

Scrofula in the Neck

The following is from Mrs. J. W. Tillbrook, wife of the Mayor of McKeesport, Penn.: "My little boy Willie, now six years old, had a bunch under one ear which the doctor said was Scrofula. As it continued to grow he finally lanced it and it discharged for some time. We then began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla and he improved very rapidly until the sore healed up. Last winter it broke out again, followed by Erysipelas. We again gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla with most excellent results and he has had no further trouble. His cure is due to Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

It has never been very robust, but now seems healthy and daily growing stronger."

THE TURF.

THE LAST OF GARFIELD PARK RACE TRACK. CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—The City Council last night settled the fate of the Garfield Park race track by sustaining by a vote of 63 to 3 the mayor's veto of an ordinance providing for the license of such places of amusement. The track cannot now open up again. It has been discovered that 170 feet of Hawthorne creek are within the city limits, and the mayor has instructed the chief of police to take immediate steps to stop racing within the corporate limits.

outs, continued their innings, and the former added 10 to his score. The inning term lasted shortly afterwards, the only noteworthy feature being Laing's contribution of 15, making the home total 107, or 24 behind their opponents.

Gavin and L. R. Thompson opened Ireland's second inning, but both soon retired with injury 2 to start the score. The visiting captain (Meldrum) put together 8 runs when time was called. After lunch the men were scarcely in their place when the rain came down and stopped the game, and after waiting a couple of hours the game was declared drawn in favor of the visitors on the first inning. THE TRIGGER.

NEVER!

Toronto World: Never regard your gun as empty; never point it at anyone; never, in handing it about, allow the muzzle to be pointed at anyone.

Never draw it out of a coat with the muzzle towards you; never, when walking with it in your hands, allow the barrels to line anyone, either in front or behind you. If in the open carry it across the hollow of your left arm; if in brush or thicket carry it muzzle up and look at half cock.

Never climb a fence with a gun in your hand. Better to draw the charges and reload after you are safely over. If a muzzle-loader remove the caps from the nipples. Never attempt to close a breech-loader with the hammers resting on the plungers.

Never shoot at anything when there is danger of wounding anyone who might be in the line of fire.

Never, in shooting from a boat, allow the stern man to use his gun. Sit at the bow and let all the shooting be done from there. Men are liable to become excited when shooting and to pay more attention to the game than to those around them.

Never finger or foot with the triggers. This is a common fault with men sitting idly waiting for a shot, and has been productive of many accidents.

Never leave a loaded gun in the house. Always withdraw the charges when the day's shooting is ended. Then children cannot by handling it provide a subject for a funeral.

ATLANTIC.

James Rooney, a saloon-keeper of Plymouth, Pa., was found dead in his bed Thursday morning. He had bet all his property on Sullivan in the Sullivan-Corbett fight. It is supposed that despair over his losses caused him to commit suicide.

John L. Sullivan was in a state of intoxication when he left New Orleans. He had to be helped on board the train by Phil Casey and Joe Lannon. While in the depot, Dan Murphy, one of Sullivan's nearest friends, approached him, and told him not to lose heart, as his friends would stand by him. The only reply Sullivan made was to raise the umbrella he carried, and, by a sudden blow, fell Murphy to the floor. There would have been a free fight had not others interfered.

A Stratford Baby!

There lives to-day in Stratford, Ont., a baby boy who is plump, fat and strong. A short time ago his condition was alarming—the family thought he must die. He was sickly, thin, weak and very restless, and required constant care and attention.

The mother was almost worn out by anxiety and watching, and believed she had used every possible means for baby's recovery. Fortunately she thought of Lactated Food, and decided to give it to him immediately. The sickly baby seemed to relish its first meal of this food. It was retained on the stomach, much to the surprise of all.

The baby, after a few days' feeding on Lactated Food, was doing splendidly, and every day an advancement was made in strength. To-day the happy mother is one of the strongest advocates of the wonderful food that saved her baby.

Mother, if your dear baby is not strong, bright and happy, let us advise you to try this same Lactated Food, which is so strongly recommended by the majority of the mothers of Canada.

Mysterious Disappearance.

ST. THOMAS, Sept. 13.—M. C. E. section men this morning found on the track, two miles east of Windham, a man's hat, pocketbook and letter. In the hat was a conductor's check, bearing the name of Conductor W. A. Deyell. Conductor Deyell was in charge of No. 6 express this morning. It is supposed the owner of the hat and pocketbook was a passenger on No. 6, and jumped or fell off the train. No trace of the man, however, could be found. The letter picked up was addressed, "Mr. John Patterson, Lake City, Mich., box 350."

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, is ear ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, in which the young are especially subject.

THE BARBER AND ELLIS COMPANY.

No. 43, 45, 47, 49 Bay Street, Toronto.

Wholesale stationers and manufacturers of envelopes, blank books, fancy plush and leather boxes.

Our customers and friends are cordially invited to call and see our factory in operation, also to inspect our stock of goods, the largest and best assorted stock ever offered to the printing and stationery trades. Ask to see our samples of plush paperies. They are fully equal in style and finish to the best imported goods and of better value. We would be much pleased to have our warehouse visited, as our travelers do not carry samples of one-tenth the variety of goods which we sell.

CHRISTIE'S BISCUIT DISPLAY.

