The First Nfld.

Casualty List.

Twelve months ago to-day the first contingent of the Newfoundland Regiment left by the Florizel for England. This contingent was made up of Companies A and B. Since that time three other companies have been sent across, and the first four companies forming a complete battalion have now been doing duty for a fortnight at the region around Suva Bay on the Gallipoli Peninsula. Company E is at the Newfoundland Depot at Ayr in Scotland, and Companies F and G are now under training here in St. John's. Of those who left three have died of disease in the hospitals, two in Scotland, Privates Chaplin and Brien, and one in Egypt, Private Ebsary. Amongst those who landed in the fighting zone a fortnight ago, six have been wounded. Capt. Walter F. Rendell, the Adjutant of the Regiment, the report about who came from himself at the Blue Sisters Hospital, Malta, Lieut. Rendell, reported a few days later, and reports about four privates, Shea, England, Tibbs and Reggs, received on Saturday afternoon by the Governor from Capt. Timewell, at the Newfoundland Record Office in London. Fortunately there are no deaths to record on the list of our casualties at the Suva front.

Yesterday, however, a message was received by Mrs. T. A. McNab, that her brother, 2nd Lieutenant Gordon, who enlisted with the Newfoundland Regiment, while on a holiday here last summer, and who later obtained a commission in the Gordon Highlanders, had been killed in action. He is one of a number of Newfoundlanders, who were members of fighting units other than the Newfoundland Regiment, who have given their lives that their country might triumph over the enemy of civilization. News also comes of the wounding of a young man, Mr. James Grieve, not a Newfoundland, but closely connected with Newfoundland, a nephew of Mr. Walter Baine Grieve, in whose office he worked on Water Street. Being in Scotland when the war broke out, he offered his services and has now been wounded a second time.

Dr. Geisel's Lectures.

On Saturday afternoon Dr. Geisel lectured to an audience of women only at the Casino, and at night to a mixed audience taking as her subject: "Digestion and Education." His lecture yesterday was the Governor presiding, and a large gathering was present. Dr. Geisel gave an interesting description of the experiments conducted by Prof. Pavlov, of St. Petersburg, in his work of fighting dyspepsia, of which they are said to be no less than 28 kinds. The experiments were made with dogs, whose stomachs are very much like ours, and went to show that many of the ills arising from improper digestion are preventable. Proper mastication of the food stimulates the flow of the gastric juices so necessary to digestion, while neglect to use the teeth is followed by fermentation in the stomach, and numerous other ills. Next to fresh air, said Dr. Geisel, good digestion is the greatest antidote to Tuberculosis, and figures show that it has helped greatly in many cases. The lecturer condemned the use of mustard, pepper and ginger because they are of no food value, and result in the destruction of the gastric glands. Alcohol in all forms causes gastritis and cancer of the stomach and figures show that 98 per cent of the drunkards treated at Le Grain's clinic in Paris have inflamed stomachs. Intemperance in eating should be avoided, and it is very injurious to finish a meal of several courses with ice. In the matter of taking liquids with food Dr. Geisel says that one cup of hot liquid is sufficient at a meal and that the liquid should be sipped. A vote of thanks proposed by His Lordship Bishop Jones, and seconded by Mr. A. McDougall was accorded the lecturer by acclamation.

At yesterday afternoon's lecture which was for men only the subject of the address was "Alcohol." His Lordship Bishop Jones presided, and with him on the platform were Revs. Dr. Jones, Dr. Curtis, J. Brinton, Hon. D. Morison, A. B. Morine, M. H. A. W. F. Coaker, M. H. A., W. J. Ellis, W. White and H. J. Crowe. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity with a representative gathering of citizens, and the lecture was followed with the closest interest throughout. In eloquent language Dr. Geisel showed how the organs of the body are injured by alcohol even when taken moderately, and illustrated her remarks with charts. She dwelt at length upon the effects of alcohol on the physical and mental system and emphasized the fact that consequent evils are transmitted by parents to their offspring. In conclusion she made a strong plea for the removal of alcohol from our midst, particularly because sturdy men and women are needed to maintain and continue the race which will suffer severely by the loss of so much of the best brain and muscle in the present great war. At the close a vote of thanks proposed by Rev. Dr. Curtis and seconded by Rev. Dr. Jones was accorded to Dr. Geisel by acclamation.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock Dr. Geisel lectures on "Self Poison" and to-night at 8.30 on "That Blot on the Brain."

MAN MISSING.—A man named Edward Coleman left his home on Field Street Saturday morning last and has not been heard of since. His absence has been reported to the police who are now making enquiries for his whereabouts. There is a theory that he left here on a steamer. Coleman has a wife and several children.

"They Also Serve"

When the war broke out in 1914 and volunteers were asked for here, no one responded more readily than Frank Watts, a smart young chap of the city, and prominent in the Highland Brigade. He went over with the First Contingent, every inch a fine good-humoured, jolly young soldier. He enjoyed the drilling on the other side, and no one looked forward more than he for the time to "move on," but alas, in the examination which took place before sailing for Egypt, it was found that an old trouble in his side needed another operation before the doctors would pass him. Those who know him can realize what poignant disappointment was his in not proceeding with his friends. He is with F Company now at Ayr, still eager to "do his bit," and his many friends will be glad when he is fully well again. His mother, a resident in the East End, has also given, we believe, two other sons for the King's service.

The Christian Doctrine Society.

The annual meeting of the Christian Doctrine Society of St. Patrick's took place after last Mass yesterday. The election of officers for the ensuing year was conducted by Mr. A. W. O'Reilly, and resulted in the return of the old board as follows:—

President—J. P. Flynn.
Vice-Pres.—J. Scurry.
Asst. V. P.—P. Murphy.
Treasurer—F. J. Callahan.
Secretary—D. Scurry.

