Published by Authority

On recommendation of the Military Service Board and under the provisions of the War Measures Act, 1914-16, and the Military Service Act, 1918, the following further Regulations have been approved by His Excellency the Governor in Council.

14.—After any class or sub-class has been called out, and after the expiration of the time limited by the calling-out proclamation for reporting for service or making applications for exemption, any man, who may reasonably be supposed to be a member of the class or sub-class called out, many, at any reasonable time, be escorted by any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, or by any commissioned or non-commissioned military officer, or by any police officer or constable, and questioned as to all or any of the following matters, to-wit:—His name, occupation, place of employment, abode, date and place of birth, and any other matters relevant to show whether or not he is within such class or sub-class, or whether or not he has reported for, or is excepted or exempted from military service; and the man shall, if required, produce his certificate or such evidence as may be in his possession. If he has any, showing that he has reported, or is not at the time liable to report; and it shall be the duty of any such man so questioned to answer truthfully, and to the best of his information, knowledge and belief, all questions so put to him.

15.—If any man so accosted, and questioned do not answer, or does not truthfully answer, all questions put to him touching the matters aforesaid, or, if the officer questioning him have reasonable grounds to believe that the answers are untruthful or evasive, he may detain the man and take him before a Justice of the Peace to be dealt with according to law; provided that nothing in this regulation shall affect the application of Section 12 of the Military Service Act, 1918.

16.—It shall be the duty of every person to answer any questions which may be asked of or submitted to him orally or in writing by the registrar or by any military or police officer relating to the age, occupation, abode, address or domestic position of any man who may reasonably be supposed or be a member of any class or sub-class called out or to any facts which may be of use in determining whether such a man is entitled to exemption or enabling him to be found or identified, and any person who fails to answer any such questions shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars nor less than twenty-five dollars.
