Two young fellows immediately jumped into a boat which was near, and succeeded in rescuing the lad, and none too soon as they had barely secured their boat to the wharf and jumped out when the steamer Florenceville came along. There is no doubt that the lad would have been drowned had it not been for their prompt action.

MILITIA CAMP.—Enquiries made by THE HERALD reporter, resulted in the information that the brigade camp for New Brunswick would without a doubt be held either at St. Andrews or Sussex this season, none of the other sites named being deemed suitable. Fredericton would stand an excellent chance for the lack of proper grounds, the race-course at the back of town being too swampy and it being impossible to secure the lands of senator O'Dell, above the city, for that purpose.

SPORTS OF THE SEASON.

The Very Latest in Base Ball, Athletic and Turf Circles.

ON THE PLATS.
"Joe Katmon striker" comes the call; Joe sauntered to the plate, and he takes a hitch in his overall, And grins with joy late.

The first base secures his hard right hand, The coacher's law unlocks, As the dandiest player in the land Stands up in his well-darned socks.

"Bang!" goes the ball at a fearful pace, And the coons all roar and rock, As Joe scoots by the second base And sheds a well-worn sock.

He drops the other as he flies, His spindlers snap and go, But now he's on the plate and cries—"Dat's me; score dat for Joe!"

The Halifax Socials and Mutuals have arranged a series of games.

The University and Infantry school nines are playing a return match at the association grounds this afternoon.

MASONIC G. AND LODGE.

The Grand Master and Officers Pay an Official Visit to Hiram Lodge of Fredericton.

Grand master Thomas Walker, attended by officers of grand lodge, F. and A. M. of New Brunswick, paid an official visit to Hiram lodge of this city on Wednesday evening. Grand lodge was composed as follows: Thomas Walker, grand master; Harry Beckwith, as deputy grand master; George Todd, as senior grand warden; Daniel Jordan, junior grand warden; Frank Taft, as grand treasurer; Jas. Black, grand steward; R. W. L. Tibbitts, grand steward.

On their entrance to the lodge the grand master and his officers were greeted with the customary welcome by worshipful master Morrison and Hiram lodge. Grand master Walker responded to the welcome and extended his congratulations to the lodge.

The E. A. degree was then exemplified by the officers of Hiram lodge before grand lodge. When the labors had been concluded the members of the craft adjourned to the Barker House where they partook of a supper.

The following is the bill of fare, which was discussed by the brethren with enthusiasm:

Harry B. Atherton, the popular book-keeper of Hoegg & Co., has been laid up since a severe attack of grip combined with quinsy. He is now much better.

THE LAST REMAINS.—A large and eager crowd occupied the eastern half of Phoenix square, Thursday afternoon, and listened to the thrilling oration of architect Wetmore. The harness and apparatus connected with the late lamented Gunboat and his companions at the horse-race were being disposed of. The jokes of the auctioneer were, in some cases, worse than the goods which aroused his eloquence. Anything that ever belonged to a horse, or the small as it is called, will attract the Fredericton horse-craze to the scene, and they were all there their profanity of wisdom only equalled by their impetuosity.

AMOR DAY.—Yesterday (Friday) was Arbor day in this district. Comparatively few trees were set out in the city. Principally, Inch, York street school, took his pupils on a botanical ramble. If, as stated to our reporter, the children attended several of the city schools were employed yesterday in cleaning up the rooms and washing the windows, the practice is one that should be discontinued.

A PILGRIMAGE.—The Maine Farmer says that the Trinity Commandery, Royal Templars, contemplate making a June pilgrimage to Bangor, Houlton and up the beautiful valley of the St. John to Northbrook. No doubt Fredericton will have the pleasure of a visit from them on the way.

A RAMBLE IN THE WOODS.—Mr. Britain, of the Normal school staff, makes Saturday mornings pass very pleasantly for a great many of the students of that school. Every Saturday he takes all who wish to go out in the country on a ramble, and many of the students avail themselves of the opportunity.

CAVED.—Three burglars, supposed to be from St. John, are in jail at Woodstock for robbing Trearntin's hotel at upper Woodstock. One of them was accidentally shot by Marshall Gibson, while the arrest was being made, but not seriously. There were four in the gang one of whom escaped.

THEY WANT PANCAKES.—A party from Woodstock, N. B., are talking of coming out to Bath Columbia on a pleasure trip. Ex-ald. Gardien's brother will be the party and writes James F. to give the Vancouver hotel warning to lay in a big supply of buckwheat.—Vancouver World.
