Premos and Camera Supplies!

At the Kodak Store to-day you will find all you require for your Spring Camera work. We have a full stock of Cameras in all the popular sizes, and our supply of Roll-films, Film-packs, and Camera requisites generally is a very large and complete one.

Come to the Kodak Store for your Camera supplies. Tooton, the Kodak Man, will give you just what TOOTON'S.

Strike Leaders Have Left London. bestow many thousands of ceremonial kisses, mostly upon the uninviting bearded and unbearded cheeks of

House of Commons Will Take He has shown no hesitation about New Action--Winter Weather in form of osculation. He has, indeed, U.K. Adds to Discomfort--Tor- custom. He has decreed its abolition, nado Sweeps Texas and Arkansas pression of his regard by means of a -- New U.S. Ambassadors.

NEW U. S. AMBASSADORS.

of Ohio, to be Ambassador to France,

were confirmed yesterday by the

ANOTHER BYE-ELECTION.

MENTON, France, April 17.

member of British Army Council dur-

In Ashanti.

unwisely caused several of the coffins

of the Royal massoleum at Bantama

to be broken open and stripped of him to the Abrampon"—the barons of the land, or "those entitled to use elephants' tails"—"who, scandalized

at the sacrilege, determined to depo

loaded gun and a keg of gunpowder

on for ever. He held out for five days, their gold ornaments . . . Queen-Mother recognized some of her

NGE

NGE

THE STRIKE SITUATION. | ing, attended by all the members of ort from the coal strike to the peo- ment. ole of Great Britain as the need for iready closely held fuel was increasby the appearance of wintry eather throughout the United Kingom with considerable snowfall in om with considerable snowfall in of New York, to be Ambassador to president, and to followe sections. Leaders of the strik-Great Britain, and Myron T. Herrick, matter of etiquette. g miners have all left London, apently much to the disappointment rned in the dispute, who had been United States Senate. ping that now the political question lved in the demand of the miners the Triple Alliance, it might be made necessary by the resignation of daughter of a peer, was entitled to a essible to get negotiations on the Laurence Lyons, formerly of Toronto, ceremonial kiss from the sovereign on was adjudged bankrupt in Jan- presentation at court. Thursday night in virtually taking the Party will again contest the seat. affair out of the hands of the Governbringing in a new phase and the affair Government Departments, but kely to help in a more speedy reaching of settlement. Bad weather and tizens offering themselves for en- Lieutenant Generalship. He attained lin was compelled to follow suit.

listment. It was officially intimated the rank of General in 1910. He was to-day that Premier Lloyd George and fifty-eight years old. the other Cabinet ministers are still anxious to negotiate for a permanent settlement of the wages question. This desire is in line with the struggle. for their products. The strike has night and is certain to continue for time since the days of King Kofi of least another week, by which time Ashanti, of the fall of Coomassie, and available stocks of coal will be greatly depleted. The Mines' Departgreatly depleted. The Mines' Department of the Board of Trade is already puzzled by the problem of taking out available supplies, and it is understood to be considering still further drastic rationing. Train services will be additionally curtailed during the coming week. In line with this policy the Admiralty is preparing to bring coal from Nova Scotia, for its own use and some of the big coal using factories are preparing to import coal from the United States. A mass meet factories are preparing to import coal gold nuggets that he scattered among from the United States. A mass meetto-day passed resolutions in favor of calling a general railway strike unless the just claims of miners were adjusted by next Friday.

A DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO.

ору

rne,

LITTLE ROCK, Arkansas, April 17. A rapidly mounting death list, mother's trinkets, which she knew to which may exceed fifty, dozens of per- have been buried with her, adorning ons injured and property damage one of Kofii Kari's wives." And ther yet unestimated, are the results of a trouble began!
tornado that cut a width swath across "She accused the King," Sir Fran part of Arkansas and Texas on Sat- cis goes on, "of rifing his grandurday morning.

MEXICO CITY, April 17. Numerous retired army officers have him.

requested President Obregon that they may be sent into active service himself on the golden stool with a

MOURNING SERVICE FOR EX-EM-and then had to abdicate, on the un-derstanding that he would be allowed as held in Doorn Castle this morn- And his reign came to an end.

Exit the Kiss

of Ceremony.

President Millerand, France's chief magistrate, has inaugurated reform man whom he invests with the Order of the Legion of Honor, upon the prize ment exercises at which he may be present, upon the girls and young women who present him with flowers at public receptions, and upon the small boys who address to him verse roval personages whom he may visit who may declaim from typewritte supposed to constitute a recognition of the sentiments enunciated, rather han a tribute to the doubtful pulchitude of the speaker.