The reports submitted from the various departments showed the society to be in a flourishing condition the number of members having increased substantially during the past year.

Miss Carberry's Remains Arrive

There arrived here from the Old Country by the S. S. Durango Saturday night the mortal remains of Miss Carberry, who was a passenger on board the ill-fated liner Hesperian and who died as the result of shock. The corpse, which was embalmed and enclosed in a handsome casket, was taken to the residence of her nephew, Dr. Scully, Duckworth Street, followed by a large number of mourners. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning to the train. Interment will be at Harbor Grace.

Our Volunteers.

On Saturday the following young men enlisted, bringing the total number of enrolments up to 2353:—

Alfred Walsh, St. John's.
Michael Kane, St. John's.
Jno. Jos. Rogers, St. John's.
Samuel Bishop, Kelligrews.

During the day a Company was for a tramp countrywards.

S. S. Durango From Liverpool

The Furness Liner Durango, 9 days from Liverpool, reached port Saturday night. Favourable weather was experienced during the trip. She brought 256 packages of mail matter and these passengers: Jos. Flett, R. Grant, A. Smallwood and Pte. J. Reid. She also brought 1500 tons of cargo, which is principally autumn goods for our large business houses. The Durango sails again for Halifax to-morrow evening.

Bad Weather Interrupts Eishery.

By the Fortia we learn that fishing operations on the South West Coast has been practically suspended for the past fortnight, owing to adverse weather. The smaller bankers which are "finishing up" on the St. Mary's and Cape Pine grounds could not do any fishing of late and every day had to run for shelter out of the storms that raged.

Presentation.

On Saturday last the volunteers who recently returned from the northward where they had been doing special service, presented Chief Instructor O'Grady with a handsome silver cigarette case and fountain pen as an appreciation of his interest in them while on service. The presentation was made by Sgt. R. B. Murrell on behalf of the men, and Instructor O'Grady made a very pleasing speech in reply.

Church Parade.

The volunteers of G Company held their regular Church parade yesterday, attending Divine Service at the R. C. Cathedral, St. Thomas's and Wesley Church, respectively. The Company turned out in full strength and presented a fine appearance as they marched through the city headed by the pipers of the Newfoundland Highlanders.

Portia Returns.

The S. S. Portia, Capt. J. Kean, arrived back from the westward yesterday morning, bringing the following passengers in saloon:—
Messrs. W. Moulton, C. Way, R. B. Crocker, J. J. Dobbin; Mesdames Street, Nolan; Misses O'Grady, E. English, L. Cross, M. Street in saloon and 15 in second class.

Big Blaze Yesterday.

At noon yesterday an alarm of fire summoned the Central and Western Companies to the rear of Parker & Monroe's West End Shoe Store where a considerable blaze was in progress. The firemen were on the scene promptly and after applying two streams of water soon had the blaze under control, but not before a large quantity of the stock had been destroyed by the fire. The interior of the building was badly burned and several cases of boots were totally destroyed, while a large quantity of boots and shoes of various kinds have been so damaged as to be unfit for sale. The extent of the damage is not yet known, but it is estimated that the loss will exceed $10,000, which we understand is covered by insurance. The exact origin of the fire is not known, but it is supposed to have been caused by the dropping of a lighted match near some work which had been saturated with kerosene oil from a leaky package.

McMurdo's Store News

MONDAY, Oct. 4, 15.
Most self shavers set great store on a Shaving Soap which is bland and mild, and which does not irritate the skin of the face and neck. This applies particularly to the autumn months and those of winter. Well, we believe Excelsis is the mildest Shaving Soap made. And it is a well dried Soap that will not waste, but will last a very long time. Price 35c. a stick.
We have just opened a new stock of Dr. Chase's Medicines—Nerve Food, Kidney-Liver Pills, Linseed and Turpentine, and Ointment; and we also announce the opening of a lot of Allenbury's Food, Nos. 1, 2 and 3.

Undesirables Cause Fire.

Undesirables are commonly called good-for-nothings, who are in the habit of loitering along the water front, are alleged to be the cause of yesterday's fire, which did so much damage to Parker & Monroe's Store. It was well the blaze was discovered as soon, otherwise the results might have been more serious. The police are now looking for the "wrecking" who were seen around that part of the city yesterday morning. Evidently they dropped a lighted match and ignited a cask of kerosene oil.

Amusements.

TO-DAY AT THE CRESCENT.

To-day the Crescent Picture Palace presents a first class picture programme specially selected for the patrons of the popular theatre. The picture "Litter Lesson" is a modern society drama produced in two acts by the Kaleem Company and featuring Alice Hamilton. A feature is "The Apple" with Dorothy Kelly and James Morrison. "Out of Storm" is a thrilling mining drama, and a gala of fun is produced in "Love Oil and Grease," a lively comedy with Lloyd V. Hamilton. A classy selection of music accompanies this fine show.

On Wednesday a superb picturization of Browning's celebrated poem: "The Ring and the Book" will be shown.

CHARMING PICTURES AT NICKEL TO-DAY.

A great modern problem play, "The Trey O' Hearts," will be presented at the Nickel Theatre to-day. The exciting adventures of a curious character are told in fifteen episodes. "The Chinese Lottery" is a beautiful melo-drama admirably staged by the Reliance Company. It is an exceptionally attractive story and had wonderful success in New York recently when it was first released there. "Mabel and Fanny Trouble" is the comedy, and a very funny one it is. The Harmony Boys, Messrs. Huskins and Cairns, will be heard in a couple of most attractive songs. All patrons of the Nickel should make an effort to attend to-day's show. The Nickel is noted for the best music, effects, singing and pictures, and to-day's bill is in keeping with those of the past. Wednesday the "Million Dollar Mystery."
