

WITH THE FARMERS

WHERE ALBERTA FAIR FAILED

W. F. Stevens, live stock commissioner has returned from the Dominion fair at Calgary and has some interesting comments to make on the impression which the fair made there. "Alberta beef cattle were rather conspicuous by their absence," said Stevens, "and it was a slight disappointment to me that some of the breeders who have championed the cause behind them and are in the business for pleasure rather than profit." Mr. Stevens felt that there was a slight foundation for this, especially in the Shorthorn class, for the judges had stated that the Alberta stock shown compared very favorably in points of breeding and quality with their competitors and it was only in the matter of fitting that they fell short.

Asked as to what extent the fair would lead to the improvement of Alberta live stock, he said that he had made a calculation as to the number of animals brought from the east and sold to western stockmen for breeding purposes. Only the best of the breed did he find that extensive purchases had been made. Most of these were family cows and steers of them named to Edmonton. The only purchases for breeding purposes were made by himself and C. A. Sherman, of Red Deer. Mr. Stevens bought a cow and a heifer, and Mr. Sherman bought three cows and one bull, which had been imported from Jersey Island.

Noticably among the horses, continued Mr. Stevens, were the Suffolk bunches, owned by Norman Jacques, of Stettler. Mr. Jacques this import of nine of these horses this year and has several of them in his ranch near Stettler. A number have been sold to ranchers throughout the province. Mr. Jacques also exhibited Suffolk horses, which he has imported this year. The Jacques have gone into this breed extensively and think that the horse and sheep industry offer better advantages for investment than anything else. The combative nature of the Suffolk sheep is said to be so strong that they have been known to fend themselves against stray dogs and coyotes.

SATURDAY'S GRAIN MARKETS.

Winnipeg, July 12.—Cables closed 1/2 to 3/4 higher yesterday. This advance and the dry weather through the wheat belt caused a strong opinion in American markets that the crop, October export 80% to 90% in sympathy but with very little trading, sold down to 82%. Close was around low point. It is nothing more than a hot market. Very little is doing for export in wheat. Oats are showing some strength, especially in receipts. Receipts are decreasing some.
