

April 16. raised upon the Legislature. His reply: The Legislature is not to be taken into consideration. He is not to be taken into consideration. He is not to be taken into consideration.

Corbit and Post Office at Cranville, Lot McCarty, of of. Power, of of his Excellency's House. Blue Book. April 17th.

for leave to and other in an Act to be passed on the 17th of April, 1866. I think there is no doubt that the people of this country are not to be taken into consideration.

Ann Dogherty, of divers in an amendment to the non-attendance of the other inhabitants, praying that the resolution of the House be not to be taken into consideration.

April 18th. Mr. Green, an inhabitant of the money may be taken into consideration. He is not to be taken into consideration.

April 19th. Mr. Green, an inhabitant of the money may be taken into consideration. He is not to be taken into consideration.

April 20th. Mr. Green, an inhabitant of the money may be taken into consideration. He is not to be taken into consideration.

April 21st. Mr. Green, an inhabitant of the money may be taken into consideration. He is not to be taken into consideration.

Supposing any of the gentlemen in Parliament now convened had in his employ, at a large salary, a person to manage his affairs, would he be pleased to give him a roving commission, and pay him for wandering over the face of the earth, doing no good, while a deputy, at a much lower salary, was capable of doing the work? We think not, and we are sure that a public servant has just as good a right to be faithful to the people whose money he takes; to give as good satisfaction for the money he receives, as the clerk of a banking institution, for instance, or a mechanic who undertakes to perform a certain quantity of work for a specified sum. If not, there would be some means taken to make him do so.

DELEGATED POWER. It is rumored that the Executive Government would be wholly facing the Confederation question, will, during the coming recess, assume the responsibility of appointing Delegates to proceed to England, and, in conjunction with delegates from the other Provinces, have passed through the Imperial Parliament an Act of Union of the British American Colonies, founded upon the Quebec Scheme, from which there will be no appeal to the people. We should not be surprised if this plot against the people's rights and privileges were carried out. We have seen quite a number of extraordinary things done by the present Government on the plea that the Executive is all-powerful, and that whatever it pleases during the recess or non-sitting of the Legislature, Delegates were appointed to proceed to Quebec in the fall of 1864, to change the existing constitution of the British North American Colonies, who had no more right or power to go there, in so far as they were empowered by the Legislature to go, than we had. A lot of stupid fellows, who call M. P. P. to their names, acquiesced, as a matter of course, in this outrageous doctrine and flagrant infringement of popular rights. Upon the same plea, Mr. Secretary Pope was despatched by express to Halifax, upon the congenial business of ordering in troops to quell disturbances which originated from his own Fifteen Years' Purchase Bill, and from the incapacity of the Executive, and £15,000 is believed, were extracted from the public chest to defray the cost connected therewith. Most of that money apparently went for erecting buildings, the greater portion of which were not put up to public tender, but into the pockets of the Superintendent of Public Works—an officer whose duty to the Colony is to deprive him from having any transaction in the matter further than to see that the work was faithfully executed. We have used the word opportunity in connection with the Superintendent, because it is pretty generally believed that a fair share of the amount which he received went to a leading member of the Executive, who appeared to be a partner in the matter; and yet a certain number of independent, intelligent and honorable members voted with the Government and justified these acts, which had evoked a yell of execration from East Point to North Cape. Shall we be surprised, therefore, if the Government, with these precedents so lately established and justified, and having in its councils some three or four—being at most meetings of the Executive Board a majority of—"red-hot" unionists, and supported by a number of partisans and, at least, one rotten Liberal outside, should assume the very slight responsibility of sending delegates home to deprive the Colonies of their constitutional and political independence, but which would secure to themselves titles and fat offices at Ottawa? Not at all, and we verily believe, from what we have already seen, that a majority of our present House of Assembly would justify the act. But "we shall see what we shall see."

