WEDDINGS

MITCHELL-LANG

One of the most interesting weddings of the season took place yesterday afternoon in the Pro-Cathedral, when Miss Kathleen Lang, daughter of Mr. George Lang, twenty-sixth avenue, was united in holy matrimony to ex-Mayor John Mitchell. The ceremony, which was entirely choral, was performed by the Rev. C. Hiers, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives from many parts of Canada. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, wore an exquisite gown of white charmeuse satin, veiled in Chantilly lace, and trimmed with rhinestones and pearls. The long court train was borne by little Miss Swendoline Lang. On her head was a Juliette cap and flowing veil, and she wore a locket with her monogram in peace, the gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mollie Lang, and Miss Marian Cosar. The former wore green satin with overdress of embroidered shawl lace and trimmed with green rhinestones and pearls. Her hat was of pink satin, and she carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Miss Cosar's dress was of pink satin, her hat being of green satin and her bouquet, pink sweet peas. Mrs. George Lang wore a gown of American Beauty satin with black and white Irish lace, and black picture hat with white feather and American Beauty rose. The groomsmen were Mr. Walter Sagarow and Mr. A. D. Carrigan. The groom's gifts were: To the brides, made, heavy gold bangles to the bridesmaids, a maple leaf brooch in pearls; to Mrs. George Lang, a pair of pearl earrings, and to the groomsmen, pearl stick pins.

After the ceremony there was an elegant reception held at the home of the bride's parents, Col. Walker, proposing the toast of the bride and groom. The tables were beautifully decorated with white stock and marguerites, the rooms being perfect covers of sweet peas, carnations, American Beauty roses and ferns. On every side were presents, costly and handsome, much silver and cut glass being on view. Both bride and groom are well known.

and popular and even yet all the presents have not been opened. Among the most noticeable was a china cabinet and clock in mahogany, the gift of the officers and men of the fire department.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell left for the south, where they will spend a month, and on their return will reside on the corner of Fourteenth avenue and Second street east.

Among the guests at the church and reception were: Miss Marian Cosar, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Spankie, Miss Barber, Rev. James Long, Farnburg; Mr. J. B. Mitchell of England; Misses Annie, Flora, Minnie, Kate, and Ethel Mitchell, of England; Dr. Weeks, Cardston; Mr. Barwell, Mr. Richy, Mrs. E. L. Richardson, Dr. and Mrs. Smythe, Medicine Hat; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Smith, Medicine Hat; Mr. and Mrs. W. Cousins, Medicine Hat; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lensen, Medicine Hat; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Castro, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Akitt; Mr. Benjamin, Miss Shabby, Misses R. and S. Duff, Mr. and Mrs. (Continued on Page Five.)
