One Way to Rise.

BY RUTH CAMERON.

There are some things which one can take from one's neighbor without robbing him, and yet thereby make one's self richer. Outspoken advice is one of these things; another vastly more important is that silent advice which a good man's character or a successful man's act always give to him who is alert to receive it.

All successful men now-a-days are asked by eager interviewers to tell exactly how they made their successes. None of them can do that. But few manage to give some useful suggestions. A certain well-known newspaper man who has climbed to dizzy heights in his profession in a very few years said that he thought what small success he had attained (how hard these big men try to be modest) was won by doing just what the interviewer was doing—that is, finding out how other men had succeeded.

"Only I didn't say anything to them about it," he explained. "I studied it out for myself. From the time I was a eub I made it my business to study the man ahead of me until I found out the qualities that boosted him along, and then to do what I could to copy these qualities. My first city editor wasn't an all-round newspaper man, but he was a wizard at managing men. He didn't know it, but I elected him my professor of psychology and studied under him for six months. "Another editor that I worked under later was no good at handling men, but he had that sixth sense that all good newspaper men must have. I made him my professor in the art of recognizing news, and his job was eventually offered to me because I had his good quality plus the other man's ability to handle men.

"Every successful man has one or more qualities that have put him where he is. Any young man who will study his employer to find out how he got to the top, instead of envying him, has a good chance of getting to the top himself if he has any brains."

I think I would make this man's statement even broader. Not only every successful man, but every man or woman has some admirable quality, some peculiar ability. As we pass through life, each of us in the different relations existence—home, business, society, school, etc.—comes into close contact with a great many people. Let's remember that each of these is capable of teaching us something if we will only be humble and wise enough to learn it.

HAPPY THO' MARRIED?

There are unhappy married lives, but a large percentage of these unhappy homes are due to the illness of the wife, mother or daughter. The feelings of nervousness, the befogged mind, the ill-temper, the pale and wrinkled face, hollow and circled eyes, result most often from those disorders peculiar to women. For the woman to be happy and good-looking the most naturally have good health. Dragging-down feelings, hysteria, hot-flashes or constantly returning pains and aches—are too great a drain upon a woman's vitality and strength. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription restores weak and sick women to sound health by regulating and correcting the local disorders which are generally responsible for the above distressing symptoms.

Mrs. Dickover.

"I suffered greatly for a number of years and for the past three years was so bad that life was a misery to me," writes Mrs. E. F. Dickover, of Utica, Ohio, Route 4. "The doctors told me I would have to go to a hospital before I would ever be better. A year ago this winter and spring I was worse than ever before. At each period I suffered like one in torment. I am the mother of six children. I was so bad for five months that I knew something must be done, so I wrote to Dr. V. Pierce, telling him as nearly as I could how I suffered. He outlined a course of treatment which I followed to the letter. I took two bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and a 25-cent bottle of 'Smart-Weed,' and have never suffered such a stroke. I wish I could tell every suffering woman the world over what a boon Dr. Pierce's medicine is. There is no use wasting time and money doctoring with anything else or any one else."

The Medical Adviser by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y., answers hosts of delicate questions about which every woman, single or married ought to know. Sent free on receipt of 50 stamps to pay for wrapping and mailing only.

Amazing feats of Airmen

Sablating Saved His Life by Climbing Out of His Machine and Operating the Planes with His Hands.

If an airman once loses control of his machine his fate is as good as sealed. Yet there are some men so plucky, so wonderfully full of resource, that even in the most awful

Exhausted Nerves Sleepless Nights

Continually Grow Worse Until Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restored Vigor and Strength.

Mrs. Campbell.

What misery to lie awake nights and think of all sorts of things without being able to get the rest and sleep which is necessary to restore the nervous energy wasted in the tasks of the day.

This symptom of sleeplessness is one of the surest indications of an exhausted nervous system. You must have sleep or a breakdown is certain. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food feeds the feeble, wasted nerves back to health and strength. In a few days you obtain the natural, restful sleep which helps so materially in restoring vitality to the nerves and strength to the whole body.

Mrs. Sarah Campbell, 108 Alma street, St. Thomas, Ont., writes: "For months I was so bothered with nervousness that I could not sleep nights. There were other symptoms of exhausted nerves, but none caused so much misery, and I found myself continually getting worse. "I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it was not long before I noticed great improvement in my health. It built up the nervous system wonderfully, strengthened the nerves and enabled me to rest and sleep well."

dilemmas they never lose their heads, but will snatch at any desperate chance and somehow manage to come out unhurt.