NEW BRUNSWICK. This excitement in this Province at the arbitrary and unconstitutional conduct of Governor Gordon, who, in reply to the minute of resignation of his late Executive, has been proven by the Hon. Mr. Smith to have stated direct falsehoods in his attempt to justify himself, and also to have been guilty of the disreputable act of forgery—or, in other words, of materially altering a public paper, previous to publication—terminated in St. John last week, when, after a few hours' notice only, a monster meeting was held in the Mechanics' Hall, to discuss the subject. Upwards of one thousand persons were present who unanimously concurred in presenting the Hon. Mr. Smith with an address, voluntarily signed by five hundred persons in the course of one afternoon, thanking him and his colleagues for the noble stand they have taken in defence of the liberties of the Province. In the event of a general election, it is believed the Mitchell Provisional Government will be hurled from the place and power they have so basely usurped. In the meantime, however, in the face of the general and deep discontent prevailing, and to save themselves from a prompt and certain defeat, which awaits them at the hands of the existing House of Assembly, the Legislature has been further prorogued until June, and, indeed, from a consideration of all the circumstances of the case, we doubt if the existing Legislature will ever be called together again. Confederation must be carried within a few weeks, if carried at all; and the Canadian plan of appointing delegates to summarize the affair, will doubtless be put in operation before the people or their representatives can prevent it. We hope we may be mistaken, but such is our opinion, which, if realized, ought to ensure for a betrayed people that condemn punishment upon these Confederate gentlemen which their treachery demands. Liberty—constitutional liberty—the only the watchword and the battle-cry of the anti-Confederates in New Brunswick, and the cry will be echoed with terrible significance throughout the Maritime Provinces, if their liberty and independence shall be compassed by Canadian gold and treachery. It is instructive to observe how recent some quondam Liberal organs are upon this infraction, by Governor Gordon, of the principles of Responsible Government. Tempera sustentat, but the lesson should not be lost on the people.

Just as we were going to press, a fire broke out in the shop of Messrs. H. E. Starbird & Co., hardware merchants, Queen-street. Owing to the quantity of inflammable material in the place, the engine, though quickly on the spot, could not extinguish the flames. It and the adjoining dry goods shop of Mr. LePage, in the same building, must be totally consumed. The fire, we understand, originated in a can of kerosene oil being upset near a lighted candle. We sympathize with those who have suffered loss.—Fat.

CONFEDERATION—THE FLAG OF THE NEW NATION. We find the following suggestive paragraph in a late exchange paper. God help the people who may have to depend upon such a flag for protection:—"The 'Gazette' states that the Canadian Government has adopted a distinctive flag for the use of the Provincial Navy intended for the protection of the fisheries; and that it is composed of a wreath of maple leaves surrounding the Beaver, and surmounted by the British Crown. This design was originally composed by Sir Etienne Tache. A copy of it has been forwarded to the Admiralty in London."

ON our last page will be found a second letter from the Hon. Mr. Howe to the people of Nova Scotia. We need scarcely bespeak for it a careful perusal. On the same page we have also commenced to "advertise" the extended debates of the House of Assembly—the more important of which we will endeavor to give with as little delay as possible; but we trust that in doing so, the House will allow us some remuneration.

A good citizen and an honest man has passed from our midst, in the person of the late Robert Hutchinson, Esquire, whose death will be found in today's paper. He filled several public and important positions—such as Magistrate, Legislative Councillor, and Mayor of Charlottetown with credit to himself. He was charitable and hospitable, and his memory will long live in this community, where he was widely known and highly esteemed.

Some of the traitors to the people in Nova Scotia have been hanged and burned in effigy, and the regret seems to be that the interesting ceremony did not take place in propria persona.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Diarrhoea and Bowel Complaints.—These mischiefs are ever present, and if untreated, frequently terminate fatally. It should be every where known that both cholera and diarrhoea depend on the presence of some indigestible substance in the stomach, or bowels, or some deleterious matter in the blood, and that Holloway's Pills can expel either with ease and expedition. They concentrate in a surprising degree purifying, alterative, regulating and strengthening qualities, and thus exert over every internal organ the wholesome controlling influence so necessary for subduing excessive action in the human frame.
