Gas, it may be said, vitiates the atmosphere. True. But it also helps to purify it. Its purifying power is greater than its vitiating power Electricity does not vitiate, nor does it purify. Hear what three eminen men have said:-

Much evidence has lately been adduced to show that gas is more usefulthan the electric light in promoting efficient ventilation of air. It is for this amongst other reasons, that gas is being frequently substituted for the electric light. The latest example is, per haps, the Society of Medical Officers o Health, which has recently installed gas on its premises, after experience paper, stop here and note that we with the electric light .- Dr. Jamies

At the City Hall. No ALUM New Cardinals.

One of Foreigners Will be a Canadian. London, Nov. 15 .- Referring to the next consistory, the Catholic Times says: -"Strangely enough, though death has reduced the membership of the sacred college to fifty-eight, and with at least three cardinals in bad health and two others past eightyfour years of age, rumor is very chary about the conferring of new red hats.

"Only two Italians and two foreigners, it is said, will be elevated among the former being the former Papal Legate to Canada, Monsigneur Sbaretti, who is now secretary of the sacred congregation of rites.

The other Italian is Monsigneur Lafontaine, Titular Bishop of Cariisto. The foreigners will be a Canadian and a Mexican.

"Whether Quebec or Montreal wil

The Ballot.

By GEORGE FITCH,

Author of "At Good Old Siwash." Like other weapons, it is most dangerous to its owner when it isn't caded. So long as the common citizen teeps charging indignantly around with his ballot in his hand he is treatwhen he lingers at home on election lay and toasts his toes at the fire while the hosts of evil hunt for votes with automobiles, his ballot withers and his power with it. And when h calls at the city hall to ask why h has been assessed for a paymen which has been put in an alderman's pocket he receives the rude guffaw t say nothing of a punch in the back 'rom a policeman's club.

The ballot makes our president and governors and congressmen and aldermen and fustices of the peace and oundmasters. However, the ballot is not entirely to blame for what hapens. A ballot must be used with intelligence just like a hair brush or a garden hose or a collar button. If some men put as much brains and careful thought into voting as they do their kids; but I hope you're doing into pushing a lawnmower the nation would get better results.

ine in this country, Emmaline, and The ballot is the precious possession of every freeborn citizen. No matter how small or insignificant the makes him, for one day at least, as big as any other citizen. For months and years he may suffer under his wrongs without sympathy or remedy.