In the same corner as last year the elegant display of fancy biscuits shown by Messrs. Christie, Brown & Co. is again to be found. The firm has a household world in every part of Canada, whether crowded city or secluded hamlet. It goes stamped indelibly on that pleasantest of all tables, the fancy biscuit, and the quality of the goods is such as to make them popular wherever they are once known. The firm was established in 1850, and since that time they have sent out millions of biscuits to every part of the continent. They were the first to popularize the soda biscuit, every family. Fifteen years ago they moved into their present spacious factory, at the corner of Duke and Frederick streets, and this business has been constantly on the increase. They are at present putting up an immense addition to their factory to accommodate their ever-enlarging business. They employ about 200 hands in the factory, an office staff of twelve, six outside travelers and two messengers almost the time to the city. Six wagons are engaged all the time in delivering goods, and the firm is very immense ovens used in baking the biscuits. They are the only exhibitors in their line of goods at the Toronto Industrial. They are the leading house, not in Toronto alone, but in Canada; they are the only firm of consequence in this country engaged exclusively in the manufacture of biscuits. Such a house, with such a reputation, could hardly fail to make a magnificent display. Their show occupies a space of over 60 feet in length and reaches almost to the ceiling. There are fully 100 varieties of biscuits shown, and this will give some idea of the extent of their business. The biscuits, which are of every conceivable size, flavor and taste, are displayed in the most artistic manner, and are very easily seen. It would, of course, be out of the question to attempt a description of the varieties, but among the newest goods might be mentioned "Christie's Infant Food," which is just the thing for the warmest looking and waiting for it. It is made of the purest and most nutritious ingredients, and is sure to be in big demand. Several improvements are made in the style and size of some of their standard biscuits, and the popular "Snow Bakes" are to be had in next fine design. In the way of diplomas and medals the firm has almost a surfeit. It is no great honor for them to be presented with a first prize, as this is now their right, and the natural result of their entering into competition with other houses. Between 1858 and 1862 they received four first prizes for their goods, since which time to the present seventeen first prizes, including three gold, four silver and four bronze medals have been awarded them. Where do Christie-Brown goods go? Everywhere. They ship to British Columbia in special cars, and in the Northwest they occupy first place in meeting the demand for biscuits, and all over the Western Provinces they have a branch warehouse, with two travelers specially allotted to that section. It might be noted, too, before concluding, that the firm make fruit to relish his high, and his business season they are able to assist confectioners very materially by making for them large quantities of Christmas cake. The exhibit this year is in charge of Mr. F. C. Brett.

MRS. JEWETT'S PETS.

She Cultivates Tonsils That They in Turn May Kill Bugs on Her Plants.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 13.—Mrs. W. K. Jewett, daughter of the late E. T. Stewart, of Philadelphia, who by her eloquence during the war raised $1,000,000 for the Soldiers' Christian Commission, has started a peculiar "infant industry." It is the raising of tonsils. Two lady neighbors have long wondered at the luxuriance and beauty of the plants in her conservatory and garden, but she easily explains it. She says that her attention was first attracted to the toads by the way they gathered around the electric light near her residence in the evening and made war on insects. She thought that they could keep the insects out of her flowers, and made a few experiments. For several evenings she left the plants on the lawn in the open air, and to her surprise found that all the insects were gone in the morning. She then attracted the toads to her garden by placing lights there at night and soon her plants began to grow and flourish, as they never had before.

When winter came a number of the creatures were captured and brought into the conservatory, and placed in a glass case, where they multiplied rapidly. They learned to know their mistress and have now become so trained that they will come at the call of her voice. They are fed daily on live flies; they will not eat dead ones. Mrs. Jewett takes much pride in her pets.

STREET RAILWAY MATTERS.

Cost of Material Furnished by the City—Engineer Graydon's Figures Disputed.

The following is a copy of a letter sent by Mr. V. Cronyn, president of the London Street Railway Company, to City Clerk Kingston:

THE LONDON STREET RAILWAY COMPANY, London, Sept. 13, 1892.

C. A. Kingston, Esq., City Clerk:

Dear Sir,—Referring to the statement to the City Council recently furnished by the city engineer, purporting to give the cost of material, etc., furnished by the city to the street railway during the past four years, I cannot conceive where he has obtained his figures from. In justice to the street railway company, I must ask for the details upon which the statement is based, giving dates and the streets upon which supplied, and the parts of such streets where furnished; for I don't hesitate to say that not one-tenth the amount as stated has ever been supplied to the street railway or ever required by them from the city. On the contrary, if given the opportunity, I am sure that I can satisfy the council that valuable permanent improvements have been made in the streets by the street railway at their own expense and in excess of any costs to the city by the street railway.

Such a statement as has been furnished can only have one object, viz., to prejudice the minds of the council and public against the present street railway company.

I therefore ask that, in fair play to the street railway company, the city accounts be placed in the hands of the auditor, Mr. Jewell, to report on the matter, to whom I will also refer our street railway books, and if the result does not justify what I say I will be responsible for the costs of the investigation. Yours truly,

V. CRONYN, President L. S. R. Co.

The extra clerks in the civil service continue to agitate to be allowed a couple of weeks' holidays. In the meantime if they are away for a day their pay is stopped.

"August Flower"

Mr. Lorenzo F. Sleeper is very well known to the citizens of Appleton, Me., and neighborhood. He says: "Eight years ago I was taken 'sick, and suffered as no one but a 'dyspeptic can. I then began taking 'August Flower. At that time 'I was a great sufferer. Every 'thing I ate distressed me so that I 'had to throw it up. Then in a 'few moments that horrid distress 'would come on and I would have 'to eat and suffer 'again. I took a 'little of your medicine, and felt much 'better, and after 'taking a little more 'August Flower my 'Dyspepsia disappeared, and since that time I 'have never had the first sign of it.
