The Cream of the Havana Crop.

We beg to notify the trade, and more particularly those customers whom we have kept waiting for several months for our La Cadena and La Flor brands of cigars (owing to the Havana crop not having been in every respect to the highest class of imported at much less figures. We wish particularly to impress upon smokers the fact that these brands are not made in competition with the great majority of cheap Havana cigars that are offered to the public as fine goods.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—He's really the nicest boy I know.

So I take him along wherever I go;

To church, to the house, or to the banquet, and anything else that a boy could name.

His every wish is my command,

And all that he wants is right at hand;

But—this confession I have to make—

I do it all for his sister's sake.

—The new Council will meet at 10 o'clock on Monday, Jan. 19.

—Mayor Taylor was congratulated on all sides yesterday morning.

—Miss Cecilia Brophy, of Clarence street, is visiting friends in Detroit.

—The funeral of the late Mr. Wm. Weld this afternoon will be attended by the Masonic fraternity.

—Nearly all the new aldermen paid their respects to the chief magistrate at the City Hall yesterday morning.

—The police magistrate was greeted with an angry docket yesterday morning, and court was adjourned sine die.

—Miss Belle Taylor, stenographer for D.

S. Perrin & Co., has returned home from a trip to her relatives in Buffalo.

—Deputy Chief Clausman John Fairgrieve, of this city, will organize a Scottish rigid clan at Niagara Falls this week.

—Mr. Geo. Young, of South London, maintained a bad cut in the hand on Saturday by showing the member against a saw.

—Mrs. Ward, of Craig street, suffered severe injuries in the face and side Monday by falling from a chair on which she was standing.

—Mr. J. Maddiford was thrown out of his rig in South London Monday through his horse running away. He was not seriously hurt.

—At Osgoode Hall, Toronto, in Ansho-va Meredith, counsel for the plaintiff obtained an order for administration, with a reference to the master at London.

—Mayor Pearson, of Winnipeg, had a look around the city yesterday. He was so favorably impressed that he has determined to make a second visit in the summer.

—An informal meeting of the new Board of Water Commissioners was held in Mayor Taylor's office yesterday. Mutual congratulations was the only business transacted.

—John L. Sullivan and wife are registered at the Tecumseh House. He appeared in the Grand Opera House last evening in "True Hearts and Willing Hands."

—Mr. Frederiek Smallman, of Beloece street, inadvertently thrust a chisel into his knee the other day and supplemented the injury by having a huge piece of lumber fall upon him.

—Judge Street was to have opened the Winter Assize Court yesterday at 10 o'clock, but he did not arrive. A message was received from him to the effect that he was in Detroit and would be here in the evening.

—The scene presented in the City Hall yesterday after Monday night's meeting defies description. The furniture was tossed about in every direction and more than half the benches were more or less broken.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Millar, of Toronto, are in the city on a short visit to relatives here. Mr. Millar has accepted a position with the Boynton Furnace Company of New York, and leaves in a few days to enter on his duties.

—Mr. Richard Sharpe, general merchant and deputy police magistrate of Lobo village, has been honored by being appointed police magistrate, a promotion he is well worthy of. The office will be removed at once to Mr. Sharpe's new store.

—Assistant City Clerk Kingston affirms that Monday's vote was the largest ever polled in any contest in this city. Over 80 per cent. of the total vote was polled. There were fewer disagreements and blunders than have occurred for several years.

—Yesterday was the festival of the Epiphany, which commemorates the appearance of the star which led the wise men of the East to the infant Saviour, who lay in the stable in Bethlehem. The feast is duly observed by services in the Roman Catholic and Anglican churches.

—Mr. O. J. Stevenson has said farewell to Streetsville and left for his home in London. On Friday, at the closing of the high school, Mr. Stevenson was made the recipient by the pupils of the school of a handsome traveling case and address.—

[Brampton Correspondent.]

—The candidates, successful and otherwise, have all found a solution for their victory or defeat. Each man knows exactly how the day was won or lost. The successful rejoice in their election, and the unsuccessful find solace in the knowledge that they can give more time to their private business.

—Hon. John Carling came from Ottawa to pass the vote for Mr. Minihick. He spent considerable time canvassing, and then went back to Ottawa. When he read the returns, he was a sadder and a wiser man. There was a time when Mr.

Carling's wish and word were law in London, but that time has gone past.

—Rev. G. Trotter Carr, of this city, recently composed the words of an opening hymn which Prof. Allen set to music, for the Frome Congregational Church Sunday school. The hymn was sung at the anniversary services the other evening and met with such favor that the pupils tendered a hearty vote of thanks to the joint composers.

—Peter Silver, of Onondatow, who has been in jail here for the past few days in default of a $1 fine and costs for disorderly conduct, paid Jailer Kelly a crisp $1 bill yesterday and was set at liberty.

The Delaware constables will doubtless lose their costs.

—The office of Forest City Lodge, No.

38, E. O. F., were duly installed Monday night by D. D. G. M. Bro. W. Fairbairn, assisted by Past Grand Henry Bissell, as
