THE MORRISON TRAGEDY.

What the Unhappy Man Said in Reply to Dr. Norten. SHELBURNE, Ont., April 27.—Never since

All this was done without any conceivable cause. The murderer—he cannot be called by any choicer name—was in his right mind on Saturday and said he wished to make his will. This was said to his medical attendant,

Dr. Norton. The doctor asked him how many he had to provide for. Morrison said: "There are only three now, my wife and Alexander and Sadie."
"What about the three little children?"

said the doctor.

He said: "They are dead; did you no show them to me show them to me?"

Your reporter was present to-day when Dr. Norton tried to get Morrison to tell something about the "tragedy. He is very weak, but per celly conscious of all that takes place around him. He stated to-day that he had no recollection of committing the deed. When asked if it could have been done by any one else he replied to be thought not. He one else he replied, no, he thought not. He states that he remembers nothing about Mr. Lindsey being in his place on Wednesday evening. On being asked if it had ever occurred to him that the three youngest children would be a burden to his wife in case of his death, he replied that he had thought

"Did it ever occur to you," said the doctor, "that it would be much better for the little ones if they were out of the way?"
"Yes," he answered; he had thought of

ST. GEORGE RAILWAY TRIAL. A Rev. Gentleman Whose Conduct was no

Characterized by Prudence. TORONTO, April 27.-The jury returned a verdict in the great St. George accident trial on Thursday last. Some 41 questions were submitted by the judge and on the answers re turned counsel will argue as to whose the verdict should be. Each side claims that the smallest, Cheapest, Easiest to take. Smallest, Cheapest, Easiest to take. Smallest rather against the Grand Trunk, in that it definitely states that the tire on the engine was too thin, that the speed of the leans rather against the Grand Trunk, in that it definitely states that the tire on the engine was too thin, that the speed of the train was too great, and that the brakes were not applied soon enough. The first and the last statements were ones that could only be made after careful consideration of the evidence submitted to the court, but there has certainly been a feeling throughout the community, ever since the disaster, that the speed of the train, at the time of the accident, was too great.

amined the charges against Rev. Dr. Stone returned the following finding:—"In the case of Rev. James Smith against Rev. D. Stone, charging him with imprudent conduct intending immorality, the committee, after careful investigation of the case, find that the charges ing immorality, the committee, after careful investigation of the case, find that the charge of conduct intending immorality is not sustained. But in the judgement of this committee Dr. Stone's conduct in this matter was not characterised by the prudence and wisdom that should mark the deportment of a Christian with a deportment of a christian with the charge of dom that should mark the deportment of a Christian minister." Dr. Stone himself ad-mitted on examination that he had kissed Mrs. Jennings' hand. He meant nothing by it but in his free, openhearted, sympathetic way was trying to smooth over the domestic broils between Mrs. Jennings and her bus-band. He felt deeply interested in both of them and wished to restore peace and harmony in the family. On the other hand, 5th con, of Hullett have just been sold. CUPID'S HARNESS.

Most women naturally look forward to matrimony as their proper sphere in life, but they should constantly bear in mind that a fair, rosy face, bright eyes, and a healthy, well-developed form, are the best passports to a happy marriage. All those wasting disorders, weaknesses, and functional irregularities peculiar to their sex, destroy beauty and attractiveness and make life miserable. An unfailing specific for these maladies is to be found in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is the only medicine for women, sold by druggrists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. This guarantee has been printed on the bottle-wrappers, and faithfully carried out for many years. $1.00 per Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.00.
