Intends Enlisting With "Ours."

Mr. Ernest Chafe, of St. John's, who was with the Stefansson Expedition Party a few years ago, where he was badly frostbitten, underwent a successful operation in Hospital at Vancouver, recently. Being anxious to join the colours he was examined recently for physical fitness and passed, but acting on the advice of his medical examiner is taking a rest and will return here next month and enlist with our Regiment. He hoped to get here in time to be able to leave with his brother in H Co., but unfortunately could not do so. Ern. is an old C. E. B. boy and has the right spirit about him.