Although only a few months have lansed since the elevation of Alexandre Millerand to the presidency of eclined to adhere any longer to the and henceforth he will give an exhandshake in lieu of a kiss.

the former Imperial household, some government and their nation, but LONDON, April 17. of its most intimate friends and sev- also in a much more personal sense Sunday brought additional discom- eral officials of the Dutch Govern- the rulers of their native land, no is derived from royal inheritance or popular election. They are therefore WASHINGTON, Apjril 17. obliged to conform to the rules of The nominations of George Harvey, their sovereign, whether king or president, and to follow his cue in the > Example Set by King Edward. In abolishing ceremonial osculation, President Millerand may be said to have taken a leaf out of the book of the late King Edward VII. Until A bye-election at Hastings has been peeress of the realm, but also every

tion of the House of Commons last uary, and it is likely that the Labor | At Dublin Castle the viceroy of Ireland, as lord-lieutenant of the monarch, was required by etiquette to ment, was widely commented upon as WELL KNOWN ARMY OFFICER accord a similar salutation to every woman presented, no matter whether young or old, married or sing General Sir John Steven Cowans, ly or beautiful. King Edward did not favor indising of settlement. Bad weather and the collapse of the threatened railing the European war, died here yes criminate osculation. He abolished the collapse of the threatened railing the European war, died here yes criminate osculation. He abolished the many hundred-year-old custom of the effect of retarding recruiting recruiting recruiting recruiting recruiting recruiting r

It was this same monarch who finally did away with the ancient custom which required the sovereign in Westminister Abbey to bestow a kiss on every peer, spiritual or temporal; when making homage. George IV. protested against the kissing, but was obliged to give way to the obligations for their products. The strike has crowded that it seems a very long of eliquette and of ancient tradition. His successor. William IV., was likewise compelled to fulfill his obliga

> Edward VII., however, was more fortunate. He had his way, and on the opening of his coronation he ago, on the occasion of his coronation the earliest times. Long prior to the decorum." Indeed, there are some old equal knowledge, and so did the early when he

Cuticura Soap Clears the Skin and Keeps it Clear

And it is on record that the ancient Greeks made their wives eat onions dark room. This prevents their turnwhenever they were going from home, ing yellow.

Fisherman's Friend.

Household Notes.

A little nutmeg added to the white sauce of creamed fish gives a delicious

When washing a clothesline, wraparound washboard and scrub with When buying pecan nuts avoid those which have been treated with a bright red color. If you wish to keep parsley, place, in fresh water in ice chest and change water every day. Add one pound of finely chopped dates to a batch of whole wheat bread.

The child who does not care for

J (Copyright 1910 by George Matthew Adams-Trade Mark Reg istered U. S. Patent Office)

Facts for Women

If you spend $5 or $50 on foreign-made goods that's the last you know of your $5 or

BUT

If you spend $5 or $50 on goods made in Newfoundland a percentage of the amount you spend comes back to your own purse via your

HUSBAND'S PAY ENVELOPE

Think it Over!!

Goods made and sold in Newfoundland By Newfoundlanders Means prosperity for Newfoundland

There are certain forms of cerethe present ruler of Great Britain nor feasts. yet the late king ever attempted to abolish. Thus archbishops and bishops of the Church of England, ampassadors and ministers plenipoter tiary, Cabinet officers and the grea dignitaries of the court and the State riss the hand of the sovereign at the udience in which he confers on them their appointment, and the fact that they have "kissed hands on appoint-his son and successor, King George London Gazette.

V., followed his example ten years | Ceremonial kissing dates back from because it tended to "unedifying in- lips.

either the peers or the bishops, and Court Circular, and in the ancient forbid all religious or ceremonial kiss- self would be distasteful with a flavor ing, especially osculation, in church, of garlic hanging about her delicate

Christian era those initiated into the Latin writings which would seem to Eleusinian mysteries kissed each indicate that the smacks, were too other in token of brotherhood and of loud, something like Petruccio's lines, nonial kiss, however, which neither Christians at the agapes, or love "Kissed her lips with such a clamor feasts.

But in the fourth century the Coun- That at the parting all the church did We know that the old Romans kis

ed, not, however, for the sake of love but to find out "if the wife had been rinking wine in the master's ab-