Red" Hanafin, showing that in northern years when one were not going in 2:11 or 2:12 she would have been a good money getter. Baton, the converted Algonquin, which is being campaigned by his owner, A. M. Nason, of Monticello, Me., reduced his trotting record of 2:19½, made the previous week at Presque Isle, to 2:18½ in the fourth heat of a winning five-heat race. Donald Keith, the blind pacer that J. A. DeWitt of Presque Isle, picked up for $300 last winter, pulled his winrace record down another peg when College Swift, 2:11½, the Woodstock pacer, chased him out in 2:12½.

Don Q., 2:17½, another of Allie Nason's string, topped a summary for the first time this season in the final week of the summer section of the circuit, the son of Dan Q. Just equaling his winrace record of last year, which means he will go to time in the early stages of the event; but the fastest he had to go was 2:20½, although, Mune Man, Woodstock entry, had won the first heat in 2:18½ and Quindisette, a Fort Fairfield pacer, took the next one in the same time and a third a shade slower. Chines Tell, Jr., the big black trotter which John Willard has been bringing along in a promising manner, brought his record down to 2:18½, although he failed to win.

Many Horses Knocked Out.
At Fort Fairfield, as all the way along the circuit, there were a lot of split heat races, and as a result of this succession of grueling battles many of the most hardy and stout-hearted horses are among those which are feeling the effects of the strenuous campaign. Zom Q., 2:09½, which would always stand up and race week in and week out, is knocked out and may not race again this season, and so are many others, both trotters and pacers—all of which makes the horsemen wonder if the three best plus doesn't give horses just about all the racing they need if they are to stay up for a long and thus profitable campaign. There were smaller fields at Fort Fairfield than at any of the former meetings, partly because so many horses were knocked out and partly because in addition to the New Brunswick hordes that had strayed away to the Eastern Circuit, where the campaign was not as roscate as painted, a number of others had jumped to the early fair at Danforth, Me., where they had chances to start every day so long as it didn't rain—and some of them did it, too.

Disquieting reports as to the condition of Calgary Earl, the Houlton owned free for all, are being discussed. The most authentic seems to be that he is under treatment by a veterinarian for kidney trouble and may not be raced any more this season. If the doctor's orders are carried out. At the same time comes the story that $7,500 was offered for Directum J., 2:01½, by a "Down East" horseman who evidently figured he could beat John R. Braden, 2:02½, with him. The offer was refused and later increased to $10,000. It is said but then the reply was that Directum J. wasn't for sale at any price. The "black head" made a very promising start in the Grand Circuit free for all and would have provided some great races with "the little iron horse."—J. D. B.
