

A Bright, Prosperous and Happy New Year.

In presenting this our final ad. for 1912 we take this opportunity to thank our many patrons for their attendance at our Regular Sales, and to those and the general public we wish a Bright, Prosperous and Happy New Year. 1912 being our initial year in starting Friday and Saturday Sales, and seeing the results that have accrued therefrom, and the unrelaxing crowd of satisfied customers, it only spurs us on to more strenuous efforts for 1913.

TWO THINGS TO BEAR IN MIND.
To keep faith with our customers we make it a point always to state the truth about each article offered.
To keep faith with ourselves we always confine our dealings to goods of undoubted merit.

Obituary.

THOMAS C. DUDER.

We note with deep regret the passing of Thomas C. Duder, Stipendiary Magistrate at Bonne Bay, which occurred yesterday morning after a prolonged illness, death being due to heart failure. Mr. Duder was sixty-two years of age. He was born in St. John's on April 15th, 1850. He was educated at the Wesleyan Academy where the Methodist College now stands. After leaving school he entered the office of his uncle, the late Edwin Duder. He was appointed agent for the firm at Fogo when 21 years of age. Subsequently he conducted an extensive and successful business on his own account. He was appointed a J.P. in 1875. He was a successful candidate in the 1893 election for the Greive-Monroe Party and during the Goodridge Government was Financial Secretary in 1894. Three years later he was nominated by the late Sir James Winter to the Ministry of Mines and Agriculture. He withdrew from political activity in 1900 and was appointed to the office he held until his death, viz. Stipendiary Magistrate of Bonne Bay, shortly afterwards. The deceased was twice married, first to Miss J. Haddon, daughter of the Inspector of Protestant Schools, and leaves a widow, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Hall, one son, Mr. Henry Duder, of the Surveyor General's Department and two daughters, Mrs. Harvey Jardine, of St. John's, and Miss Mildred Duder, of the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. Messrs. Chas. R. and William Duder, of this city, are brothers. The deceased was a member of the Masonic fraternity for 40 years, was also a prominent and devoted adherent of the Methodist Church and was a man of genial and kindly temperament, a faithful friend and worthy citizen. The sorrowing widow and family have our deepest sympathy in their bereavement. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon from the residence of his son, Monkstown Road.

MRS. ELEANOR CALLAHAN.

A very estimable and respected lady died yesterday morning at her residence Water Street West, in the person of Mrs. Eleanor Callahan, widow of the late James J. Callahan, who had been ill for several months past, bore her sufferings with Christian fortitude. She was a lady of kindly and affable manner and her death will be the cause of sincere sorrow to a large circle of friends. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Jas. Callahan, of Shea & Co's. office, Mr. Fred Callahan, grocer, and three daughters, Mrs. W. J. McKay, Mrs. John Bogan and Mrs. Chas. J. Ellis. To the bereaved family the Telegram extends its condolence.

JOHN POWER.

The death occurred on Saturday, of an old and respected resident of Bond Street, after a brief illness, in the person of Mr. John Power. Deceased was an employee of Job Bros. for many years. On Christmas Eve, he contracted a heavy cold. Acute pneumonia followed and the end came. He is survived by one daughter, two sons, one sister and a large number of nieces and nephews. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family.

Supreme Court.

IN CHAMBERS.

The Fishermen's Union Trading Co., Ltd., vs. The 'Chronicle' Publishing Co., Ltd.

This was an application on the part of the defendants for leave to amend the statement of defence filed by them. Howley, K.C., moves for leave to amend; Kent, K.C., consents. It was ordered that the defendant have leave to amend the statement of defence and that the costs of the amendment be paid to the plaintiffs.

Immensity of London.

Its Vastness Revealed in Recent Figures of London County Council.

The immensity of the world's greatest city is strikingly illustrated by the facts and figures published recently in a report on London life issued by the London Council. It is estimated that for the privilege of keeping about 180,000 dogs Londoners pay $205,000. Altogether no less than $7,000,000 is paid every week in rent, and $5,000,000,000 worth of property belonging to Londoners is insured.

It is remarkable that while fifty years ago only half the people living in London were born in the capital, to-day we are approaching the time when three-quarters of the population of London are natives. The figures being 68 per 1,000. Most people are under the impression as they notice the new streets of houses going up in all directions in the metropolis that London is growing bigger every day, but as a matter of fact, last year $25,000,000 less was spent on house building than in 1902.
