New Publications.

BARNES ON THE PSALMS .- The first vol me of a work bearing this title has been issued by the Harpers, and we are in re ceipt of a copy from Messrs Tunis & Co., Clifton. The commentary on the Psalms is much after the style of the author's "Notes on the New Testament." For icid explanation given in language ited to the most common understand ng Dr. Barnes has few equals. As an aid to a full comprehension of the Psalms those grand and sublimely poetic effu sions of the "Sweet Singer of Israel" the present work will be found very valuable For sale at Day's boookstore

THE MOONSTONE .- This book has been eagerly expected for some time. It was known that Wilkie Collins was writing novel and that the name was to be "The nstone," and the fame which he has already so fairly won led the public to anticipate a very delightful book, and to await its appearance with impatience. It is superfluous to say anything in favour of the works of Collins, it is enough to make readers aware that the novel has has been published and copies of it may be had at Day's bookstore.

WESTMINSTER REVIEW.—The last num-ber of this able periodical has been received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Co. New York. It has articles on the following subjects :- The Character of British Rule in India, Davidson's Introduction to the New Testament, Co-operation applied to the dwellings of the people, Nitro Glycerine, The Marciage Laws Contemporary Literature. The Review is for sale at the bookstores in town.

Edinburgh Review.—We have received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Co. the last number of the Edinburgh Review.