Sablating is such a man. In July last he was flying with a passenger and had reached a height of fully a thousand feet when a gust caught his plane. There was a sharp snap. One of the levers controlling the planes had broken.

Such an accident usually spells death. The moment control of the planes is lost the machine is at the mercy of every puff. It may plunge downwards or lift upwards. It is bound to fall.

Sablating acted on the instant. Scrambling swiftly out of his seat, he crept forward and operated the planes directly by hand. The machine veered swiftly earthwards, but though it was smacked on landing neither of the men was hurt.

Captain Matland, one of our own army flying men, owed his life on one occasion to his own presence of mind. Two summers ago he made a first flight in a new Farman biplane across Salisbury Plain. When about fifty feet from the ground his foot slipped and struck the rudder lever. Instantly the machine turned and dropped like a stone.

Stood up to Avoid Death.

Captain Matland made one frantic effort to right the machine, realized that it was too late, then sprang to his feet, and standing up like the captain of a sinking ship, struck the ground, feet first. Had it not been for his promptitude, he would have been buried under the wreck of his machine and most certainly killed. As it was, it was his ankles only that suffered. One was broken, the other dislocated. Otherwise he was unhurt.

One of the Egbert brothers, acrobats, was on the top of a coach near Liverpool when a wheel came off and the vehicle upset. It came quite natural to him to wait till the coach was half over, then jump wide, landing safely on his feet. It was exactly in this fashion that the well-known airwoman, Madame de Laroche, saved her life at Rheims. Her machine was brought down by the "wash" of another aeroplane passing too close, and she managed to keep her head and jump clear.

Monsieur Le Blon, by his quickness and cleverness, on one occasion, saved not only his own life, but those of a number of other people.

Jumped His Machine Like a Hurdler. This was at the Doncaster flying week three years ago. It may be remembered that the weather was very bad. Le Blon was flying in a gale when a heavy gust of wind surging behind the monoplane swung it broad side on, heading off to the right.

He tried to regain his line of flight, but the machine refused to come round. Then he descended quickly. But by this time he was almost on the rails bordering the course. He touched earth at forty miles an hour. Immediately in front were the white posts and rails fronted by a ditch. Le Blon was equal to the occasion. He jerked forward his elevating lever, and like a horse rising at a fence the plane jerked forward and over the obstacle. But now a worse peril confronted him. He found himself charging at the speed of an express train straight for the packed ranks of spectators.

Again he threw himself on his steering column, and swung it over, leaning his body forward. With a great swoop the plane again leaped into the air. So close was it to the crowd that the wind of its passage sent hats flying this way and that. But it rose—rose to fifty feet and then came hurtling down. The wheels crumpled, the propeller flew to fragments. But no one was hurt.

I Don't Think.

Yolite Doctor: "Your husband, madam, is suffering either from overwork or excessive indulgence in alcoholic stimulants; it is difficult to say which."

Anxious Wife: "Oh, I'm sure it's overwork! Why, he can't even go to the theatre without hurrying out half a dozen times to see one of his partners."

Quickly Cures the Worst Backache.

Makes Kidney Troubles, Bladder Disorders, and Rheumatic Pains Vanish.

It is no longer necessary for any one to suffer with backaching, kidney trouble, have disagreeable bladder and urinary disorders to contend with, or be tortured with rheumatism, stiff joints, and its heart-wrenching pains, for the new discovery, Croxone, quickly and surely relieves all such troubles.

Croxone is the most wonderful remedy yet devised for ridding the system of uric acid and driving out all the poisonous impurities which cause such troubles. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. It acts on the principle of cleaning out the poisons and removing the cause.

It soaks right in through the walls, membranes and linings, like water in a sponge, neutralizes, dissolves, and makes the kidneys sift out and filter away all the uric acid and poisons from the blood, and leaves the kidneys and urinary organs, clean, strong, healthy and well.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what you have used; the very principle of Croxone is such, that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it.

If you suffer with pains in your back, and sides, or have any signs of kidney, bladder troubles, or rheumatism, such as puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, if you are nervous, tired, and run down, or bothered with urinary disorders, Croxone will quickly relieve you of your misery. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.
